Fourth World:

The Universal Kabbalah Leonora Leet, 2004-09-29 This landmark work by an innovative modern Kabbalist develops a scientific model for kabbalistic cosmology and soul psychology Derived from the kabbalistic diagram of the Tree of Life and the author's own Sabbath Star diagram this universal model encodes the laws of all cosmic manifestation giving a mathematical basis to many aspects of this mystical tradition and providing a new synthesis of science and spirituality that may well write a new chapter to the Kabbalah NGOs and Human Rights Charity Butcher, Maia Carter

Hallward, 2021-06-15 This study examines and compares the important work on global human rights advocacy done by religious NGOs and by secular NGOs By studying the similarities in how such organizations understand their work we can better consider not only how religious and secular NGOs might complement each other but also how they might collaborate and cooperate in the advancement of human rights However little research has attempted to compare these types of NGOs and their approaches NGOs and Human Rights explores this comparison and identifies the key areas of overlap and divergence In so doing it lays the groundwork for better understanding how to capitalize on the strengths of religious groups especially in addressing the world's many human rights challenges This book uses a new dataset of more than three hundred organizations affiliated with the United Nations Human Rights Council to compare the extent to which religious and secular NGOs differ in their framing discussion and operationalization of human rights work Using both quantitative analysis of the extensive data collected by the authors and forty seven in depth interviews conducted with members of human rights organizations in the sample Charity Butcher and Maia Carter Hallward analyze these organizations approaches to questions of culture development women's rights children's rights and issues of peace and conflict The Shoshoneans Edward Dorn, 2013-12 A path breaking photo narrative of Dorn and African American photographer Leroy Lucas's mid 1960s travels through Shoshoni Indian country Nevada Idaho Wyoming and Utah to paint a stark tableau of modern Native life

Icons of the American Comic Book Randy Duncan, Matthew J. Smith, 2013-01-29 This book explores how the heroes and villains of popular comic books and the creators of these icons of our culture reflect the American experience out of which they sprang and how they have achieved relevance by adapting to and perhaps influencing the evolving American character Multiple generations have thrilled to the exploits of the heroes and villains of American comic books These imaginary characters permeate our culture even Americans who have never read a comic book grasp what the most well known examples represent But these comic book characters and their creators do more than simply thrill they make us consider who we are and who we aspire to be Icons of the American Comic Book From Captain America to Wonder Woman contains 100 entries that provide historical background explore the impact of the comic book character on American culture and summarize what is iconic about the subject of the entry Each entry also lists essential works suggests further readings and contains at least one sidebar that provides entertaining and often quirky insight not covered in the main entry This two volume work examines fascinating subjects such as how the superhero concept embodied the essence of American culture in the 1930s and the ways in which comic book icons have evolved to reflect changing circumstances values and attitudes regarding cultural diversity The book's coverage extends beyond just characters as it also includes entries devoted to creators publishers titles and even comic book related phenomena that have had enduring significance Poor People and Library Services Karen M. Venturella, 1998-06-15 In 1996 nearly 40 million United States citizens were reported to be living in poverty This enormous number set in conjunction with the rapid growth in demand for more information technology presents librarians with a wrenching dilemma how to maintain a modern facility while increasing services to the economically disadvantaged Karen Venturella has gathered a diverse group of librarians and facilitators including Khafre Abif head of Children's Services for the Mount Vernon Public Library in New York Wizard Marks who directs the Chicago Lake Security Center in its mission to improve the area Lillian Marrero who has concentrated on providing services to the Spanish speaking population Kathleen de la Pena McCook director of the School of Library and Information Science at the University of South Florida and 15 others to find strategies for dealing with the current crisis of disparity These writers address both the theoretical issues of ensuring access to information regardless of ability to pay and the practical means for meeting the needs of low income populations Appendices include the ALA's Policy on Library Services to Poor People The Library Bill of Rights and a listing of poverty related organizations

