Scientific Foundations of Psychological Research

The Quest for Knowledge

Since the time immemorial, man has been faced with a great desire of finding the truth on the things that are happening inside him and around his environment. He has been bombarded with a lot of questions that need to be answered and confronted with a multitude of problems that he has to immediately seek solutions. For this reason, man has to discover new knowledge and, in the process, he has to develop methods, techniques and approaches in discovering and creating new knowledge.
