reflections on addiction and modernity

If poison, sex, narcotics, knives,
Love and greed turned us all sicked their quills, Load patterns on the canvas of our lives,
It is because our souls are sick.

High Culture Reflections On Addiction And Modernity:

High Culture Anna Alexander, Mark S. Roberts, Mark S Roberts, Ph.D., 2003-01-01 A cultural survey of addiction explores the theme in modern literature art philosophy and psychology revealing its affects on Heidegger Nietzsche Breton and Burroughs among others Philosophy

High Culture Christopher Hugh Partridge, 2018 Humans have always been fascinated by drugs and altered states Despite the risk of addiction many have used drugs as technologies to induce moments of meaning making transcendence Beginning at the close of the eighteenth century this book traces the quest for transcendence and meaning through drugs in the West through the modern period

Pharmakon Michael Anthony Rinella, 2010-01-01 Pharmakon Plato Drug Culture and Identity in Ancient Athens examines the emerging concern for controlling states of psychological ecstasy in the history of western thought focusing on ancient Greece c 750 146 BCE particularly the Classical Period c 500 336 BCE and especially the dialogues of the Athenian philosopher Plato 427 347 BCE Employing a diverse array of materials ranging from literature philosophy medicine botany pharmacology religion magic and law Pharmakon fundamentally reframes the conceptual context of how we read and interpret Plato's dialogues Michael A Rinella demonstrates how the power and truth claims of philosophy repeatedly likened to a pharmakon opposes itself to the cultural authority of a host of other occupations in ancient Greek society who derived their powers from or likened their authority to some pharmakon These included Dionysian and Eleusinian religion physicians and other healers magicians and other magic workers poets sophists rhetoricians as well as others Accessible to the general reader yet challenging to the specialist Pharmakon is a comprehensive examination of the place of drugs in ancient thought that will compel the reader to understand Plato in a new way

"Addiction and British Visual Culture, 1751-1919" Julia Skelly, 2017-07-05 Highly innovative and long overdue this study analyzes the visual culture of addiction produced in Britain during the long nineteenth century The book examines well known images such as William Hogarth's Gin Lane 1751 as well as lesser known artworks including Alfred Priest's painting Cocaine 1919 in order to demonstrate how visual culture was both informed by and contributed to discourses of addiction in the period between 1751 and 1919 Through her analysis of more than 30 images Julia Skelly deconstructs beliefs and stereotypes related to addicted individuals that remain entrenched in the popular imagination today Drawing upon both feminist and queer methodologies as well as upon extensive archival research Addiction and British Visual Culture 1751-1919 investigates and problematizes the long held belief that addiction is legible from the body thus positioning visual images as unreliable sources in attempts to identify alcoholics and drug addicts Examining paintings graphic satire photographs advertisements and architectural sites Skelly explores such issues as ongoing anxieties about maternal drinking the punishment and confinement of addicted individuals the mobility of female alcoholics through the streets and spaces of nineteenth century London and soldiers use of addictive substances such as cocaine and tobacco to cope with traumatic memories following the First World War

The Big Gamble Milena

Belloni,2019-12-17 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Tens of thousands of Eritreans make perilous voyages across Africa and the Mediterranean Sea every year Why do they risk their lives to reach European countries where so many more hardships await them By visiting family homes in Eritrea and living with refugees in camps and urban peripheries across Ethiopia Sudan and Italy Milena Belloni untangles the reasons behind one of the most under researched refugee populations today Balancing encounters with refugees and their families smugglers and visa officers The Big Gamble contributes to ongoing debates about blurred boundaries between forced and voluntary migration the complications of transnational marriages the social matrix of smuggling and the role of family expectations emotions and values in migrants choices of destinations

Esotericism and Deviance ,2024-02-06 The concept of deviance has been central to the academic study of Western esotericism since its inception This book being the proceedings of the 6th Biennial Conference of the European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism ESSWE explores the relationship between esotericism and various forms of deviance as concept category and practice from antiquity until late modernity The volume is the first to combine incisive conceptual explorations of the concept of deviance and how it informs and challenges the study of esotericism alongside a wide range of empirically grounded case discussions

