Reading Visual Poetry Willard Bohn, 2010-12-09 Visual poetry can be defined as poetry that is meant to be seen Combining painting and poetry it attempts to synthesize the principles underlying each discipline Visual poems are immediately recognizable by their refusal to adhere to a rectilinear grid and by their tendency to flout their plasticity In contrast to traditional poetry they are conceived not only as literary works but also as works of art Although they continue to provide visual cues that aid in deciphering the text they function simultaneously as visual compositions Whether the visual elements form a rudimentary pattern or whether they constitute a highly sophisticated design they transform the poem into a picture Reading Visual Poetry examines works created in Spain Latin America France Italy Brazil and the United States While it attempts to recreate the historical and cultural context surrounding each of the works in question it is conceived primarily as a series of readings or rather as a series of readings about reading This book seeks to interpret a number of poems which despite their apparent simplicity can be difficult to decipher It explores the process of interpretation itself which like the compositions can be surprisingly complex

The Philosophy of Imagination Galit Wellner, Geoffrey Dierckxsens, Marco Arienti, 2024-04-18 Combining perspectives from both continental and analytic philosophy this timely volume explores how imagination today both shapes and is shaped by technology art and ethics Imagination is one of the most significant and broadly examined concepts in contemporary philosophy and is frequently understood as a basic human faculty that enables complex activities This book shows however that imagination is more than a mere enabler Whilst imagination shapes our experiences it is at the same time shaped by our environments Some of the most creative manifestations of imagination are the result of its two way interaction with art or technology or both In short imagination co shapes us Beyond the traditional perspectives of Kant and Heidegger The Philosophy of Imagination Technology Art and Ethics examines our dynamic relationship with imagination from contemporary technological advancements such as AI that transform the whole ecosystem to imagination in the context of videogames and literary fiction Analysing societal imagination it addresses the relationship between the racial imaginary and white ignorance as well as the effects that societal mechanisms such as lockdowns can have on our imagination Taking its cue from the here and now this volume brings together leading international scholars to investigate how the concept of co shaping allows us to see imagination and its crucial role in society in new and productive ways The Future of Ideas Lawrence Lessig,2002-10-22 The Internet revolution has come Some say it has gone In The Future of Ideas Lawrence Lessig explains how the revolution has produced a counterrevolution of potentially devastating power and effect Creativity once flourished because the Net protected a commons on which widest range of innovators could experiment But now manipulating the law for their own purposes corporations have established themselves as virtual gatekeepers of the Net while Congress in the pockets of media magnates has rewritten copyright and patent laws to stifle creativity and progress Lessig weaves the history of technology and its relevant laws to make a lucid and accessible case to protect the sanctity of intellectual freedom He shows how the door to a future of ideas is being shut just as technology is creating extraordinary possibilities that have implications for all of us Vital eloquent judicious and forthright The Future of Ideas is a call to arms that we can ill afford to ignore Love of the Wind, Flower Lee Jeon-Rok,2025-02-14 Sending purple scent to those who are weary This poetry collection contain 136 poems in the following 5 parts The Naughty of Secret of Flowers A Life Long Letter Happiness is Growing Life is strange so I want to live it A Swing for Two This collection is the fifth collection of poems by author Lee Jeong rok As social isolation has become prolonged due to COVID 19 pandemic his challenge was how to provide comfort and support to the young generation plant dreams and hopes in their souls and heal their minds and bodies So he would like to write a lyrical poems as if he was writing a letter to a lover or friend he miss or as if he was confessing his love and to provide love poems in sensuous language to young readers In this case he said he tried his best to think outside the widespread emotions for the complicated postmodernism poetry and encourage readers to recover their pure minds The reason he wrote this collection was to plant a work that could speak to the souls of readers like a painting or a poems Satire and Romanticism S. Jones,2000-04-21 This remarkable study of the constructive and ultimately canon forming relationship between satiric and Romantic modes of writing from 1760 to 1832 provides us with a new understanding of the historical development of Romanticism as a literary movement Romantic poetry is conventionally seen as inward turning sentimental sublime and transcendent whereas satire with its public profane and topical rhetoric is commonly cast in the role of generic other as the un Romantic mode This book argues instead that the two modes mutually defined each other and were subtly interwoven during the Romantic period By rearranging reputations changing aesthetic assumptions and re distributing cultural capital the interaction of satiric and Romantic modes helped make possible the Victorian and modern construction of English Romanticism Aspect of Revolution in Nigeria Richard Igiri,2014-07-15 This book is a condensed body of thought and each paragraph holds body of thought idea that involved some meditation Richard through his work shows he is a rare breed an unorthodox thinker who has ruffled the self satisfied colonial and post colonial establishment that once held his thoughts captive The text is a tour de force setting the records straight with historicizing analysis about one of the major issues that purport to define who we are and continue to do so now illuminating the biggest most important challenge we face in our time The text is a magisterial work with impeccable and intelligible argued positions and a benchmark for nation building It defends with lapidary certitude the proposition that nation building is not something that is given to someone by another rather it is something that can only be acquired by ones self through self discovery Victor Ikeji Traditional Storytelling Today Margaret Read MacDonald,2013-12-16 Traditional Storytelling Today explores the diversity of contemporary storytelling traditions and provides a forum for in depth discussion of interesting facets of contemporary storytelling Never before has such a wealth of information about storytelling traditions been gathered together Storytelling is alive and well throughout the world as the approximately 100 articles by more than 90 authors make clear Most of the essays average 2 000 words and discuss a typical storytelling event give a brief sample text and provide theory from the folklorist A comprehensive index is provided Bibliographies afford the reader easy access to additional resources Women Poets on Mentorship Arielle Greenberg,Rachel Zucker,2008-05-15 Short essays by women poets on mentoring women poets includes poems by the subjects and authors Twenty - First Century English Poetry : Voices of a New Era V.
