Heaven Looks Like Us George Abraham, Noor Hindi, 2025-05-13 A love letter to Palestinian ancestors their descendants and their land to all anti colonial and anti imperialist struggles to a history that will never be forgotten and to a future in which there thrives a free free Palestine Poetry has always served as a mode of resistance in Palestinian culture In defiance of dispossession and decades of military siege of a nakba that never ended of historical and cultural obfuscation of unrelenting violence and thousands of martyred people the power to narrate as Edward Said wrote remains a necessary tool for self determination The poems collected here reclaim that power bridging borders languages and generations to forge new conversations around resistance and liberation HEAVEN LOOKS LIKE US is a battle cry against the annihilation of a people As Palestinian history remains haunted by exile violence and grief so too are the poems in this anthology And yet editors George Abraham and Noor Hindi present these realities alongside other themes that are also true queer and feminist perspectives eco poetry meditations on love and time and lineages of protest This anthology dares to imagine a future beyond a nation state for Palestinian people everywhere Contributors include Refaat Alareer Mahmoud Darwish Naomi Shihab Nye Mohammed El Kurd A D Lauren Abunassar Lena Khalaf Tuffaha Hala Alyan Fady Joudah and Heba Abu Nada and many other voices both established and ascending

Bemis,1910      Lips Muska Dee,101-01-01 This poetry collection offers a profound and lyrical exploration of human lips weaving together physical beauty emotional expression and symbolic meaning Beginning with poems that celebrate the sensual charm and aesthetic allure of lips their shape color and texture the collection soon deepens into a rich emotional journey Lips emerge not just as features of the body but as vessels of communication intimacy and identity Through whispered words and silent expressions they become powerful conduits of love longing and hidden truths As the poems progress they take on a more introspective tone exploring how lips shape our self expression and influence our relationships with the world With sensitivity and emotional depth each poem invites readers to reflect on the often overlooked significance of lips in shaping our human experience Blending vivid imagery with quiet insight this collection resonates as a meditation on beauty vulnerability and the quiet power of expression      The Poetical Works of Wordsworth William Wordsworth,1881      Poems William John Chamberlayne,1892      The Family Herald ,1879

Wordsworth's Philosophic Song Simon Jarvis,2006-12-21 Wordsworth wrote that he longed to compose some philosophic Song Of Truth that cherishes our daily life Yet he never finished The Recluse his long philosophical poem Simon Jarvis argues that Wordsworth s aspiration to philosophic song is central to his greatness and changed the way English poetry was written

Some critics see Wordsworth as a systematic thinker while for others he is a poet first and a thinker only if at all second Jarvis shows instead how essential both philosophy and the song of poetry were to Wordsworth's achievement Drawing on advanced work in continental philosophy and social theory to address the ideological attacks which have dominated much recent commentary Jarvis reads Wordsworth's writing both critically and philosophically to show how Wordsworth thinks through and in verse This study rethinks the relation between poetry and society itself by analysing the tensions between thinking philosophically and writing poetry
