Ian Jarvie, 2012-12-06 I C Jarvie was trained as a social anthropologist in the center of British social anthropology the London School of Economics where Bronislaw Malinowski was the object of ancestor worship Jarvie's doctorate was in philosophy however under the guidance of Karl Popper and John Watkins He changed his department not as a defector but as a rebel attempting to exorcize the ancestral spirit He criticized the method of participant observation not as useless but as not comprehensive it is neither necessary nor sufficient for the making of certain contributions to anthropology rather it all depends on the problem situation And so Jarvie remained an anthropologist at heart who in addition to some studies in rather conventional anthropological or sociological molds also studied the tribe of social scientists but also critically examining their problems especially their overall rather philosophical problems but not always so a few of the studies included in this volume exemplify his work on specific issues whether of technology or architecture or nationalism in the academy or moviemaking or even movies exhibiting excessive sex and violence These studies attract his attention both on account of their own merit and on account of their need for new and powerful research tools such as those which he has forged in his own intellectual workshop over the last two decades      Conspiracy Ideologies in Films and Series Denis Newiak, Anastasia Schnitzer, 2024-07-19 Corona as a staged instrument of oppression secretly kept vaccination deaths or politicians drinking children's blood at the latest since the outbreak of the Covid 19 pandemic conspiracy ideologies are booming and harm social peace and democratic will formation through their dogmatism So called conspiracy theories generate systematic distrust of legitimate political institutions and can contribute to social polarization dangerous populism and extremist escalation Conspiracy ideologies have always been a topic in movies and television series as they have always dealt with the relationship between reality and illusion truth and fiction reality and dream sense and madness through their cinematic means Series and films not only serve as a discursive space for social self understanding but also through their complex narratives constellations of characters and aesthetics offer catchy explanations for the emergence and spread of conspiracy narratives At the same time they make suggestions some of them astonishingly concrete for dealing with such collective delusions What can we learn from the fictional worlds of series and films for dealing with this very real contemporary phenomenon
