Fragment Of Autobiography Fun Of Writing The Inside:

Book Diplomacy in the Cultural Cold War, 2025-06-26 Broadly speaking book diplomacy covers the use of books to achieve certain objectives related to the foreign policy interests of a given country usually involving state private partnerships of varying degrees In this volume scholars from different disciplines examine in detail how books functioned as tools of soft power and cultural diplomacy during the cultural Cold War This study also introduces a 10 point typology to examine the many forms and practices of Cold War book diplomacy and the diversity of objectives and outcomes that they involved Looking beyond the Cold War this volume stresses the continuing importance of books as a distinct form of material culture used to convey information around the world Contributors are Tahoor Ali Hanna Blum Deborah Cohn C cile Cottenet Alexander Erokhin Esmaeil Haddadian Moghaddam Musa Igrek Julia Lin Thompson R sa Magn sd ttir Christos Mais Hafiz Abid Masood Mila Milani Birgitte Beck Pristed Giles Scott Smith Ilaria Sicari and Steven W Witt Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism's constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism's Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead

Postcolonialism & Autobiography Michelle Cliff, Alfred Hornung, 1998 The two volumes on Postcolonialism and Autobiography examine the affinity of postcolonial writing to the genre of autobiography The contributions of specialists from Northern Africa Europe and the United States focus on two areas in which the interrelation of postcolonialism and autobiography is very prominent and fertile the Maghreb and the Anglophone and Francophone Caribbean The colonial background of these regions provides the stimulus for writers to launch a program for emancipation in an effort to constitute a decolonized subject in autobiographical practice While the French volume addresses issues of the autobiographical genre in the postcolonial conditions of the Maghreb and the Caribbean with reference to France the English volume analyzes the autobiographical writings of David Dabydeen Guyana Michelle Cliff Opal Palmer Adisa George Lamming Wilson Harris Jamaica and Jamaica Kincaid Antigua who have maintained their cultural Caribbean origin while living in England or the United States Critics such as William Boelhower Leigh Gilmore Sidonie Smith and Gayatri Spivak reveal the many layers of different cultures Indian African European American that are covered over by the colonial powers The homeland exile the experience of migration and hybridity condition the postcolonial existence of writers and critics The incorporation of excerpts from the writers' works is meant to show the great variety and riches of a hybrid imagination and to engage in an interactive dialogue with critics Intermediality, Life Writing, and American Studies Nassim Winnie Balestrini, Ina
