Gaia-Sophia B. C. J. Zoeteman, 1991-01-01

A Thousand Shades of Green Peter Winsemius, Ulrich

Guntram, 2013-06-17 What does it mean for the environment is a strategic corollary of almost any significant business decision today and companies must take seriously their responsibilities to regulators customers employees and the wider society A Thousand Shades of Green is aimed at business leaders in need of a clear understanding of the key corporate environmental challenges and the insight and vision to meet them imperatives such as engaging stakeholders and developing partnerships understanding the policy making process forming corporate responses and drafting environmental management strategies with the promise of genuine competitive advantage for their companies Drawing on their extensive consultancy experience with some of the most progressive companies around the world the authors examine why and how businesses must confront the rapidly developing agenda set by environmental constraints and social and regulatory pressure They identify the corporate environmental challenge with that of change management and advocate a recognition that there is no single strategy or endgame applicable to all companies there are a thousand shades of green Only by pursuing thorough reflective consistent competitive and proactive strategies will businesses be able to avoid being embroiled in costly and complex reactive approaches

Permaculture Craig Gibsons, Jan Martin Bang, 2015-06-22 Permaculture design as divine creative activity Permaculture looks for the patterns embedded in our natural world as inspirations for designing solutions to the many challenges we are presented with today It is a philosophical spiritual and practical approach to the use of the land integrating microclimate functional plants animals soils water management and human needs into intricately connected highly productive systems In essence permaculture uses observation as basis for creating sustainable and effective human settlements The authors discuss the components Earthshare Fairshare and Peoplecare with a specific emphasis on the spiritual aspects of the design process Topics range from soil and plants energy sources and house design to alternative economics group process governance and spiritual nurturing and enquiry Examples of existing permaculture structures from around the world most notably from the Findhorn Community Eco Village bring the concepts to life First hand accounts of how people got started on their permaculture project lend a personal touch The first book to look at the spiritual aspects as well as the practical implementation of permaculture design

Conserving Europe's Natural Heritage: Towards a European Ecological Network Graham Bennett, 1994-11-08 The United Nations Conference on the Environment

Development drew over 100 governments together in Rio de Janeiro 3 14 June 1992 to agree action legal bases for future protection of the environment This book elucidates both the UNCED process the Conference itself by assembling the key documents including the final version of Agenda 21 using them to recount how UNCED began developed finally in Rio came to fruition Each document is preceded by analytical highly informative commentary which renders large sometimes technically complicated material accessible places it in its correct perspective This in turn is amplified by an excellent
