by Edgar Allan Poe Bram Stoker and Mary Shelley The Fire Portrait Barbara Mutch, 2021-08-19 I've taken risks in my life. Some have been physical ones but some have been bolder and required more of myself. When Englishwoman Frances McDonald sets up home in a remote South African hamlet in the shadow of the Hex River Mountains she is regarded with suspicion by the community. Confined by a marriage of convenience she seeks an outlet by learning the local language, teaching art and exhibiting her paintings of the stunning veld landscape. Soon the spectre of war threatens to divide not only the country but the town itself and scupper Frances' hard won acceptance. While her husband leaves to fight for the Allies Frances chances to meet a former love. The bright joy of that unexpected reunion is clouded by a day that will change her life. Out of the smoke and ash of a shocking fire she is propelled on a journey that will take her from the arid veld to the bright lights of London and beyond.

The Book of the Undead: A Zombie Film Guide Terry Rowan, 2014-08-16 Since The Night of the Living Dead screen zombies have become increasingly bizarre, bloodthirsty, yes even cannibalistic. A complete film guide to all your favorite undead zombie and the living dead films. Interesting stories behind the scenes and a list of my favorite zombie films. One thing is for sure: zombies in various forms remain very much alive in the movies and in audiences' imagination like yours and mine. I want to eat your brains.

The Gangster Film Reader Alain Silver, James Ursini, 2007-02 In the 1930s the gangster film in the United States coincided with a very real and very sensational gangsterism at large in American society. Little Caesar 1931, The Public Enemy 1931 and Scarface 1932 borrowed liberally from the newspapers and books of the era. With the release of just these three motion pictures in barely more than a year's time Hollywood quintessentially defined the genre. The characters, the situations and the icons, from fast cars and tommy guns to fancy fedoras and fancier molls, established the audience expectations associated with the gangster film that remain in force to this day. As with their Film Noir Reader series, using both reprints of seminal articles and new pieces, editors Silver and Ursini have assembled a group of essays that presents an exhaustive overview of this still vital genre. Reprints of work by such well known film historians as Robin Wood, Andrew Sarris, Carlos Clarens, Paul Schrader and Stuart Kaminsky explore the evolution of the gangster film through the 1970s. The Godfather Parts 2 and 3 comprise two dozen newer articles, most of them written expressly for this volume by Ursini and Silver. These case studies and thematic analyses, from White Heat to the remake of Scarface to The Sopranos, complete the anthology.

Best Sellers, 1980 The Woman Was a Devil Edna Collins, 2008 The Woman Was a Devil is a page turner about a forty year old virgin who passed her time as an antique collector until she discovered a mysterious Gauguin painting. This brought her into contact with a fraudulent curator who turned out to be a devilish woman. Suddenly three men become her love life: a lawyer, famous country western singer and a handsome cad with an inheritance. Her steady companion is her faithful dog, a Yorkshire terrier. Women friends turn on her but two old friends who were early school mates come to her aid. One lovable curator helps her use her knowledge of antiques to find her way out of a great quandary. The world of antiques, revealing American history, auctions, charlatans and odd characters make this fascinating story even more intriguing The mystery begins in a small Pennsylvania town just after World War II but reaches out to include Washington D C the National Gallery the Smithsonian the Willard Hotel Georgetown and Las Vegas as well as Dublin Ireland Afa's 21 Club's Last Call Bonnie Paige,2016-02-10 Connie a young Air Force wife is pushed into the private world of the upper class cadets The cadets staff and Connie began building a Wednesday night gathering that had Arnold Hall and staff awestruck 21 Club began as a very quiet retreat to have a few drinks kick back and relax but the new seniors had other ideas and were just waiting Little did they know they would become the clubs greatest adventure and the 21 Club would become a constant battle ground of rules and regulations Connie the bartender seeking life outside a marriage that was in desperate need of mending lost herself in the uprising of the 21 Club She was the ice princess who s heart no cadet would ever capture Hillary was the night manager who learned to run the entire building flawlessly no matter how much chaos The Hostess Office where every rule trampled on any fun that would make the cadets jubilant CJ the outlandish insurgent but irresistible cadet who knew the way to any women s heart His was the world that once in getting out was nearly impossible All the people who worked and gathered at the 21 Club would be completely tested to the max by the third year and the last call of the 21 Club
