Highway to Paradise Gene Allen Nadeau,1983 The Character Louise Meldrum Anderson,2011-08-04 Some people tell stories Some people live them This man did both He charmed Air Force Generals and CEO S of huge companies and just as often invited guys with no teeth to dinner He loved life in spite of an atypical childhood and flew his little Piper Cub with only a watch and a ruler for instruments until he was 83years old He had many incidents flying into major airports got asked to never come back to Sea Tac Airport dropped rocks on our high mountain lakes to see if the ice was solid enough on which to land He had an amazing sense of humor and could turn any situation into a pun or story As you will see Windshield Wilderness David Louter,2009-11-23 In his engaging book Windshield Wilderness David Louter explores the relationship between automobiles and national parks and how together they have shaped our ideas of wilderness National parks he argues did not develop as places set aside from the modern world but rather came to be known and appreciated through technological progress in the form of cars and roads leaving an enduring legacy of knowing nature through machines With a lively style and striking illustrations Louter traces the history of Washington State s national parks Mount Rainier Olympic and North Cascades to illustrate shifting ideas of wilderness as scenic as roadless and as ecological reserve He reminds us that we cannot understand national parks without recognizing that cars have been central to how people experience and interpret their meaning and especially how they perceive them as wild places Windshield Wilderness explores what few histories of national parks address what it means to view parks from the road and through a windshield Building upon recent interpretations of wilderness as a cultural construct rather than as a pure state of nature the story of autos in parks presents the preservation of wilderness as a dynamic and nuanced process Windshield Wilderness illuminates the difficulty of separating human modified landscapes from natural ones encouraging us to recognize our connections with nature in national parks Moon Montana Judy Jewell,W.
