Flo Goes To Canberra:

We'll Show the World Jackie Ryan, 2018-04-26 How did one long and expensive party change a city forever World Expo 88 was the largest longest and loudest of Australia's bicentennial events A shiny 1980s amalgam of cultural precinct shopping mall theme park travelogue and rock concert Expo 88 is commonly credited as the catalyst for Brisbane's coming of age So how did an elaborate and expensive party change a city forever We'll Show the World explores the shifting social and political environment of Expo 88 shaped as much by Queensland's controversial premier Sir Joh Bjelke Petersen as it was by those who reacted against him It shows how something initially greeted with outrage scepticism and indifference came to mean so much to so many how a state better known for eliciting insults enchanted much of the nation and how to Brisbane Expo was personal

It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin, John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989. The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state. The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings. Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur: controversies over state economic development, the provision of government services, industrial disputation and government reactions, electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment, the impost of taxation in the low tax state, encroachments on civil liberties and political protests, the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity, concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption. There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms. On the non-government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous offshoot the QLP, DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord. Media Tarts Julia Baird, 2004 No Marketing Blurb No Job for a Woman Sallyanne Atkinson, 2016-09-28 A true trailblazer for her generation Sallyanne Atkinson was the first female Lord Mayor of Brisbane, the first female senior trade commissioner to Paris and has been a leader in business and corporate life for over four decades. No Job for a Woman takes us from her wartime childhood in Sri Lanka through her early career as a journalist and TV personality into her life in politics. For the first time Sallyanne Atkinson offers a behind-the-scenes look at her dynamic and colourful life including her involvement in three Olympics bids. A trailblazer for working mothers Sallyanne shares the challenges and the triumphs of raising five children while forging a high profile career. With her characteristic warmth and humour she shows how she defied the expectations of a generation. Australian Books in Print, 1982 Australian Book Review, 1981 Index to Australian Book Reviews, 1981 Includes entries supplied by University of Queensland Library Staff Anything Goes at Sea Michael Rudder, 2025-06-28 A unique and humorous memoir with a difference. Anything Goes at Sea is an illuminating and extremely frank memoir exploring gay life aboard British ships from 1969 to 1990, floating gay havens despite the fact that homosexuality was still illegal at sea. This seafaring author was there joining in the fun and games. His candid and heartwarming memoir also chronicles a tender and enduring love story that despite a turbulent beginning spans over 50 years Set primarily at sea join him on a global voyage around the world Australia America the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans and the Mediterranean Sea From ships that were household names to camp paradises and dodgy dives sail into a hidden world through pages packed with vivid anecdotes and untold stories This book offers a rare glimpse into the life of a gay seafarer

The Nationals Paul Davey, 2006 The Nationals tells the story of the NSW National Party from its foundation in 1919 as The Progressive Party to the contemporary era under Andrew Stoner's leadership Paul Davey a former Federal Director and NSW General Secretary writes with an insider's knowledge of the politics policies and personalities that have shaped the modern party His research is comprehensive including unfettered access to party archives Emerging in the wake of World War I The Progressive Party splits after only two years when seven of its 15 members refuse to join a coalition government These dissidents become known as the True Blues and are the founding parliamentary members of the Country and subsequent National Party The party grows into one of the largest political organisations in the country boasting nearly 50 000 financial members in New South Wales in the 1980s It fights off merger proposals and survives despite constant predictions of impending doom as the only party which exclusively represents rural and regional New South Wales The State party is also highly influential in the national context every Federal Leader since John McEwen's retirement in 1971 has come from New South Wales The Nationals is as much about people as policies Davey studied a myriad of documents and interviewed a wide cross section of party figures including all surviving State and Federal leaders The studies and candid comments shed new light on people policies and incidents ranging from Mick Bruxner's and David Drummond's building of inland roads railways and country education facilities to Charles Cutler's fight for State Aid for Independent schools from the repulse of the Joh for Canberra campaign and Pauline Hanson's One Nation to the challenge of Independents from sometimes poisonous relations with the United Australia and Liberal parties to the State's longest serving Coalition Government from relations with the media especially the country press to the role of women and young people in the organisation from the threats posed by changing demographics and electoral redistributions to the push by Doug Anthony to change the name from Country Party to National Country Party and later National Party The Nationals tells the story of a unique organisation a political party that is not factionalised and that despite occasional defections not new in any party remains remarkably stable It has had only nine State and 11 Federal parliamentary leaders in its entire history to date Moreover while at times recording an apparently small share of the vote it consistently returns a forceful block of members to the New South Wales and Commonwealth parliaments and wields some would say disproportionately so a significant influence on Australia's political direction A NSW Sesquicentenary of Responsible Government publication Ninety Not Out Paul Davey, 2010 The Nationals originally the Australian Country Party is the second oldest political party in Australia This is the first comprehensive study of the federal Nationals since 1963 Highlights the political fortunes of an organisation that is often disregarded by the mainstream media Australian News Summary, 1950 Advances in Machine Learning Research and Application: 2012 Edition, 2012-12-26 Advances in Machine Learning Research and Application 2012 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Machine Learning The editors have built Advances in Machine Learning Research and Application 2012 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Machine Learning in this eBook to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Advances in Machine Learning Research and Application 2012 Edition has been produced by the world's leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com> Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988
