King Of Swat:

Toward a New Sensibility O. K. Bouwsma, 1982-01-01 O K Bouwsma one of America's foremost Wittgensteinians was also an extraordinarily dedicated and effective teacher. The present collection assembled posthumously from his papers includes twelve essays all but one previously unpublished and all characterized by the humor, common sense and wisdom that marked his classroom lectures. Ranging in subject matter from topics in Wittgenstein to Descartes to aesthetics, the pieces all show the influence of Wittgenstein. Some of the questions they raise deal with the traditional and historical background of twentieth century philosophy. Am I dreaming? Is what I see real? Are there material objects while others relate to considerations peculiar to thinkers today, for example? What is Wittgenstein doing in his writing? What does philosophy have to do with language? Bouwsma wants first to understand the philosophical questions, to unknot the knotted eyebrows it produces. Accordingly, his major concern is how we as thinkers, readers, writers and speakers separate what we understand from what we do not understand, hence his consideration in the opening essay of a new sensibility in the matter of our language. Always approaching the subject as a practical problem rather than as an abstract theoretical issue, these essays demonstrate with patience and wit ways to achieve clarity on puzzles long thought intractable. "King of Swat." Father Ted (S.S.P.), 1948

Mutiny Records Punjab (India), 1911 Millennium and Charisma Among Pathans (Routledge Revivals) Akbar Ahmed, 2012-07-26 First published in 1976, this Routledge Revivals reissue presents an analysis of the Swat Pathans, the people of the North West Frontier Province of Pakistan who belong administratively to Pakistan despite being a fiercely independent group with their own codes and ways of life. Akbar S Ahmed, who knows the Swat Pathans well through his family connections, presents a clear and sophisticated analysis of their complex society The study provides an anthropological and critical re examination of the ethnography of the Swat Pathans and the author suggests specific alternative models of social organization The book also represents an important contribution to the general debate in the social sciences between the methodological individualists and the methodological holists and challenges some of the theoretical and methodological premises in anthropology In particular the author is critical of Professor Fredrik Barth s study of Swat Pathans for he believes that the Swat models have inadvertently become the basis for generalized and often incorrect understanding of models of Pathan socio political organization in the social sciences
