Flexible Learning In Action:

Flexible Learning in Action Rachel Hudson, Oates Lyn, Sian Maslin-Prothero, 2014-05-12 First Published in 1997 Pressures to find ways of delivering courses to new markets lifelong learners and part time students have all contributed to the growth in finding ways of delivering flexible learning This book provides case studies to illustrate the diversity of approaches and gives advice on good practice The case studies paint a broad picture of flexible learning developments in higher education in the United Kingdom Australia and the United States of America Several trends concerning the introduction of flexible learning have emerged and the contributors examine strategies that have been developed at an institutional or departmental level for supporting flexible learning initiatives Flexible Learning in Action Longman, 1985-11-01 Flexible Learning in Action Derek W. Birch, Great Britain. Further Education Unit, Jack Latcham, 1984-01-01 Learning in Action David A. Garvin, 2003-03-25 Most managers today understand the value of building a learning organization Their goal is to leverage knowledge and make it a key corporate asset yet they remain uncertain about how best to get started What they lack are guidelines and tools that transform abstract theory the learning organization as an ideal into hands on implementation For the first time in Learning in Action David Garvin helps managers make the leap from theory to proven practice Garvin argues that at the heart of organizational learning lies a set of processes that can be designed deployed and led He starts by describing the basic steps in every learning process acquiring interpreting and applying knowledge then examines the critical challenges facing managers at each of these stages and the various ways the challenges can be met Drawing on decades of scholarship and a wealth of examples from a wide range of fields Garvin next introduces three modes of learning intelligence gathering experience and experimentation and shows how each mode is most effectively deployed These approaches are brought to life in complete richly detailed case studies of learning in action at organizations such as Xerox L L Bean the U S Army and GE The book concludes with a discussion of the leadership role that senior executives must play to make learning a day to day reality in their organizations Lifelong Learning in Action John Cribbin, Peter Kennedy, 2002-03-01 Lifelong Learning is now central to the Hong Kong education reform agenda As a recent Education Commission Report put it lifelong learning is the key to Hong Kong's success This book focuses on the post secondary continuing and professional education CPE sector It includes contributions from Hong Kong practitioners in the field as well as from eminent international scholars who are well acquainted with CPE in Hong Kong The book is in three parts The first part traces recent developments in CPE in Hong Kong and offers an up to date account of policy programmes and provision A profile of lifelong learners drawing on recent research findings is also provided In the second part practitioners from a diverse range of subject disciplines offer their perspectives on the issues This part of the book contains a wealth of ideas and examples illustrating the practice of lifelong learning in Hong Kong The third part examines the forces shaping post secondary education in Hong Kong and explores emergent issues Topics discussed include the convergence of higher and continuing education work based learning cross border collaborations with mainland China Hong Kong vocational education and training policy and the legal challenges posed by on line learning Written primarily for academic managers and teachers in the adult and continuing education sector this book will also be of interest to postgraduate students of lifelong learning comparative education researchers CPE policy makers employers and human resources managers It is a timely contribution to the current debate on the future shape of education in Hong Kong The two Editors combined experience in tertiary sector teaching and administration totals 57 years They are now both working in the School of Professional and Continuing Education The University of Hong Kong HKU SPACE John Cribbin is the School Secretary and Registrar a graduate of University College London and Leicester University he has previously worked at King s College London and the UK Open University Peter Kennedy is a Senior Programme Director responsible for programmes in the fields of human resource management and training as well as in English and theatre studies Lifelong Learning in Action Norman Longworth,2003-12-16 Since the concept of lifelong learning came to prominence much excellent work has been undertaken but as Professor Longworth s new book shows major change in some areas is still needed if the concept of learning from cradle to grave is to become a true reality Using his unique vantage point from consulting with schools universities local governmental and global authorities Professor Longworth brings the development of lifelong learning bang up to date with a complete survey of the principles of lifelong learning including examples from around the world and crucial information on the impact of lifelong learning on 21st century schools Enterprise Learning in Action Dale Shuttleworth,2002-11-01 For over a decade the education and employment systems of western industrialized countries have had to adapt to the changes brought about by the post industrial age The recession of the early 1990s has led the education and business communities increasingly to look for ways to co operate in preparing young people and unemployed workers for a new social and economic order Enterprise learning in action draws on case studies in community and enterprise learning from around the world to show how young people and the unemployed can be taught the enterprise skills which will enable them to survive in an uncertain world Dale E Shuttleworth looks in particular at how this can be done outside the formal school system and within the community in ways which are responsive to the particular needs of each locality His message is overall one of great optimism for a future in which those who are at present rejected by the system can become active and valued contributors Enterprise learning in action will appeal to all students and researchers from primary through to adult education and to those in local economic development Blended Learning in Action Catlin R. Tucker,Tiffany Wycoff,Jason T. Green,2016-09-03 Shift to blended learning to transform education Blended learning has the power to reinvent education but the transition requires a new approach to learning and a new skillset for educators Loaded with research and examples Blended Learning in Action demonstrates the advantages a blended model has over traditional instruction when technology is used to engage students both inside the classroom and online Readers will find Breakdowns of the most effective classroom setups for blended learning Tips for leaders Ideas for personalizing and differentiating instruction using technology Strategies for managing devices in schools Questions to facilitate professional development and deeper learning