The Pleasures of Horror Matt Hills,2005-06-20 Pleasures of Horror is a stimulating and insightful exploration of horror fictions literary cinematic and televisual and the emotions they engender in their audiences The text is divided into three sections The first examines how horror is valued and devalued in different cultural fields the second investigates the cultural politics of the contemporary horror film while the final part considers horror fandom in relation to its embodied practices film festivals its reading formations commercial fan magazines and fanzines and the role of special effects Pleasures of Horror combines a wide range of media and textual examples with highly detailed and closely focused exposition of theory It is a fascinating and engaging look at responses to a hugely popular genre and an invaluable resource for students of media cultural and film studies and fans of horror

Intoxication Thomas Thurnell-Read,Mark Monaghan,2023-01-01 What images come to mind when you read the word intoxication What behaviour do you associate with the word drunk When you hear the word drug what images do you recall This textbook provides an essential and thorough grounding in debates about the role of intoxication in contemporary society from social and cultural perspectives It examines intoxication in the broadest sense as including both legal and illegal substances and both culturally accepted and socially stigmatised practices Given the pace of recent changes in policy and practice from the increasingly common legalisation of cannabis to the recent trend of sobriety amongst adolescents and young adults this book stands out by offering both a through historical and theoretical overview and a topical and forward looking exploration of current debates It adopts a multi scale approach to examine wider patterns of change so it considers the subjective experiences of the role intoxication plays in the lives of individuals and groups in the construction of diverse identities and how this differs by age gender and ethnicity The authors pay particular attention to the way in which the state justifies interventions based on moral health and criminal justice discourses and also consider the role played by other individuals and institutions not least the mass media and the alcohol industry in propagating and challenging common sense explanations of intoxication It speaks to undergraduates master s students and above with a range of pedagogic features and offers insights into policy and practice The Silk Road of Adaptation Dr Laurence Raw,2013-09-18

This anthology of cutting edge essays on adaptation studies adopts the metaphor of the Silk Road an historical site for transcultural as well as transnational exchange The Silk Road of Adaptation puts forward the idea of adaptation as a continuous process in which individuals continually have to adjust themselves to new material we should not only look at the ways in which texts have been transformed but the ways in which readers audiences and critics have responded to them at different points in time and space Adaptation is a psychological as well as a formal process only by coming to terms with others can individuals address issues of human rights or examine themselves and their existing beliefs The Silk Road of Adaptation stresses this point through a series of essays written by representatives of different disciplines film studies history literature communication studies and English as a foreign language Contributors include established names in the field of adaptation studies as well as newer names who together show how the act of adaptation should be approached as a transmedial as well as a transnational act assuming equal significance in the political and diplomatic as well as the literary and cinematic spheres Post-Crisis European Cinema György Kalmár,2020-06-02

This book explores the cinematic representations of the pervasive socio cultural change that the 21st century brought to Europe and the world Discussing films such as I Daniel Blake Cold War and Jupiter s Moon it puts distinctively post crisis gendered representations in a complex theoretically informed and socially committed interdisciplinary perspective that maps the newly emerging formations of masculinity at a time of rapid socio economic transition Kalmar argues that the series of crises that started with the 9 11 terrorist attacks changed some of our fundamental expectations about history debunked many of our grand narratives and thus changed the cultural logic of our thoroughly globalized civilization The book focuses on the ways cinema reflects interprets and shapes a rapidly changing world the hot issues of the times the new formations of identity and the shifts in cinematic representation This is an interdisciplinary research that is equally interested in what new the 21st century brought about most specifically to Europe and to its white men as in film and its responses to these socio cultural changes