Abortion in Latin America and the Caribbean Ligia De Jesús Castaldi, 2020-06-25 Abortion in Latin America and the Caribbean is the first major book to analyze the abortion laws of the Latin American and Caribbean nations that are parties to the American Convention on Human Rights Making use of a broad range of materials relating to human rights and abortion law not yet available in English the first part of this book analyzes how Inter American human rights bodies have interpreted the American Convention's prenatal right to life The second part examines Article 4 1 of the American Convention comparing and analyzing the laws regarding prenatal rights and abortion in all twenty three nations that are parties to this treaty Castaldi questions how Inter American human rights bodies currently interpret Article 4 1 Against the predominant view she argues that the purpose of this treaty is to grant legal protection of the unborn child from elective abortion that is broad and general not merely exceptional Abortion in Latin America and the Caribbean offers an objective analysis of national and international laws on abortion proposing a new interpretation of the American Convention's right to life provision that is nonrestrictive and provides general protection for the unborn The book will appeal not only to students and scholars in the field of international human rights but also to human rights advocates more generally

The Politics of Transnational Television Austin Ogunseyi, 2004-05-29 The central focus of this study is to provide an improved basis for articulating the politics of transnational television and its potentials for improving relations among nations In this context the politics of transnational television means the decision making process that determines the degree of freedom of the press tolerated by individual governments and how that could affect broadcasting mode and attitudes toward other nations The motivation for this research stems from a conviction that the cultural imperialism perspective on the nature and modes of transnational television are erroneous and therefore susceptible to a wide and often misleading theoretical assumption with wide ranged implications In reevaluating the concept of cultural imperialism some fundamental questions are raised to determine to what extent its arguments are true Using the elite theory of power in various societies aided by Johan Galtung's model of a global communication in four worlds we see a pattern of global television that suggests a similar motivation underlying media ownership in all societies We acknowledge with the support of a literature review and other data sources the existence of a global systemic order where technology rich nations dominate technology over poor nations But there is also substantial evidence to prove some of the poorer nations exercise some degree of autonomy This makes it more difficult to explain cultural imperialism simply as a relationship where developed and developing nations are arranged in dominant subordinate or top down order Through a strategy of original intent we are able to show the elite in various societies acquire television mainly to satisfy their political economic or social interest Media attitudes therefore are largely the ideological expression of local elite who determines foreign policy Routledge Handbook of Identity Studies Anthony Elliott, 2012-04-27 The Routledge Handbook of Identity Studies offers an exceptionally clear overview of the analysis of identity in the social sciences and in so doing seeks to develop a new agenda for identity studies in the twenty first century The key theories of identity ranging from classical accounts to postmodern psychoanalytic and feminist approaches are drawn together and critically appraised and there are substantive sections looking at racial ethnic gendered queer consumerist virtual and global identities The Handbook also makes an essential contribution to the debate now opening up over identity politics and its cultural consequences From anti globalization protestors to new ecological warriors from devotees of therapy culture to defenders of international human rights the culture of identity politics is fast redefining the public political sphere What future for politics is there after the turn to identity Throughout there is a strong emphasis on interdisciplinarity with essays covering sociology psychology politics cultural studies and history The Handbook's clear and direct style will appeal to a wide undergraduate audience in the social sciences and humanities Forgotten Worlds Patrick Chouinard, 2012-05-29 An examination of the mythological historical and archaeological evidence for lost civilizations throughout the world Explores unexplained mysteries such as the Caucasian mummies of China the pyramids of Caral in Peru and the genetically unique X woman of Siberia Examines evidence of lost ancient civilizations in Asia Europe and the Americas including extensive investigation into Atlantis Shows that Siberia and the Amazon may have been cradles of humanity before Africa Over and over again mainstream views of early history which state that the first civilizations arose around 3500 BCE