On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris, 2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure

Theory of the Novel Guido Mazzoni,2017-01-02 In his theory of the novel Guido Mazzoni explains that novels consist of stories told in any way whatsoever about the experiences of ordinary men and women who exist as contingent beings within time and space Novels allow readers to step into other lives and other versions of truth each a small local world absolute in its particularity Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint

Aubert,2020-08-04 Merleau Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau Ponty s extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co naissance from Val ry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression The Poetics of Ethnography in Martinican Narratives Christina Kullberg,2013-11-04 Drawing on narratives from Martinique by Aim C saire douard Glissant Ina C saire and Patrick Chamoiseau among others Christina Kullberg shows how these writers turn to ethnography even as they critique it as an exploration and expression of the self They acknowledge its tradition as a colonial discourse and a study of others but they also argue for ethnography s advantage in connecting subjectivity to the outside world Further they find that ethnography offers the possibility of capturing within the hybrid culture of the Caribbean an emergent self that nonetheless remains attached to its collective history and environment Rather than claiming to be able to represent the culture they also feel alienated from these writers explore the relationships between themselves the community and the environment Although Kullberg s focus is on Martinique her work opens up possibilities for intertextual readings and comparative studies of writers from every linguistic region in the Caribbean not only francophone but also Hispanic and anglophone In addition her interdisciplinary approach extends the reach of her work beyond postcolonial and literary studies to anthropology and ecocriticism

Reading Boyishly Carol Mavor,2007 Study of nostalgic representations of the maternal the home and childhood in the literature and photographs of early 20th century artists

American Hybrid Poetics Amy Moorman Robbins,2014-07-21 American Hybrid Poetics explores the ways in which hybrid poetics a playful mixing of disparate formal and aesthetic strategies have been the driving force in the work of a historically and culturally diverse group of women poets who are part of a robust tradition in contesting the dominant cultural order Amy Moorman Robbins examines the ways in which five poets Gertrude Stein Laura Mullen Alice Notley

Harryette Mullen and Claudia Rankine use hybridity as an implicitly political strategy to interrupt mainstream American language literary genres and visual culture and expose the ways in which mass culture in the twentieth and twenty first centuries has had a powerfully standardizing impact on the collective American imagination By forcing encounters between incompatible traditions consumer culture with the avant garde low culture forms with experimental poetics prose poetry with linguistic subversiveness these poets bring together radically competing ideologies and highlight their implications for lived experience Robbins argues that it is precisely because these poets have mixed forms that their work has gone largely unnoticed by leading members and critics in experimental poetry circles
