War Stephen E. Ambrose, Caleb Carr, Thomas Fleming, Victor Davis Hanson, 2006-11-07 Even fifteen years after the end of the Cold War it is still hard to grasp that we no longer live under its immense specter For nearly half a century from the end of World War II to the early 1990s all world events hung in the balance of a simmering dispute between two of the greatest military powers in history Hundreds of millions of people held their collective breath as the United States and the Soviet Union two national ideological entities waged proxy wars to determine spheres of influence and millions of others perished in places like Korea Vietnam and Angola where this cold war flared hot Such a consideration of the Cold War as a military event with sociopolitical and economic overtones is the crux of this stellar collection of twenty six essays compiled and edited by Robert Cowley the longtime editor of MHQ The Quarterly Journal of Military History Befitting such a complex and far ranging period the volume s contributing writers cover myriad angles John Prados in The War Scare of 1983 shows just how close we were to escalating a war of words into a nuclear holocaust Victor Davis Hanson offers The Right Man his pungent reassessment of the bellicose air power zealot Curtis LeMay as a man whose words were judged more critically than his actions The secret war also gets its due in George Feiffer s The Berlin Tunnel which details the charismatic C I A operative Big Bill Harvey s effort to tunnel under East Berlin and tap Soviet phone lines and the Soviets equally audacious reaction to the plan while The Truth About Overflights by R Cargill Hall sheds light on some of the Cold War s best kept secrets The often overlooked human cost of fighting the Cold War finds a clear voice in MIA by Marilyn Elkins the widow of a Navy airman who details the struggle to learn the truth about her husband Lt Frank C Elkins whose A 4 Skyhawk disappeared over Vietnam in 1966 In addition there are profiles of the war s front lines Dien Bien Phu the Cuban Missile Crisis the Bay of Pigs as well as of prominent military and civil leaders from both sides including Harry S Truman Nikita Khrushchev Dean Acheson Gen Douglas MacArthur Richard M Nixon Gen Vo Nguyen Giap and others Encompassing so many perspectives and events The Cold War succeeds at an impossible task illuminating and explaining the history of an undeclared shadow war that threatened the very existence of humankind French Indochina War Huston, Simon, 2021-07-01 Military mistakes impel strategic reflection The French Indochina War FIW from 1946 1954 furnishes useful insights with some resonance for current challenges A combination of pre existing conditions catalysts and operational drivers caused the cathartic 1954 French defeat Pre conditions included the illegitimacy of the colonial regime repression that polarised nationalist sentiment Economically pernicious terms of trade suppressed industrialisation but oiled speculation until suddenly reversed by devaluation in 1953 that reflected financial disengagement by France but increased American involvement Vacillating metropolitan and the dubious colonial regime of the night club Emperor B o i fuelled political instability Militarily after the disastrous evacuation of the RC4 in 1950. Viet Minh men and supplies poured across the Chinese frontier. In 1954 financial constraints and the looming international peace conference catalysed Navarre, the new French commander, to gamble on a battle of attrition. He bet that the Viet Minh would be unable to drag artillery to the remote jungle outpost of Dien Bien Phu, but he underestimated their determination, strength and adaptability. In early December, partisans resented the bungled evacuation of Lai Chau. The entrenched camp's defences were inadequate and neither infantry sorties nor napalm suppressed Viet Minh artillery in the surrounding hills. The French aerial logistical subsystem was overstretched and significant parachute supplies fell into enemy hands. Navarre scattered his reserves on a futile and remote side show, Operation Atlante. The Americans prevaricated and refused to unleash their B29 fleet. Iacta alea est, the die was cast. The Dictionary of Acronyms and Abbreviations in Applied Linguistics and Language Learning Heidrun Jung, Udo Jung, 1991 Le chansonnier français de Saint-Germain-des-Près \(Bibl. nat. fr. 20050\) Paul Meyer, Gaston Raynaud, 1892 Le chansonnier français de Saint-Germain-des-Près (Bibl.