A Modern Coleridge A. Timár,2015-06-24 A Modern Coleridge shows the interrelatedness of the discourses of cultivation addiction and habit in Coleridge s poetry and prose and argues that these all revolve around the problematic nexus of a post Kantian idea of free will essential to Coleridge s eminently modern idea of the human The UberReader Avital Ronell,2010-10-01 Avital Ronell has put together what must be one of the most remarkable critical oeuvres of our era Zeugmatically yoking the slang of pop culture with philosophical analysis forcing the confrontation of high literature and technology or drug culture Avital Ronell produces sentences that startle irritate illuminate At once hilarious and refractory her books are like no others Jonathan Culler Diacritics For twenty years Avital Ronell has stood at the forefront of the confrontation between literary study and European philosophy She has tirelessly investigated the impact of technology on thinking and writing with groundbreaking work on Heidegger dependency and drug rhetoric intelligence and artificial intelligence and the obsession with testing Admired for her insights and breadth of field she has attracted a wide readership by writing with guts candor and wit Coyly alluding to Nietzsche's gay science The Reader presents a solid introduction to Avital Ronell's later oeuvre It includes at least one selection from each of her books two classic selections from a collection of her early essays Finitude's Score previously uncollected interviews and essays and some of her most powerful published and unpublished talks An introduction by Diane Davis surveys Ronell's career and the critical response to it thus far With its combination of brevity and power this Ronell primer will be immensely useful to scholars students and teachers throughout the humanities but particularly to graduate and undergraduate courses in contemporary theory Travel and Drugs in Twentieth-Century Literature Lindsey Michael Banco, 2013-01-11 This book examines the connections between two disparate yet persistently bound thematics mobility and intoxication and explores their central yet frequently misunderstood role in constructing subjectivity following the 1960s Emerging from profound mid twentieth century changes in how drugs and travel were imagined the conceptual nexus discussed sheds new light on British and North American responses to sixties counterculture With readings of Aldous Huxley William Burroughs Alex Garland Hunter S Thompson and Robert Sedlack Banco traces twin arguments looking at the ways travel is imagined as a disciplinary force acting upon the creative destabilizing powers of psychedelic intoxication and exploring the ways drugs help construct travel spaces and practices as at times revolutionary and at other times neo colonial By following a sequence of shifting understandings of drug and travel orthodoxies this book traverses fraught and irresistibly linked terrains from the late 1950s up to a period marked by international postmodern tourism As such it helps illuminate a world where tourism is continually expanding yet constantly circumscribed and where illegal drugs are both increasingly unregulated in the global economy and perceived more and more as crucial agents in the construction of human subjectivity Passion in Philosophy Randolph Wheeler, 2016-10-26 Among the first and foremost of American continental philosophers Alphonso Lingis refines his own thought through a topic usually deemed unworthy of philosophical examination passion Lingis criticizes traditional scientific accounts of the emotions as dividing or disrupting our lives and argues for passion as a unifying force a concept which invites philosophical exploration The book's structure is twofold First it offers an examination of Lingis's most recent developments through the topic of passion with essays from some of the most established commentators on the work of Lingis Second it offers a substantial retrospective on Lingis's thought in relation to some of the major figures in continental philosophy namely Levinas Kant Heidegger Butler Foucault and Nietzsche all interweaving the theme of passion Written to celebrate the eightieth anniversary of Lingis's birth these essays show how Lingis's thought has not only endured over so many productive decades but also remains vital and even continues to grow Encounters with Alphonso Lingis Alexander E. Hooke, Wolfgang W. Fuchs, 2003-09-22 Encounters with Alphonso Lingis is the first extensive study of this American philosopher who is gaining an international reputation to augment his national one Lingis's books have already been translated into nearly a dozen languages and writers from many disciplines are finding his works a source for fresh philosophical and scholarly inquiries The distinguished contributors to this volume reflect on their own encounters with this unique American thinker as they engage his work from their various critical perspectives They address most of the central themes found in his writings including singularity and otherness death and eroticism emotions and rationality embodiment and the face excess and the sacred In the book's first section the contributors discuss Lingis's significance as a contemporary philosopher particularly with regard to such renowned figures as Dante Kant