This edited book delves into the multifaceted dimensions of the refugee journey, covering challenges of displacement and strategies for rebuilding lives. With diverse thematic sections on mental health, healthcare, livelihood opportunities, legal status, and the intersectionality of identity, the book offers a comprehensive perspective on the complexities faced by refugees worldwide. Beyond its scholarly contributions, the collection aims to resonate with policymakers, practitioners, and the general public, fostering empathy and inspiring positive action. Join us in understanding, appreciating, and addressing the realities of refugee life through this thought-provoking compilation. Voices for Women United States. President's Advisory Committee for Women, 1980. This is the report of the ninth body appointed by the President to study the status of women in the United States, beginning in 1961 with the first committee chaired by Eleanor Roosevelt. Each produced its own landmark report and recommendations to the government of the day. Human Rights and Incarceration Elizabeth Stanley, 2018-08-09. This collection considers human rights and incarceration in relation to the liberal democratic states of Australia, New Zealand, and the UK. It presents original case study material on groups that are disproportionately affected by incarceration, including indigenous populations, children, women, those with disabilities, and refugees or non-citizens. The book considers how and why human rights are eroded but also how they can be built and sustained through social, creative, cultural, legal, political, and personal acts. It establishes the need for pragmatic reforms as well as the abolition of incarceration. Contributors consider what has or might work to secure rights for incarcerated populations and they critically analyse human rights in their legal, socio-cultural, economic, and political contexts. In covering this ground, the book presents a reinvigorated vision of human rights in relation to incarceration. After all, human rights are not static principles; they have to be developed, fought over, and engaged with. Life's Classics Joseph Akinola, 2013-04. In this book, the answer to the puzzle of life is presented in its raw and digestible, clear state. Life's Classics may be likened to a well-packaged bunch of seedlings of wisdom. For those who can transplant these seedlings into their lives, they will definitely grow into gigantic trees of success with fruits that will affect their generation positively. Life's Classics does not just present the keys needed to unlock the potentials in any and every individual; it also draws its rich materials from things we see around us but whose real meaning is hidden from many people. By the time you are through with this slim but potent book, you will begin to see yourself in another light, and all those seemingly impossible situations will suddenly begin to unfold.

Forms of Devotion in Early English Poetry Jennifer A. Lorden, 2023-11-02 Jennifer Lorden reveals the importance of deeply felt religious devotion centuries before it is commonly said to arise Her ground breaking study establishes the hybrid poetics that embodied its form for medieval readers while obscuring it from modern scholars Working across the divide between Old and Middle English she shows how conventions of earlier English poetry recombine with new literary conventions after the Norman Conquest These new conventions for example love lyric repurposed as devotional song created hybrid aesthetics more familiar to modern scholars She argues that this aesthetic as much as changing devotional practice rendered later affective piety recognizable in a way that earlier affective devotional conventions were not Forms of Devotion reconsiders the roots and branches of poetic topoi revising commonplaces of literary and religious history This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

Displacement Governance and the Illusion of Integration Hakan Shearer Demir, 2023-08-11 There is a poetic convergence between the struggles of people on the move and people in the peripheries of power as they may collectively envision alternative forms of coexistence and fight together for fundamental rights and a dignified life The emergence of fresh perspectives on solidarity from local communities across the board can become the driving force behind a transformative movement of the people Examples of small yet impactful acts of solidarity in the northern Mediterranean region illustrate how migration fuels social change leading to the alteration of established norms These examples further challenge the dominant populist narrative of migration and integration into mainstream society as the only viable solution The recent influx of migrant arrivals in Europe challenges established paradigms rekindling discussions on human rights and democracy regarding the treatment of people on the move and their experiences after arriving in a new location Despite dominant nation state narratives and inadequate institutional approaches to displacement narratives of solidarity among local communities have emerged transcending borders shedding light on the class race and gender based dimensions of migration In this book Hakan Shearer Demir examines how displacement and governance influence the meaning of what it means to be local as it is constantly reshaped by the diverse experiences cultural norms and the connections of newcomers to places people and stories in the northern Mediterranean region Through his Displacement Triggered Community Co

Ordered Estates Hartnack, Andrew M.C.,2016-07-31 There is a growing body of work on white farmers in Zimbabwe Yet the role played by white women so called farmers wives on commercial farms has been almost completely ignored if not forgotten For all the public role and overt power ascribed to white male farmers their wives played an equally important although often more subtle role in power and labour relations on white commercial farms This soft power took the form of maternalistic welfare initiatives such as clinics schools orphan programmes and women s clubs mostly overseen by a farmer s wife Before and after Zimbabwe s 1980 independence these played an important role in attracting and keeping farm labourers and governing their behaviour After independence they also became crucial to the way white farmers justified their continued ownership of most of Zimbabwe s prime farmland This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the role that farm welfare initiatives played in Zimbabwe s agrarian history Having assessed what implications such endeavours had for the position and well being of farmworkers before the onset of fast track land reform in the year 2000 Hartnack examines in vivid ethnographic detail the impact that the farm seizures had on the lives of farmworkers and the welfare programmes which had previously attempted to improve their lot

Living displacement Mateja Celestina,2018-07-17 Focusing on two cases of resettlement in rural Cundinamarca Colombia this book examines how displaced campesinos make sense of their displacement and how displacement shapes their everyday lives It is based on a ten month fieldwork employing ethnographic methods working living and sharing with the displaced and their host The book calls for a longer time frame analysis of the phenomenon of displacement which considers people s lives both pre and post physical relocation It examines how violence and terror altered people s sense of place and set off displacement process before they actually moved It analyses the challenges the displaced are facing in their subsequent place making endeavours including the negotiation of social relations consequences of categorization engagement with the physical land and memories of violence to challenge the notion that displacement starts with uprooting and terminates with resettlement or return
