Board of Education, 1965      The Spirit of Creativity Gottlieb Guntern, 2012-07-10 The Spirit of Creativity is a systemic study of human creativity It offers a fascinating visual model of the creative process consisting of four major stages stage I the interplay of chaos and order stage II creative production stage III cultural selection stage IV morpho evolution and morpho elimination of created products and forms The author analyzes the seven phases germination inspiration preparation incubation illumination elaboration and evaluation of stage II leading from a vague hunch to a product meeting the criteria of creativity A vast number of examples taken from all continents and various cultures as well as from art technology and science and other fields of human endeavor illustrate how cultural recognition and rejection influence the creative processes of individuals and teams The author demonstrates the tremendous impact of the Mongol Empire the Silk Road and the medieval Muslim golden age on the origin of the European Renaissance      Rabindranath Tagore's Aesthetics Kaushal Kishore Sharma, 1988 Perhaps the most versatile of modern creative artists Indian or Western not excepting T S Eliot and D H Lawrence Tagore doubtless offers us a fairly profound and elaborate aesthetic theory though of course he does not write about art and literature with the deliberate intention of a writer of aesthetics From a systematic close study of his pronouncements and cogitations on art and literature scattered in his variegated writings emerges an aesthetic philosophy which is absolutely invaluable to apprehend and appreciate his creative mind as well as the Indian and Western arts and literatures Much of the finest of the Indian and Western aesthetics has been retouched and modernised by him and to this he has contributed considerably by dint of his original mind Hence the need and justification for a book such as this There is almost a plethora of critical studies on the various aspects of Rabindranath Tagore's mind and art But curiously enough only a little attempt has hitherto been made to assimilate and assess his theory statements on art in detail This paucity of work further necessitates a thorough exploration of this subject The present book is an attempt to meet this need A comprehensive study of Tagore's aesthetics the book it is hoped will surely help the reader to understand Tagore art and literature correctly
