Gender Bias in Mystery and Romance Novel Publishing Anna Faktorovich, 2015-04-27 Examines gender bias from the perspective of readers writers and publishers with a focus on the top two bestselling genres in modern fiction It is a linguistic literary stylistic and structurally formalist analysis of the male and female sentences in the genres that have the greatest gender divide romances and mysteries The analysis will search for the historical roots that solidified what many think of today as a natural division

Virginia Woolf called it the fabricated feminine sentence and other linguists have also identified clear sexpreferential differences in AngloAmerican Swedish and French novels Do female mystery writers adopt a masculine voice when they write mysteries Are femalepenned mysteries structurally or linguistically different from their male competitors and vice versa among male romance writers The first part can be used as a textbook for gender stylistics as it provides an indepth review of prior research The second part is an analysis of the results of a survey on readers perception of gender in passages from literature The last part is a linguistic and structural analysis of actual statistical differences between the novels in the two genres considering the impact of the author s gender Encyclopedia of American Popular Fiction Geoff
