Overall, 2003-02-04 Annotation Life expectancy increasing dramatically for both social and scientific reasons This book explores the arguments for and against increasing the length of human life and proposes a progressive social policy for responding to a longer lived population Shame and the Aging Woman J. Brooks Bouson, 2016-08-19 This book brings together the research findings of contemporary feminist age studies scholars shame theorists and feminist gerontologists in order to unfurl the affective dynamics of gendered ageism In her analysis of what she calls embodied shame J Brooks Bouson describes older women's shame about the visible signs of aging and the health and appearance of their bodies as they undergo the normal processes of bodily aging Examining both fictional and nonfiction works by contemporary North American and British women authors this book offers a sustained analysis of the various ways that ageism devalues and damages the identities of otherwise psychologically healthy women in our graying culture Shame theory as Bouson shows astutely explains why gendered ageism is so deeply entrenched in our culture and why even aging feminists may succumb to this distressing but sometimes hidden cultural affliction The Art of Growing Old Carroll Saussy, This book shows not

Deane W. Ferm, 2004-08-04 It was once said of Ben Franklin that in the final decade of his life he had reached the age when life slopes to an end So here I am in my 8th decade sliding down that slippery slope It has been a great ride During my life as an author of 8 books I have written about other people and what they believed A Christian Century reviewer of my Contemporary American Theologies A Critical Survey gave his assessment Ferm s greatest asset is his uncanny ability to synthesize these diverse theologies into a larger conceptual whole A landmark of clarity This is what I have tried my best to do Here however as I slide down the slippery slope I express my own views which never seem to settle down but keep changing with the challenge of new experiences My lifetime mentor has been America s greatest philosopher William James whose writings have taught me to be aware of the varieties of religious experience and the right to believe about the things that matter the most In this book I confront such important issues as the meaning of religion faith and doubt the elusive inner self God Jesus the bible the church the life to come and I end with a challenge to senior citizens to get on with their unfinished doubts and lives My deepest conviction is that the more I know the less I know that life continues to be a bewildering Mystery I will continue investigating the central claims of religion while discarding the old myths with new realities Let us make these claims our religious act The greatest risk is not taking one Let us always have the courage of our confusions Deane William Ferm      Women Confronting Retirement Nan Bauer Maglin,Alice Radosh,2003 In this nontraditional guide the editors showcase the voices of 38 women as they confront the need to redefine who they are when they leave the workplace behind them 34 photos      Age Becomes Us Leni Marshall,2015-06-30 In lively accessible prose this book expands the reach and depth of age studies A review of age studies methods in theory literature and practice leads readers to see how their own intersectional identities shape their beliefs about age aging and old age This study asks readers to interrogate the texts of menopause self help books on aging and foundational age studies works In addition to the study of these nonfiction texts the poetry and prose of Doris Lessing Lucille Clifton and Louise Erdrich serve as vehicles for exploring how age relations work including how they invoke readers into kinships of reciprocal care as othermothers otherdaughters and otherelders The literary chapters examine how gifted storytellers provide enactments portrayals and metaphorical uses of age to create transformative potential      The Woman's Guide to Second Adulthood Suzanne Braun Levine,2011-12-05 Second Adulthood is a new stage of life for women over fifty The first generation of socially emancipated women have reached an important frontier they have fulfilled all their roles daughter wife mother career woman Yet with longer life expectancy and better health they have no intention of retiring from the world At the same time these women are experiencing an often bewildering array of physical readjustments their brains experience a growth very similar to that in adolescence they enter menopause their sexual and emotional rhythms change Such momentous challenges raise three crucial questions that each woman must answer for herself What matters What works What s next Drawing on interviews science trend analysis and her own struggles Levine explores all the issues and offers countless stories of how others have answered those three questions This is the inspiring handbook and companion for every woman entering these uncharted waters      From Old Woman to Older Women Sally Chivers,2003 Drawing on the perspective of aging bodies in order to approach the study of contemporary Canadian women's fiction the author seeks to understand body criticism in general because elderly physical experiences lay bare crucial assumptions of thinking through the body It also investigates the mechanisms and effects of constructions of aging in order to combat the automatically negative reactions most readers have to the topic of old age

Friendgrief Harold Ivan Smith, 2018-09-17 This book not only examines friendgrief from a theoretical and clinical framework but also Smith offers fascinating vignettes from the lives of well known friendgrievors such as Elton John Diane Sawyer Ralph Abernathy C S Lewis Harry Truman Tommy Lasorda Jimmy Carter Fritz Mondale Bill Clinton Calvin Trillin and Alan King The author includes moving narratives of numerous individuals who have never gained notoriety but have become seasoned friendgrievors

The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sarton's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sarton's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers' individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description
