Adler,2010-06-15 Paideia is a holistic approach to life long learning with roots in ancient Greece The Paideia Program is based on the belief that the human species is defined by its capacity and desire for learning The program itself argues for a public education that is at once more rigorous and more accessible Translating Humour Jeroen Vandaele,2016-04-08 It is all too often assumed that humour is the very effect of a text But humour is not a perlocutionary effect in its own right nor is laughter The humour of a text may be as general a characteristic as a serious text's seriousness Like serious texts humorous texts have many different purposes and effects They can be subdivided into specific subgenres with their own perlocutionary effects their own types of laughter or even other reactions Translation scholars need to be able to distinguish between various kinds of humour or humorous effect when comparing source and target texts especially since the notion of effect pops up so frequently in the evaluation of humorous texts and their translations In this special issue of The Translator an attempt is made to delineate types of humorous effect through careful linguistic and cultural analyses of specific examples and or the introduction of new analytical tools For a translator who is both a receiver of the source text and sender of the target text such analyses and tools may prove useful in grasping and pinning down the perlocutionary effect of a source text and devising strategies for producing comparable effects in the target text For a translation scholar who is a receiver of both source and target texts the contributions in this issue will hopefully provide an analytical framework for the comparison of source and target perlocutionary effects Fiction, Folklore, Fantasy & Poetry for Children, 1876-1985: Titles, awards ,1986 Tinkerbell is a Ding-a-ling Roy Doty,1980 A collection of jokes and riddles including What's the one thing all plumbers do Put a drain on your wallet Your Reading Jane Christensen,National Council of Teachers of English.
