

HEALING BREAST CANCER PRAYER FOR A FRIEND

“Dearest Heavenly Father,

Today I don't pray for myself, but for (say her name),
who has been diagnosed with breast cancer.

You know her by name because You shaped her in her mother's womb. Her name is scribed on Your palms.
Therefore, hold her dearly with everlasting love. Take away her worries and concern.

I ask that You extend her number of years and make her a walking miracle and proof of Your powers. Do not turn Your face away from her, oh Lord. Hear her cry and come to her aid. Above all, I pray for Your healing power over (say her name)'s entire body.

I ask and believe in Jesus Christ,

Amen”

Getting Better Conversations With Myself And Other Friends While Healing From Breast Cancer:

Getting Better Anne C. Hargrove, 1988 Reconstructing Illness Anne Hunsaker Hawkins, 1999 Serious illness and mortality those most universal unavoidable and frightening of human experiences are the focus of this pioneering study which has been hailed as a telling and provocative commentary on our times As modern medicine has become more scientific and dispassionate a new literary genre has emerged pathography the personal narrative concerning illness treatment and sometimes death Hawkins s sensitive reading of numerous pathographies highlights the assumptions attitudes and myths that people bring to the medical encounter One factor emerges again and again in these case studies the tendency in contemporary medical practice to focus primarily not on the needs of the individual who is sick but on the condition that we call disease Pathography allows the individual person a voice one that asserts the importance of the experiential side of illness and thus restores the feeling thinking experiencing human being to the center of the medical enterprise Recommended for medical practitioners the clergy caregivers students of popular culture and the general reader Reconstructing Illness demonstrates that only when we hear both the doctor s and the patient s voice will we have a medicine that is truly human Oncology Nursing Forum , 1995 The Psychological and Social Impact of Disability Robert P. Marinelli, 1999 Marinelli and Dell Orto continue the premise of their earlier editions of this widely adopted text and present a realistic perspective on disability Carefully selected articles and personal narratives capture the unique aspects of the psychological and social effects of disability Formatted to include thought provoking study questions and disability awareness exercises this text is recommended for students in rehabilitation counseling and physical therapy education programs as well as professionals in rehabilitation psychology and social work Charting the Journey Fitzhugh Mullan, National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship (U.S.), 1990 No Less a Woman Deborah Hobler Kahane, 1993-11 Ten interviews with women from all walks of life reveal the psychological effects of breast cancer and the ways in which women deal with the trauma and misconceptions associated with the disease Using Bibliotherapy in Clinical Practice John T. Pardeck, 1993-10-26 Pardeck provides mental health professionals with readily available information on self help books that can be effectively used with various clinical problems The materials presented can also be used by those not necessarily trained in clinical intervention this group would include parents teachers and librarians The approach offered bibliotherapy is an emerging clinical technique There are over 400 self help books presented and annotated that focus on chemical dependency coping with change family violence and dysfunctional families parenting personal growth serious illness social relationships and divorce and blended families Breast Cancer , 1991 After Breast Cancer: A Recovery Handbook Sara Liyanage, 2023-04-27 Once treatment stops and people leave strictly managed clinical environments survivors feel as though they had fallen off a cliff edge feeling isolated and abandoned at a time when support is needed the most Mental Health Foundation From the final infusion to the five year check After Breast Cancer gives a step by step support package to coping post treatment It follows on from Sara Liyanage s successful coverage of diagnosis and treatment in Ticking Off Breast Cancer and is driven not only by her experience of illness but underpinned by contributions from leading oncologists heads of cancer services and clinical consultant psychologists With a readable blend of informality and medically endorsed insight After Breast Cancer has an optimistic outlook and a reassuring tone but doesn t flinch from discussing the possibility of secondary cancer or the full impact of treatment and surgery on you or your loved one It features a huge amount of practical information including a full toolkit for navigating the days post treatment including breathing exercises mindfulness meditation journaling affirmations and a healthy bedtime routine Designed for women of all backgrounds whatever the nature of their diagnosis this blend of approachability lived experience and medical insight puts the power firmly back in your hands as a breast cancer survivor
