The Fourth Man: Poems Thomas Blackburn, 1971 The Pier Darren Lovick, 2022-08-01 Over unbridled waves a young man ventures down a massive wooden pier pursuing the beauty in the sea As the cool summer breeze pushes through his hair he ponders his reflection upon the tranquil surface and asks Who am I He never imagined asking a single question would unveil a treacherous seascape Fierce storms darken a pristine sky as branches descend from the pier and charade temptation as truth Incited by a submerged deadly foe delusion desire deception and dread come to life Uncertain of his path the young man finds insight for his journey in an unexpected friendship with a frail homeless man Unraveling clues cloaked in paradox the young man must choose to reside upon the pier or battle the predator lurking in the depths As the young man weathers the seasons of life is the seascape only what he perceives or is there more Will he find the answers in the sea Will he know the pier manipulated by politicians or the media but in the case of the law your liberty and your life can depend on the right calculation In Math on Trial mathematicians Leila Schneps and Coralie Colmez describe ten trials spanning from the nineteenth century to today in which mathematical arguments were used and disastrously misused as evidence They tell the stories of Sally Clark who was accused of murdering her children by a doctor with a faulty sense of calculation of nineteenth century tycoon Hetty Green whose dispute over her aunt s will became a signal case in the forensic use of mathematics and of the case of Amanda Knox in which a judge s misunderstanding of probability led him to discount critical evidence which might have kept her in jail Offering a fresh angle on cases from the nineteenth century Dreyfus affair to the murder trial of Dutch nurse Lucia de Berk Schneps and Colmez show how the improper application of mathematical concepts can mean the difference between walking free and life in prison A colorful narrative of mathematical abuse Math on Trial blends courtroom
