Jantzen,2004 Foundations of Violence enters the ancient world of Homer Plato and Aristotle to explore the genealogy of violence in Western thought through its emergence in Greece and Rome Foundations of Violence Grace M. Jantzen,2004 Foundations of Violence enters the ancient world of Homer Plato and Aristotle to explore the genealogy of violence in Western thought through its emergence in Greece and Rome Grace Jantzen Professor Elaine L Graham,2013-06-28 Grace Jantzen was an internationally renowned feminist philosopher of religion whose work has transformed the way we think about the interactions between religion culture and gender in Western culture Jantzen s aim was to redeem the present via a critique and reconstruction of staple concepts of the Western imaginary This unique book brings together many of Grace Jantzen s colleagues and former students in a wide ranging exploration of her enduring influence ranging across philosophy of religion to literature psychoanalysis theology ethics and politics Part I assesses the ramifications of Jantzen s affirmation that Western culture must choose life in preference to a prevailing symbolic of violence and death Part II explores some of the key voices which contributed to Jantzen s understanding of a culture of flourishing and natality Quaker thought and practice medieval mysticism and feminist spirituality Further essays apply elements of Jantzen s work to the politics of disability development and environmentalism extending her range of influence into new and innovative areas Funded! Richard Hoefer,2017-06-02 Funded leads readers from knowing nothing about writing grants to having a complete grant proposal Based on personal experience and the experiences of dozens of professional nonprofit grantwriters students learn about writing grants by completing exercises at the end of each chapter moving from finding funding opportunities to submitting the completed proposal The book covers every essential grantwriting topic finding funding writing needs statements finding or developing evidence based programs developing logic models writing evaluation plans describing implantation plans budgeting sustainability planning and submission to the funder Overall it is an invaluable resource that provides flexibility for instructors students and professionals to learn about grantwriting in a variety of settings and formats Foundations of Violence Grace M. Jantzen,2004 Contemporary Black Urban Music Ron Westray,2023-03-14 The examination of CBUM Hip Hop as a global force factors highly in this course A wide range of topics will be presented to the student in preparation for written essays philosophical flexibility and assessment Identity Politics in George Lucas' Star Wars John C. McDowell,2016-03-18 George Lucas spoke about the didactic role of cinema and about his own work being presented through the moral megaphone of the film industry A considerable body of scholarship on the six part Star Wars series argues unconvincingly that the franchise promoted neo conservatism in American culture from the late 1970s onward But there is much in Lucas grand space opera to suggest something more ideologically complex is going on This book challenges the view of the saga as an unambiguously violent text exemplifying reactionary politics and discusses the films identity politics with regard to race and gender Theological Anthropology in the Anthropocene Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2022-12-14 The Anthropocene presents theology and especially theological anthropology with unprecedented challenges There are no immediately available resources in the theological tradition that reflect directly on such experiences Accordingly the situation calls for contextually based theological reflection of what it means to be human under such circumstances This book discusses the main elements in theological anthropology in light of the fundamental points a that theological anthropology needs to be articulated with reference to and informed by the concrete historical circumstances in which humanity presently finds itself and b that the notion of the Anthropocene can be used as a heuristic tool to describe important traits and conditions that call for a response by humanity and which entail the need for a renewal of what a Christian self understanding means Jan Olav Henriksen explores what such a response entails from the point of view of contemporary theological anthropology and discusses selected topics that can contribute to a contextually based position Apocalypse Against Empire Anthea Portier-Young, 2011-01-06 A fresh and daring take on ancient apocalyptic books The year 167 b c e marked the beginning of a period of intense persecution for the people of Judea as Seleucid emperor Antiochus IV Epiphanes attempted forcibly and brutally to eradicate traditional Jewish religious practices In Apocalypse against Empire Anthea Portier Young reconstructs the historical events and key players in this traumatic episode in Jewish history and provides a sophisticated treatment of resistance in early Judaism Building on a solid contextual foundation Portier Young argues that the first Jewish apocalypses emerged as a literature of resistance to Hellenistic imperial rule She makes a sturdy case for this argument by examining three extant apocalypses giving careful attention to the interplay between social theory history textual studies and theological analysis In particular Portier Young contends the book of Daniel the Apocalypse of Weeks and the Book of Dreams were written to supply an oppressed people with a potent antidote to the destructive propaganda of the empire renewing their faith in the God of the covenant and answering state terror with radical visions of hope Violent Offenders Christina A. Pietz, Curtis A. Mattson, 2015 Violent Offenders addresses the numerous challenges and issues facing individuals working with this population and provides broad coverage regarding specific groups of violent perpetrators
