Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy,2016-01-11 Museums have lengthy history going back to the Renaissance Cabinets of Curiosity and they are indices of changing fashions of perception insofar as the categories museum curators use to classify objects change over time The major focus of Tyburczy s study is sexuality on display which sets up in turn her investigation of the effects of museum display on the history of sexuality Historical context for the museum is one of her themes and how categories of normacy and perversity change over time with another themes being the work of sex museums n redefining what sex means in the modern public sphere she also folds in consideration of the pleasures and dangers of exhibiting marginalized sexual subjects women nonwhite races LGBT individuals and the like last she explores the paradox of asserting as she does that all museums are sex museums bodies move around and toward objects on display they reshape the typical dances of museum goers along with their preconscious motivations in visiting a museum She proposes that explicit display or restagings of sexual artifacts provides new ways for approaching and understanding issues of desire sexual identity and sexual practices as they intersect with the history of the modern museum and with sexual history during the past two centuries Her fieldwork sites are the Leather Archives Museum in Chicago the Museum of Sex in New York the World Erotic Art Museum in Miami Beach and El Museo del Sexo in Mexico City Such institutions allow Tyburczy to show how alternative sexuality inclusive of kink fetish and sadomasochistic cultures and slavery dangerously crisscross on the surface of objects There are plenty of cases here in short to keep the casual reader titillated and the erudite reader surprised

A Practical Guide to Museum Ethics Sally Yerkovich,2016-03-07 Are your collections up for grabs Does the spouse of one of your trustees have too much to say about developing the exhibition schedule How much is too much public participation Where does a curator s authority begin and end With money increasingly difficult to raise is a museum more likely to accede to potential funders demands even when those demands might compromise the museum s integrity When a museum is struggling with debilitating debt should the sale of selected items from its collections and the use of the resulting proceeds bring the museum into a more stable financial position When a museum attempts to build its attendance and attract local visitors by crowdsourcing exhibitions is it undermining its integrity Ethical questions about museum activities are legion yet they are usually only discussed when they become headlines in newspapers Museum staff respond to such problems under pressure often unable to take the time required to think through the sensitive and complex issues involved Grounded in a series of case studies A Practical Guide to Museum Ethics confronts types of ethical dilemmas museums face and explores attempts to resolve them in chapters dealing with accessibility disability and diversity collections conflict of interest governance management deaccessioning and accountability and transparency Suitable for classroom use as well as a professional reference here is a comprehensive practical guide for dealing with ethical issues in museums

Making Histories Paul Ashton, Tanya Evans, Paula Hamilton, 2020-09-21 If historical culture is the specific and particular ways that a society engages with its past this book aims to situate the professional practice of public history now emerging across the world within that framework It links the increasingly varied practices of memory and history making such as genealogy podcasting re enactment family histories memoir writing film making and facebook histories with the work that professional historians do both in and out of the academy Making Histories asks questions about the role of the expert and notions of authority within a landscape that is increasingly concerned with connection to the past and authenticity The book is divided into four parts 1 Resistance Rights Authority 2 Memory Memorialization Commemoration 3 Performance Transmission Reception 4 Family Private Self The four sections outline major themes emerging in public history across the world in the 21st century which are all underpinned by the impact of new media on historical practice and our central argument for the volume which advocates a more capacious definition of what constitutes public history
