Liberating Pulpit:

The Liberating Pulpit Justo L. Gonzalez, Gonzalez, 2003-01-27 Catherine and Justo Gonzalez provide a valuable resource for preaching and biblical interpretation An account of liberation theology s impact on the task of preaching is offered by two historians of doctrine who are intimately aware of the need to be open to marginalized perspectives in the church Early Christian preachers had much to say on issues such as the origins and proper use of wealth the rights and duties of the poor and rich and the nature of ownership The Gonzalezes recapture this early Christian spirit offering concrete ways that the interpretation of specific biblical texts may be enriched or corrected in order to speak directly to the whole life of the whole church Often used as a text in preaching courses The Liberating Pulpit helps to clarify and to bridge the gap between those whose preaching and hermeneutics tend to be more traditional and the various minorities who tend to read Scripture in a different way The Company of Preachers Richard Lischer, 2002-08-30 This unique volume draws on the wisdom of Christian thinkers and preachers from across the ages to present a warm and informative collection of insights on the art of preaching Gathering the writing of figures as diverse as Augustine John Chrysostom Jonathan Edwards Gardner C Taylor and Barbara Brown Taylor The Company of Preachers provides experienced advice on effective preaching direct from the pens of those who have known it best The book is arranged in seven divisions each covering a central component of the preaching task Editor Richard Lischer himself a distinguished preacher and teacher gives a brief introduction to each selection Aptly presenting a theological and historical cross section of the church s homiletics this volume will be invaluable to preachers students preparing for ministry and others seeking models of powerful Christian speech Features insights on preaching from Augustine Karl Barth Dietrich Bonhoeffer Walter Brueggemann Rudolf Bultmann Horace Bushnell David Buttrick John Calvin John Cassian John Chrysostom Fred B Craddock C H Dodd Jarena Lee Jonathan Edwards Charles Grandison Finney P T Forsyth Harry Emerson Fosdick Gregory the Great George Herbert Martin Luther Henry H Mitchell John Henry Newman Phoebe Palmer Paul Ricoeur Oscar Romero Friedrich Schleiermacher Charles Haddon Spurgeon Barbara Brown Taylor Gardner C Taylor John Wesley and many more Púlpito Rev. Dr. Pablo A. Jimenez, Dr. Justo L. Gonzalez, 2010-09-01 In this the only book available that addresses the distinctive issues and character of preaching in the Hispanic congregation the authors discuss important historical theoretical and methodological issues in Hispanic homiletics Includes ten sermons A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth. All of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands, preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2, available separately as 9781501833786, contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver, and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches, we all participate in this field, says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65, Winter 2004/2005, published by the National Council of Churches.

Ethical Approaches to Preaching John S. McClure, 2021-02-23. Different ethical situations require different homiletical responses. John McClure organizes recent literature on ethics and preaching into four ethical approaches. Does your situation require public moral leadership? Then a communicative ethic is best. Does your situation require the development of countercultural moral character? Then a witness ethic is best. Does your situation require ethical consciousness, raising and organizing for social justice? Then a liberationist ethic is best. Does your situation require genuine moral conversation and the discernment of shared commitments in spite of our differences? Then a hospitality ethic is best. Each ethical approach is briefly and carefully explored, correlated with appropriate contexts and situations, and demonstrated with model sermons. The result is a useful handbook for quickly discerning what ethical approach is needed, how to preach that approach, and what to expect as a result.

Let the Reader Understand Edwin K. Broadhead, 2018-03-22. This book honors the extraordinary contribution of Elizabeth Struthers Malbon to biblical studies. In the opening chapter, Werner Kelber places Malbon's work within the larger context of critical reflection from antiquity to the modern era on the role and function of discourse. Kelber locates Malbon's approach squarely within the framework of modernity and concludes that her supremely creative achievement has been the employment of modern narrative critical tools with a view toward uncovering the fecundity of the gospel of Mark Drawing from and conversing with Professor Malbon's extensive publications each of the five sections engages a theme from her works focusing particularly on the Gospel of Mark This tribute includes meaning as narrative issues in methodology studies in characterization narrative readings of specific texts and aesthetic and political readings Contributors include Werner H Kelber R Alan Culpepper Kelly R Iverson Mikeal C Parsons David Barr David J A Clines Robert C Tannehill J Cheryl Exum Heidi Hornik and Richard Walsh Unmasking White Preaching Lis Valle-Ruiz, Andrew Wymer, 2022-04-06 This book examines the impact of white racialization in homiletics The first section Racial Hegemony interrogates the white colonial bias of Euro American homiletical practice pedagogy and theory with particular attention to the intersection of preaching and racialization The second section Resistance and Possibilities contributes diverse critical homiletical approaches emerging in conversation with racially minoritized scholarship and racially subjugated knowledge and practice By reading this book preachers and professors of preaching will encounter alternative non dominant homiletical pathways toward a more just future for the church and the world Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 2 Ronald J. Allen, 2022-07-05 Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist Anglican Episcopal Wesleyan Baptist African American Stone Campbell Friends and Pentecostal Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical liberal neo orthodox postliberal existential radical orthodox deconstructionist Black liberation womanist Latinx liberation Mujerista Asian American Asian American feminist LGBTQAI Indigenous postcolonial and process In each case the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective and assesses the strengths and limitations of the approach Strangers No Longer Sergio M. González, 2024-03-26 Hospitality practices grounded in religious belief have long exercised a profound influence on Wisconsin's Latino communities Sergio M González examines the power relations at work behind the types of hospitality welcoming and otherwise practiced on newcomers in both Milwaukee and rural areas of the Badger State González's analysis addresses central issues like the foundational role played by religion and sacred spaces in shaping experiences and facilitating collaboration among disparate Latino groups and across ethnic lines the connections between sacred spaces and the moral justification for social justice movements and the ways sacred spaces evolved into places for mitigating prejudice and social alienation providing sanctuary from nativism and repression and fostering local and transnational community building Perceptive and original Strangers No Longer reframes the history of Latinos in Wisconsin by revealing religion's central role in the settlement experience of immigrants migrants and refugees R.I.C.H. in Preaching Antonio LaMar Torrence, 2020-12-22 As many black churches attempt to become welcoming spaces for LGBTQ people preachers are navigating ways to develop sermons that are more

Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task Spirit Speech Dr. Luke A. Powery,2010-10-01 That the Holy Spirit is present in preaching is something we take for granted How the Spirit is present is a question we seldom ask Luke Powery suggests that we fail to ask that question to the detriment of our preaching Drawing on the tradition of African American preaching he locates the Spirit's activity in the sermon in two primary places First in celebration the joyous acceptance of God's gifts to the church and to the world But equally as powerful is the expression of lament the lifting up of our sorrow grief and suffering In these two experiences the Spirit plays the decisive role enabling the preacher to lay the congregation's joys and sorrows at the feet of the living God and announcing God's presence in both our celebration and our lament
