Fractured Identities Changing Patterns Of Inequality:

Fractured Identities Harriet Bradley,1996      Gender Visibility and Erasure Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos,Marcia Texler Segal,2022-08-15 Gender Visibility and Erasure offers a unique way of focusing on gender by identifying the multiple contexts in which issues of visibility invisibility and erasure manifest considering who is seen and who is ignored who has voice and who is silenced who has agency and who is controlled      Reshaping Social Life Sarah Irwin,2005-11-14 1 Introduction 2 Envisioning social landscapes of interconnection 3 Reshaping difference and interdependence the transformation of family life and divisions of labour into the twentieth century 4 Contemporary transformations in gender work and family 5 Disposition and position norms attitudes and commitments to children work and self 6 Life course transitions and the changing landscape of opportunity and constraint 7 Ethnicity and contexts of belonging and exclusion 8 Difference hierarchy and perceptions of social justice 9 Conclusion      Staying Fijian Rod Ewins,2009-07-31 Barkcloth or masi is the traditional art form of the women of Vatulele Island Its manufacture continues to flourish even increase while many other arts are declining despite the fact that most of its functional roles have been usurped by Western cloth and paper This book explores this apparent paradox and concludes that the reasons lie in the ability of its identity functions to buffer the effects of social stress This is so for not only Vatuleleans but all Fijians It is argued that the resultant strong indigenous demand has caused the efflorescence in barkcloth manufacture and use contrary to the common assumption that the tourism market is the savior of art This cultural vigor however has social costs that are explored here and weighed against its benefits Rod Ewins locates a very local activity in both national and global contexts historically sociologically and theoretically      Japanese Management Techniques and British Workers Andy Danford,2013-12-02 Analyzing the impact of Japanese style management techniques such as lean production teamworking kaizen continuous improvement and business unionism of factory workers this text investigates different facets of the organization of the labour process and employment relations within 15 Japanese transplants in South Wales There is an emphasis on the impact of the restructuring of workplace relations on both individual groups of workers and collective labour organization The text provides an insight into the reality of factory life in the 1990s by incorporating descriptions of shop floor observations quantitative data and revealing comments from different grades of shop floor workers office workers and management      Gender and Sexuality in Male-Dominated Occupations Tessa Wright,2016-06-23 Examining women s diverse experiences of male dominated work this ground breaking book explores what sexuality and gender means to women working in the construction and transport industries Using accounts from heterosexual women and lesbians working in professional manual and operational roles Gender and Sexuality in Male Dominated Occupations adopts an intersectional approach to examine advantage and disadvantage on the basis of gender sexuality and occupational class in these sectors Drawing on interviews and focus groups the author examines why women choose to enter male dominated industries their experiences of workplace relations their use of women's support networks and trade unions and the interface between home and work lives Presenting international and UK based examples of effective interventions to increase women's participation in male dominated work this important book highlights the need for political will to tackle women's underrepresentation and suggests directions for the future

Women Who Succeed Susan Durbin, 2016-02-16 The number of women in senior management remains stubbornly low Women Who Succeed examines the real life experiences of forty six senior women who have made it into senior management It considers the strategies that these women adopted the support they received and the relationships they formed in building their careers

Identity and Agency in England, 1500-1800 J. Barry, H. French, 2004-11-23 This collection of essays is arranged around the central issue raised by a raft of new empirical research the relationship between social identity or the vision of the self and the ways in which this can explain historical agency If identities in early modern society were multiple complex and dependent on context rather than homogenous consistent or easily determined then it is difficult to make simple causal links to behaviour This collection aims to make innovative new research on the structures of English society available to the wider scholarly audience The essays use a number of detailed contextual case studies to explore the twin themes of the nature of identities in early modern society and their role in influencing historical agency They examine the variety of identities available to individuals in early modern England and the ways in which these were invoked and employed

Blood, Bullets And Bodies Imani M. Tafari-Ama, 2017-06-11 Fifth Edition The true story of Blood Bullets and Bodies a critical multimedia expos about the factors subverting the political will to act in the best interest of the poor even when explicit just cause exists for such altruistic action to take place Blood Bullets and Bodies is a strange and paradoxical story that needs to be read as much as it needs to be told It is a riveting story of sex violence political intrigue and survival by any means necessary The book is a literary mirror that provides a revealing and frightening reflection for a self destructing society to see itself profiled in the throes of its own possible demise Sure to stir controversy the new book contains a compelling rendition of the historical circumstances that have made crime and violence bullets blood and dead bodies the number one problem in late 20th and early 21st century Jamaica Despite the historic One Love Peace Concert and the Peace Truce in 1978 young gunmen seem to have gone wild ever since Using a variety of sophisticated methodological tools including literary sources oral interviews ethnographic studies and the lyrics of popular Reggae songs Imani Tafari Ama details the influences and implications of this violent social discourse for everyday performances of femininity and masculinity in Kingston's inner city environment as well as in the wider Jamaican society Tafari Ama's stated objective in publishing her thesis as a book is to separate fact from fiction in order to find real and enduring solutions that will reduce the distressing flood of blood bullets and bodies that is overflowing the streets of Kingston She hopes that by highlighting some of the facts and exposing much of the fiction about life below the poverty line her provocative book will be a catalyst in motivating the political and community willpower necessary to find and implement the real time solutions that she proposes in her suggested Options for Development

