Gently With A Dead Steven:

A Shock to the Conscience Tom Mann,2005-11-10 Steve would never have guessed that his name would come up in a conversation in the Oval Office nor was he aware the discussions involved a brutal Cold War standoff He was rattled to the core over images of battle he witnessed in a small Spanish town but relieved to be headed home after a tumultuous semester abroad during his senior year of high school He decided not to tell anyone about his mishaps but still felt bothered by lingering images of dead people with bloody holes in their bodies trucks with lifeless legs sticking out the back He wrote to Katarina the Spanish girl he met and befriended shortly after he returned to Kansas but had a hard time finding the words through a haze of brain damage caused by Soviet poisonings She remembered him too for his nave idealism and bravado She couldn't stand the idea of leaving him to face a desperate fate of political retribution wondering if she dever see him again

Walk Softly on This Heart of Mine Callie Collins, 2025-03-18 Against the vibrant bluesy backdrop of 1970s Austin Texas this electrifying debut charts the scorching chaos of perpetual change It s 1975 in Austin and the Rush Creek Saloon five miles west of town is a bar without a crowd But when a strange new house band takes the stage the hippies roll in and the good ole boys find their way back Told in a trio of voices a guitarist chasing what may be his last shot at success a bar owner trying to see a future in her lifeless marriage and a young kid from East Texas desperate for kinship or at least something to take the damn edge off Walk Softly on This Heart of Mine delivers a riotous love song to an enigmatic city In her heartfelt shimmering rockabilly ode to a place in a permanent state of becoming Callie Collins captures the roughhousing mood and paradoxical longings of the American psyche Just inside the doors of the Rush Creek Saloon the old smacks into the new and the messy desire for a good time at any cost bucks up against the profound need to belong The Gentle Art of Cooking Wives Elizabeth Strong Worthington, 2025-07-23 The Gentle Art of Cooking Wives by Elizabeth Strong Worthington is a brilliantly satirical and insightful sequel to her earlier classic How to Cook Husbands Using the same culinary metaphorical style this work humorously flips the gender script offering tongue in cheek advice to husbands on how to prepare season and serve their wives to maintain a content and peaceful marriage Written in 16 short witty chapters the book functions less as a manual and more as a playful yet piercing commentary on gender dynamics domestic expectations and emotional intelligence in marriage Just like in its predecessor the cooking here refers not to food but to handling relationships with care humor and wisdom The themes include Understanding a woman's temperament and needs The subtle importance of attention kindness and communication The consequences of neglect harsh words or overcontrol A call for balance and emotional reciprocity in the domestic sphere Each chapter presents a different recipe or strategy reminding men that wives like fine dishes require thought patience and appreciation to bring out their best Far from being a guide to manipulation the book instead satirizes male insensitivity and entitlement encouraging empathy and emotional awareness Worthington's style is elegant clever and deeply subversive for its time Behind the humor lies a strong message mutual
