Getting It Right Teacher Support Packs 2 Levels 4-5 Alison Page, Tristram Shepard, 2000 This teacher's support pack is one of a series of support materials and textbooks designed to help pupils to develop their IT capability and apply ICT across all subject areas. It aims to explain how to use word processing, spreadsheet, database, control graphics and communications software as well as how to solve problems and develop IT capability including the use of ICT to find things out, to develop ideas and make things happen, to share information and to review, modify and evaluate work as it progresses. This pack provides a wide range of support resources for pupils and teachers including Units of work, Lesson plans, worksheets, support and extension and cross-curricular applications. Assessment resources are unit tasks, assessment checklists and evaluation sheets.

Information and Communications Technology Alison Page, Tristram Shepard, 1999-12 Teacher Support Packs provide adaptable, ready-made lesson plans, extension material, pupil resource sheets, providing end of unit problem-solving exercises, pupil worksheets for unit evaluation, assessment tasks to provide a reliable guide to pupils' levels of achievement.

Getting It Right Laraine T. Zappert, 2001-03-09 Career or motherhood? Do you have to sacrifice one to be truly successful in the other? And if you're trying to do both, will you have to compromise your career path or your child's needs? With professional demands increasingly impinging on personal time, is having it all even realistic or is it just plain fantasy? Now leading Stanford University psychologist Dr Laraine Zappert, who specializes in the issues of women and work, draws upon her twenty years of clinical and research experience and a landmark study to answer these questions and create a road map of innovative solutions. Dr Zappert surveyed more than three hundred women who have graduated from Stanford's Graduate School of Business and has incorporated case studies from hundreds of women professionals in each chapter. Her findings address such common concerns as: Do I really have to choose between career and family? How do I handle the stresses of my job and the demands of parenting? How do children affect my career and when is the best time to have them? How do I keep my relationships healthy? Who will care for my children when I'm not available? Coming from many different occupational backgrounds, the subjects of Dr Zappert's study show us that although we so often think that everyone else is doing it better and having an easier time of it, that is hardly ever the case. Sometimes good enough has to do. And whereas the stresses may be the same for all working women, the solutions rarely are. Let the insights, advice and strategies found in Getting It Right help you make smarter, more informed decisions for creating a satisfying and fulfilling lifestyle on every level.

Getting It Right James F. Dunnigan, Raymond M. Macedonia, 2001-05-31 This is the second edition of a book about a little understood subject: the dramatic reform of the American military and particularly the U.S. Army between the end of the Vietnam war and the Persian Gulf war of 1990-91. The second edition material carries the study through the 1990s and a few years beyond. We cover a lot of subjects that few Americans are familiar with. The reforms after Vietnam were more driven by the results of the 1973 Arab-Israeli war and paid for by defense spending increases begun
