the Profession in Contribution Scholarship and Service is needed now as a response to how much has changed in academic librarianship as a profession from the smallest academic libraries to large research libraries Much has been written recently about the status of the profession of librarianship i e whether or not it should still be considered a profession are the same credentials still required enough should things change dramatically in SLIS programs in response to the new normal and what is the impact of hiring PhD s in disciplines outside of librarianship Major topics covered include State of the profession of librarianship today Status of librarians Tenure or not Move away from faculty status in some more academic libraries Contributions to the profession scholarship What is produced How are librarians conducting research Where is it taking place who is producing scholarship Why Trends Contribution to the profession service and professional associations LIS Education Tomorrow what are the implications for the future of our profession Author Marcy Simons explores the history current status and future of the profession of academic librarianship She clearly demonstrates the need for a shared understanding of how we will work together in order to continue our transformation Biennial Report of the State

Librarian, and Catalogue of the State Library Oregon. Supreme Court. Library,1914 Partnerships and New Roles in the 21st-Century Academic Library Bradford Lee Eden,2015-09-18 The fifth volume in this series focuses on creating partnerships and developing new roles for libraries in the 21st century It includes such topics such as consulting coaching assessment and engagement partnerships university commercialization adult student support librarian faculty partnerships in developing and supporting new academic courses and creating and staffing the information commons The concept of embedded librarianship is touched upon in the context of extending the role of the librarian outside the library The chapters in this volume demonstrate that just as students are extending the ways in which they learn librarians must embrace new roles and modalities if they are to provide the types of support required by patrons A typical example of growing importance massive open online courses MOOCs create challenges and opportunities as they are constantly evolving they change fundamentally the way students interact with teachers their fellow students any course content and existing or new library services To survive librarians need to be engaged in ways that push beyond current professional limits in order to better support the needs of learners Doing this will not be an easy task but one that librarians are certainly up to It is hoped that this volume and the series in general will be a valuable and exciting addition to the discussions and planning surrounding the future directions services and careers in the 21st century academic library Writing and Publishing Carol
