People can go from feeling victimized to becoming proud survivors if the labels are changed. A crisis situation can become either a tragedy or a new beginning based on a person's emotional evaluation. ETT does not change facts but it can help transform shame, fear, loneliness, emptiness, and other often paralyzing feelings, opening up a person to the possibility of more realistic and empowering mind sets. ETT offers quick goal-oriented treatment for severe psychological problems like PTSD, abuse, and eating disorders, and everyday situations such as stress in one's professional life, anxiety that hinders achievement, and more. Learn more about this revolutionary new treatment method designed by a licensed clinical psychologist and unlock the secret to fast effective recovery. Get Well, Stay Well, and Manage Your Health M. Get Well Donnell Knighten, 2013-08 The book is about a child battling with a serious illness which was not communicated in a timely manner. As a result, the illness went untreated, resulting in hospitalization and the situation could have turned out worse. The book is a reminder about the importance of educating children on health issues. Getting Well

Again O. Carl Simonton, M.D., James Creighton, Ph.D., Stephanie Matthews Simonton, 2009-11-04 Based on the Simontons' experience with hundreds of patients at their world famous Cancer Counseling and Research Center, Getting Well Again introduces the scientific basis for the will to live. In this revolutionary book, the Simontons profile the typical cancer personality, how an individual's reactions to stress and other emotional factors can contribute to the onset and progress of cancer, and how positive expectations, self-awareness, and self-care can contribute to survival. This book offers the same self-help techniques the Simonton's patients have used to successfully reinforce usual medical treatment techniques for learning positive attitudes, relaxation, visualization, goal setting, managing pain, exercise, and building an emotional support system.
