survey but our dismal record of polluting and destroying vast swaths of nature shows that we are indeed not masters of the ecosphere A more ethically accurate stance in our relationship to animals should thus challenge the omnipotence of our visual access to them

Influences of the Mass Media Roger Haney, 2024-10-09 Useful to both professional persuaders and students of media effects this book presents theories and empirical research on methods of social influence including advertising agenda setting propaganda public relations and public communication campaigns The reader first learns how source credibility affects persuasion and the theories that account for persuasion effects followed by research on the third person effect the belief that others are affected by persuasion attempts but not ourselves A chapter on the effects of advertising follows including effects on children and research on subliminal messages The third chapter presents theories and research on the notion of agenda setting and the finding that while the media may not be overly effective in persuasion it is effective in getting the audience to believe issues covered by the media are the most important facing society The final chapter covers the history of propaganda the development of public relations and the effectiveness of government campaigns such as the Smokey the Bear campaign and various health campaigns

Foucault and the Government of Disability Shelley Lynn Tremain, 2015-06-02 Foucault and the Government of Disability considers the continued relevance of Foucault to disability studies as well as the growing significance of disability studies to understandings of Foucault A decade ago this international collection provocatively responded to Foucault's call to question what is regarded as natural inevitable ethical and liberating The book's contributors draw on Foucault to scrutinize a range of widely endorsed practices and ideas surrounding disability including rehabilitation community care impairment normality and abnormality inclusion prevention accommodation and special education In this revised and expanded edition four new essays extend and elaborate the lines of inquiry by problematizing to use Foucault's term the epistemological political and ethical character of the supercrip the racialized war on autism the performativity of intellectual disability and the potent mixture of neoliberalism and biopolitics in the context of physician assisted suicide A n important prescient and necessary contribution a kind of litmus test for the efficacy of Foucault's concepts in the study of disability concepts that lead to a refusal of the biological essentialism implied in the disability impairment binary Foucault Studies Tremain has done an exceptional job at organizing and procuring important rigorously argued and entertaining essays This book should be a mandatory read for anyone interested in contemporary philosophical debates surrounding the experience of disability Essays in Philosophy A beautiful exploration of how Foucault's analytics of power and genealogies of discursive knowledges can open up new avenues for thinking critically about phenomena that many of us take to be inevitable and thus new ways of resisting and possibly at times redirecting the forces that shape our lives Every scholar every person with an interest in Foucault or in political theory generally needs to read this book Ladelle McWhorter University of Richmond

Frames of War Judith Butler, 2016-02-02 In Frames of War Judith Butler explores the media's portrayal of state violence a process integral to the way in which the West wages modern war This portrayal has saturated our understanding of human life and has led to the exploitation and abandonment of whole peoples who are cast as existential threats rather than as living populations in need of protection These people are framed as already lost to imprisonment unemployment and starvation and can easily be dismissed In the twisted logic that rationalizes their deaths the loss of such populations is deemed necessary to protect the lives of the living This disparity Butler argues has profound implications for why and when we feel horror outrage guilt loss and righteous indifference both in the context of war and increasingly everyday life This book discerns the resistance to the frames of war in the context of the images from Abu Ghraib the poetry from Guantanamo recent European policy on immigration and Islam and debates on normativity and non violence In this urgent response to ever more dominant methods of coercion violence and racism Butler calls for a re conceptualization of the Left one that brokers cultural difference and cultivates resistance to the illegitimate and arbitrary effects of state violence and its vicissitudes

 Norman J. Finkel,2012-12-06 The insanity defense debate has come full circle again The current round began when John Hinckley opened fire in 1943 it was Daniel M Naghten who pulled the trigger the acts of both would be insanity acquittees provoked the press the populace a President and a Queen to expressions of outrage and triggered Congress the House of Lords judges jurists psychologists and psychiatrists to debate this most maddening matter Insanity which has historically been surrounded by defenses defen ders and detractors found itself once again under siege on trial and undergoing rigorous cross examination Treatises were written on the sub ject testimony was taken and new rules and laws were adopted The dust has settled but it has not cleared What is clear to me is that we have got it wrong once again The full circle analogy and historical parallel to M Naghten 1843 warrant some elaboration Hinckley s firing at the President captured by television and rerun again and again rekindled an old debate regarding the allegedly insane and punishment Caplan 1984 Maeder 1985 Szasz 1987 a debate in which the insanity defense is centrally situated The smolderings ignited anew when the Hinckley 1981 jury brought in its verdict not guilty by reason of insanity NGRI     Embodiment in Cross-Linguistic Studies
 ,2022-12-19 The face is the most identifiable feature of the human body yet the way it is entrenched in language and cognition has not previously been explored cross linguistically This comparative volume continues the series on embodied cognition and conceptualization with a focus on the human face Each contribution to this volume presents descriptions and analyses of how languages name the face and utilize metonymy metaphor and polysemy to extend the face to overlapping target domains The contributions include primary and secondary data representing languages originating from around the world The chapters represent multiple theoretical approaches to describing linguistic embodiment including cultural historical descriptive and cognitive frameworks The findings from this diverse set of theoretical approaches and languages contribute to general research in cognitive linguistics cultural linguistics and onomastics     The Face of the Deep Catherine Keller,2003-12-16 This is a groundbreaking highly original work of postmodern feminist theology from one of the most important authors in the field The Face of the Deep deconstructs the Christian doctrine of creation which claims that a transcendent Lord unilaterally created the universe out of nothing Catherine Keller s impassioned graceful meditation develops an alternative representation of the cosmic creative process drawing upon Hebrew myths of creation from chaos and engaging with the political and the mystical the literary and the scientific the sexual and the racial As a landmark work of immense significance for Jewish and Christian theology gender studies literature philosophy and ecology The Face of the Deep takes our originary story to a new horizon rewriting the starting point for Western spiritual discourse c program to find the roots of a quadratic equation - Oct 17 2021 web the standard form of a quadratic equation is  $ax^2 + bx + c = 0$  where  $a$ ,  $b$  and  $c$  are real numbers and  $a \neq 0$  the term  $b^2 - 4ac$  is known as the discriminant of a quadratic equation it tells the nature of the roots if the discriminant is greater than 0 the roots are real and different if the discriminant is equal to 0 the roots are real and equal if the discriminant formula rules discriminant of quadratic - Jul 26 2022 web the quadratic formula in terms of the discriminant is  $x = \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a}$  example find the discriminant of the quadratic equation  $2x^2 - 3x - 8 = 0$  comparing the equation with  $ax^2 + bx + c = 0$  we get  $a = 2$ ,  $b = -3$  and  $c = -8$  so the discriminant is  $\Delta$  or  $b^2 - 4ac = (-3)^2 - 4(2)(-8) = 9 + 64 = 73$  discriminant of cubic equation