are plagued by evidence of much older civilizations evidence ranging from artifacts and inexplicable remains to pyramids and ubiquitous myths that clearly speak of great empires prior to the rise of the Sumerian city states and pharaonic Egypt Viewing Atlantis and its many related myths as a metaphor for a long lost global civilization Patrick Chouinard explores the mythological cultural religious and archaeological evidence for many forgotten civilizations in Europe Asia and the Americas He addresses unexplained mysteries from around the world such as Caucasian mummies found in China the pyramids of Caral in Peru the hobbit remains on Flores Island the giant heads of Easter Island the lost legacy of Lemuria the ideology and occult mysticism behind Nazi theory and the genetically unique X woman of Siberia He also examines evidence of ancient alien visits and other supernatural phenomena in the distant past Using recent archaeological findings he shows that Siberia and the Amazon may have been cradles of humanity millennia before Africa Sounding the call to continue searching ancient remote and formerly forbidden regions for lost cultures and genetic root races Chouinard offers a new chronology for the emergence of human life and civilization as well as a new mechanism for how and why societies and species change over time By finding lost peoples and their forgotten worlds we can truly begin to understand the human race and learn from its long history American Indian Politics and the American Political System David E. Wilkins, Heidi Kiiwetinepinesik Stark, 2017-04-13 American Indian Politics and the American Political System is the most comprehensive text written from a political science perspective It analyzes the structures and functions of indigenous governments including Alaskan Native communities and Hawaiian Natives and the distinctive legal and political rights these nations exercise internally It also examines the fascinating intergovernmental relationship that exists between native nations the states and the federal government In the fourth edition Wilkins and Stark analyze the challenges facing Indigenous nations as they develop new and innovative strategies to defend and demand recognition of their national character and rights They also seeks to address issues that continue to plague many nations such as notions of belonging and citizenship implementation of governing structures and processes attentive to Indigenous political and legal traditions and the promotion and enactment of sustainable practices that support our interdependence in an increasingly globalized world Canada's Residential Schools: The History, Part 1, Origins to 1939 Commission de vérité et réconciliation du Canada, 2016-01-01 Between 1867 and 2000 the Canadian government sent over 150 000 Aboriginal children to residential schools across the country Government officials and missionaries agreed that in order to civilize and Christianize Aboriginal children it was necessary to separate them from their parents and their home communities For children life in these schools was lonely and alien Discipline was harsh and daily life was highly regimented Aboriginal languages and cultures were denigrated and suppressed Education and technical training too often gave way to the drudgery of doing the chores necessary to make the schools self sustaining Child neglect was institutionalized and the lack of supervision created situations where students were prey to sexual and physical abusers Legal action by the schools former students led to the creation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in 2008 The product of over six years of research the Commission s final report outlines the history and legacy of the schools and charts a pathway towards reconciliation Canada s Residential Schools The History Part 1 Origins to 1939 places Canada s residential school system in the historical context of European campaigns to colonize and convert Indigenous people throughout the world In post Confederation Canada the government adopted what amounted to a policy of cultural genocide suppressing spiritual practices disrupting traditional economies and imposing new forms of government Residential schooling quickly became a central element in this policy The destructive intent of the schools was compounded by chronic underfunding and ongoing conflict between the federal government and the church missionary societies that had been given responsibility for their day to day operation A failure of leadership and resources meant that the schools failed to control the tuberculosis crisis that gripped the schools for much of this period Alarmed by high death rates Aboriginal parents often refused to send their children to the schools leading the government adopt ever more coercive attendance regulations While parents became subject to ever more punitive regulations the government did little to regulate discipline diet fire safety or sanitation at the schools By the period s end the government was presiding over a nation wide series of firetraps that had no clear educational goals and were economically dependent on the unpaid labour of underfed and often sickly children The Routledge