Inclusive Equality Sally Witcher, 2013-09-27 In an era of ongoing economic failures as governments cut support to the poorest the richest continue to get richer and those in between are squeezed by rising costs and flagging incomes the challenges for social cohesion and for social justice seem overwhelming As inequality increases it can become harder to empathise with life experiences far removed from our own particularly when fuelled by a sense of injustice Our samenesses and our differences can remain unseen unvalued or misunderstood In this ambitious wide ranging book the author sets out a vision for social justice as inclusive equality where barriers to equality and inclusion are removed to the maximum extent possible while preserving and strengthening social cohesion Weaving together themes from the theoretical literatures on social justice poverty discrimination and social exclusion she explores relationships between equality diversity and inclusion a novel approach that reveals clear practical implications for the design and delivery of social policy

Youth Violence Catherine Ward, Andrew Dawes, Amelia van der Merwe, 2012-01-25 Youth violence Sources and solutions in South Africa thoroughly and carefully reviews the evidence for risk and protective factors that influence the likelihood of young people acting aggressively Layers of understanding are built by viewing the problem from a multitude of perspectives including the current situation in which South African youth are growing up perspectives from developmental psychology the influences of race class and gender and of the media The book then reviews the evidence for effective interventions in the contexts of young people's lives their homes their schools their leisure activities with gangs in the criminal justice system in cities and neighbourhoods and with sexual offenders In doing so thoughtful suggestions are made for keeping an evidence based perspective while necessarily adapting interventions for developing world contexts such as South Africa Youth violence in South Africa Sources and solutions is a valuable addition to the library of anyone who has ever wondered about youth violence or wanted to do something about it

Women in Later Life: Exploring Race and Ethnicity Haleh Afshar, Myfanwy Franks, Mary Ann Maynard, Sharon Wray, 2008-05-16 The authors argue that much of the research into later life has neglected ethnic and cultural variation Their aim is to help us to understand what is important in older women's lives across a range of ethnic groups They have certainly achieved this in what is a readable and detailed analysis of their findings Highly recommended Nursing Standard the first book to comprehensively examine the lives of older women from ethnic minorities in the UK as well as non migrant White women The authors draw on extensive qualitative research to provide novel ways of looking at the priorities and concerns of older women providing insights into what enhances their quality of life Mary Maynard and colleagues have written an outstanding book Women in Later Life will be essential reading for students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses on gender ethnicity and later life Sara Arber University of Surrey what is it like to be an older person and particularly an older woman This carefully crafted and wide ranging book seeks to answer this question The book reminds us that age is a social construct one which profoundly disadvantages women For minority ethnic women where this book makes an important contribution to a largely unexplored territory the situation is even more dire The authors have opened up a huge area of policy demonstrating despite the rhetoric of government how badly we treat our elders Professor Gary Craig University of Hull Britain along with other Western and industrialized countries has an ageing population We already live in one of the demographically oldest societies to have ever existed and the population is going to get older By 2020 it is estimated that one third of the population will be aged over 50 Furthermore older women outnumber older men since men tend to die at a younger age than women In the academic mainstream relatively little is known about older women from minority ethnic communities This groundbreaking book is based on interviews and focus groups with women of different backgrounds and ethnicities whose lives illustrate the strength of character and optimism that have often enabled them to live through hard times but who in general view later life positively In seeking to understand the relationships between age gender and ethnicity the authors focus on a number of key themes including Family and networks Health and well being Religion faith and spirituality Income pensions and housing The meaning of identity and life course events Death and dying Women in Later Life will be key reading for students and practitioners with an interest in gender and or issues surrounding later life

Social Mobility In Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 Filippo and Caroline Osella anthropologists who spent three years in rural Kerala south India write about the modern search for upward social mobility the processes involved the ideologies that support or thwart it and what happens to the people involved They focus on the caste called Izhavas a group that in the mid 19th century consisted of a small land owning and titled elite and a large mass of landless and small tenants who were largely illiterate and considered untouchable and who eked out a living by manual labor and petty trade In the 20th century Izhavas pursued mobility in many social arenas both as a newly united caste and as families The work considers how successful the mobility has been and looks at the effects on their society of an ethos of progress