Nietzsche Foucault and the major existential and phenomenological thinkers of the past century In the second section they focus on Lingis's ideas as the basis for inquiries into additional fields such as art literature cultural studies and politics The book closes with a new essay by Lingis himself The Pleasures of Computer Gaming Melanie Swalwell, Jason Wilson, 2015-05-12 This collection of essays situates the digital gaming phenomenon alongside broader debates in cultural and media studies Contributors to this volume maintain that computer games are not simply toys but rather circulate as commodities new media technologies and items of visual culture that are embedded in complex social practices Apart from placing games within longer arcs of cultural history and broader critical debates the contributors to this volume all adopt a pedagogical and theoretical approach to studying games and gameplay drawing on the interdisciplinary resources of the humanities and social sciences particularly new media studies In eight essays the authors develop rich and nuanced understandings of the aesthetic appeals and pleasurable engagements of digital gameplay Topics include the role of cheats and easter eggs in influencing cheating as an aesthetic phenomenon of gameplay the relationship between videogames gambling and addiction players aesthetic and kinaesthetic interactions with computing technology and the epistemology and phenomenology of popular strategy based wargames and their relationship with real world military applications Notes and a bibliography accompany each essay and the work includes several screenshots images and photographs Narcoepics Hermann Herlinghaus, 2013-02-14 Narcoepics Unbound foregrounds the controversial yet mostly untheorized phenomenon of contemporary Latin American narcoepics Dealing with literary works and films whose characteristics are linked to illicit global exchange informal labor violence bare life drug consumption and ritualistic patterns of identity it argues for a new theoretical approach to better understand these narratives of intoxication Foregrounding the art that has arisen from or seeks to describe drug culture Herlinghaus comparative study looks at writers such as Gutierrez J J Rodriguez Reverte films such as City of God and the narratives surrounding cultural villains heroes such as Pablo Escobar Narcoepics shows that in order to grasp the aesthetic and ethical core of these narratives it is pivotal first to develop an aesthetics of sobriety The aim is to establish a criteria for a new kind of literary studies in which cultural hermeneutics plays as much a part as political philosophy analysis of religion and neurophysiological inquiry Gender, Sexuality, and Intimacy: A Contexts Reader Jodi O'Brien, Arlene Stein, 2017-01-13 This new anthology brings together over 90 recent readings on gender sexuality and intimate relationships from Contexts the award winning magazine published by the ASA Each contributor is a contemporary sociologist writing in the clear concise and jargon free style that has made Contexts the public face of sociology The editors have chosen pieces that are timely thought provoking and especially suitable for classroom use written introductions that frame each of the books three main sections and provided questions for discussion A Cognitive Approach to John Donne's Songs and Sonnets M. Winkleman, Michael A. Winkelman, 2013-04-03 Investigations into how the brain actually works have led to remarkable discoveries and these findings carry profound implications for interpreting literature This study applies recent breakthroughs from neuroscience and evolutionary psychology in order to deepen our understanding of John Donne's Songs and Sonnets Mindfulness and Educating Citizens for Everyday Life Malgorzata Powietrzynska, Kenneth Tobin, 2016-07-23 Mindfulness and Educating Citizens for Everyday Life invites readers to explore the role mindfulness can play in mediating how we enact social life in today's increasingly challenging and challenged world The educators and researchers who have contributed to this book use mindfulness as a lens to address and untangle what is becoming a profoundly complicated way of being within the reality of global capitalism Education is framed broadly the research transcends the walls of classrooms and includes museums nursing homes hospitals AA meetings and homes Hence the chapters feature participants occupying varied social positions and spaces that may be situated in different parts of the globe The authors address two overarching and dialectically related themes of mindfulness and wellness and collectively the chapters expand possibilities for readers to act mindfully in a world in which wellness and wellbeing are pervasive concerns as a fragile Earth adapts to a dynamic flux of human led changes that threaten the future of lifeworlds that support humanity and myriad species that face extinction The authors do not offer oversimplified solutions to dramatically switch direction and preserve life as we have known it Instead the ideas that emerge from the research presented in this volume expand possibilities for informed conduct self help and educating citizens with a goal of individuals and collectives transforming lifeworlds by embracing mindfulness saturated ontologies
