Fox And Bear:

Fox and Bear Rebecca Rose Moody, Lauren Reese, 2020-05-18 Bear is Fox's safe someone. When Fox is old enough to go out on adventures, Bear always loves to hear about the memories Fox has made. But when something upsetting happens, Fox is afraid to share the hard memory with Bear. Is it safe to share sad and upsetting memories? Or can Fox keep them hidden from Bear? With charming illustrations and sweet prose, Fox and Bear is captivating and simple enough for children to find it engaging while also being informative for adults as well, guiding them through the process of how to attune to little ones, especially those that are struggling with opening up when they are upset. Lauren Reese and Rebecca Rose Moody are both strong believers in respectful parenting. Both mothers to little ones, this book is a collaboration based on the belief that all children deserve to feel heard, seen, and loved, especially when they experience something that upsets them. Praise for Fox and Bear: Fox and Bear gently helps children see how sharing difficult memories with a loved one can ease scary or shameful feelings. It portrays honest emotions and authentic resolutions sprinkled with humor. The delightful illustrations keep the story warm and comforting, thereby inviting readers to open up to each other. A gem! Jean Reagan, NYT bestselling author of How to Babysit a Grandma and How to Babysit a Grandpa. Lauren and Rebecca have created a special type of cozy magic in the book Fox and Bear. It captures your heart with whimsical, gorgeous illustrations and a playful yet deep and meaningful story. It easily cultivates vital conversations with children in the classroom or at home to help them discover that it's okay to open up to your safe person. This is a wonderful tool to help children learn to navigate the joys and hardships in life and what to do when you encounter those feelings. He takes the time to stop and help, and together Fox and Bear begin an unexpected journey in friendship. Join them as they learn what it means to be a strong friend, to give hope, and to heal. The Sorry Tale of Fox and Bear Margrete Lamond, 2018-03 The Sorry Tale of Fox and Bear is the story of a cruel falling out between two friends, how it happens, and what happens next. It is outrageous, passionate, and poignant, and the bittersweet ending is as ambiguous as any friendship in real life. Framed in the present and told in alternating past and present tense, The Sorry Tale of Fox and Bear borrows characters and events from several traditional sources and is told with wit and verve by Margrete Lamond, with darkly brooding charcoal illustrations by acclaimed artist Heather Vallance. This beautiful story collection, a modern twist on traditional style, will resonate with readers looking for a great story to read over and over again.