Companion to Contemporary Anthropology Simon Coleman,Susan B. Hyatt,Ann Kingsolver,2016-11-25 The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is an invaluable guide and major reference source for students and scholars alike introducing its readers to key contemporary perspectives and approaches within the field Written by an experienced international team of contributors with an interdisciplinary range of essays this collection provides a powerful overview of the transformations currently affecting anthropology The volume both addresses the concerns of the discipline and comments on its construction through texts classroom interactions engagements with various publics and changing relations with other academic subjects Persuasively demonstrating that a number of key contemporary issues can be usefully analyzed through an anthropological lens the contributors cover important topics such as globalization law and politics collaborative archaeology economics religion citizenship and community health and the environment The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is a fascinating examination of this lively and constantly evolving discipline Ardor Roberto Calasso,2025-06-25 In a meditation on the wisdom of the Vedas Roberto Calasso s Ardor brings ritual and sacrifice to bear on the modern world In this revelatory volume Roberto Calasso whom The Paris Review has called a literary institution explores the ancient texts known as the Vedas Little is known about the Vedic people who lived more than three thousand years ago in northern India They left behind almost no objects images or ruins They created no empires Even the soma the likely hallucinogenic plant that appears at the center of some of their rituals has not been identified with any certainty Only a Parthenon of words remains verses and formulations suggesting a daring understanding of life If the Vedic people had been asked why they did not build cities writes Calasso they could have replied we did not seek power but rapture This is the ardor of the Vedic world a burning intensity that is always present both in the mind and in the cosmos With his signature erudition and profound sense of the past Calasso explores the enigmatic web of ritual and myth that defines the Vedas Often at odds with modern thought these texts illuminate the nature of consciousness more vividly than anything else has managed to till now Following the hundred paths of the Satapatha Brahma n a an impressive exegesis of Vedic ritual Ardor indicates that it may be possible to reach what is closest by passing through that which is most remote as the whole of Vedic India was an attempt to think further International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier,Stefan Toepler,2009-11-24

Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field

Globalization and Education Nicholas C. Burbules, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2000 The legendary Greek figure Orpheus was said to have possessed magical powers capable of moving all living and inanimate things through the sound of his lyre and voice Over time the Orphic theme has come to indicate the power of music to unsettle subvert and ultimately bring down oppressive realities in order to liberate the soul and expand human life without limits The liberating effect of music has been a particularly important theme in twentieth century African American literature The nine original essays in Black Orpheus examines the Orphic theme in the fiction of such African American writers as Jean Toomer Langston Hughes Claude McKay James Baldwin Nathaniel Mackey Sherley Anne Williams Ann Petry Ntozake Shange Alice Walker Gayl Jones and Toni Morrison The authors discussed in this volume depict music as a mystical shamanistic and spiritual power that can miraculously transform the realities of the soul and of the world Here the musician uses his or her music as a weapon to shield and protect his or her spirituality Written by scholars of English music women s studies American studies cultural theory and black and Africana studies the essays in this interdisciplinary collection ultimately explore the thematic linguistic structural presence of music in twentieth century African American fiction

Students on the Margins Jaylynne N. Hutcheson, 1999-05-27 The focus of teaching is not on what we teach or how we test but more fundamentally on the quality of relationships according to Jaylynne Hutchinson in Students on the Margins Amid much talk of educational reform that focuses on pedagogy curriculum and policy Hutchinson attests that when we don t pay attention to students personal stories students can become marginalized from the process of learning not only via race class and gender but also psycho socially Using story as a metaphor for paying attention to the meaning children create in their lives she suggests how story can become an active part of the classroom and curriculum asking teachers to pay attention to relationships and to create the space to accommodate stories in the classroom

Armageddon, Oil, and Terror John F. Walvoord, Mark Hitchcock, 2007-09-28 Updating the work of renowned biblical scholar John F Walvoord who famously predicted current world events Armageddon Oil and Terror offers shocking predictions on the future of terrorism oil based economics and nuclear war in the Middle East In all Armageddon Oil and Terror sheds light on 12 events related to end time prophecies that seem eerily close to coming true Includes materials from lectures and discussions after 9 11 and incorporates vital updated material from other Walvoord classics It is as current as today s news and every prediction rings true
