Laex Performances:

New Horizons Shia Woods,2024-10-15 Quinn Collins is ready for her Off Broadway debut With her modeling days behind her and a contract secured for her one woman show at the prestigious Horizon Theater she s eager for a fresh start Alex Anders was born into the world of theater Her father owns one of Manhattan s most distinguished theater companies and Alex has spent her life performing Now the managing director for Horizon Alex is content to be around the stage even if she s not on it As Quinn prepares for her opening night and Alex works to clinch Horizon s coveted executive director position ghosts from Alex s past may jeopardize both their goals Neither of them can afford a romantic distraction but the pull of their attraction is hard to resist Their love story may be the encore performance of Alex s worst fears or the one act that could change their lives forever Keep It Together! Rich Deakin,2012-10-01 This is the remarkable story of London s communal bands of the 1960s and 1970s from the perspective of two of its most crucial exponents Fuelled by amphetamine psychosis the DEVIANTS and PINK FAIRIES were bands of the people gate crashing festivals and playing for free on a flatbed truck and on some days sharing a bill with Led Zeppelin and the Grateful Dead KEEP IT TOGETHER tells of the underground movement that was key in shaping a London that had been swinging but was quickly moving toward more brutish territory It is a tale that includes the Pretty Things Hawkwind MC5 Tyrannosaurus Rex Edgar Broughton Band Mot head and a host of other influential bands and pillled up geezers desperate for a revolution Or at the very least Top of the Pops The Prison of Time Elisa Pezzotta,2022-08-25 We are imprisoned in circadian rhythms as well as in our life reviews that follow chronological and causal links For the majority of us our lives are vectors directed toward aims that we strive to reach and delimited by our birth and death Nevertheless we can still experience fleeting moments during which we forget the past and the future as well as the very flow of time During these intense emotions we burst out laughing or crying or we scream with pleasure or we are mesmerized by a work of art or just by eyes staring at us Similarly when we watch a film the screening time has a well defined beginning and end and screening and diegetic time and their relations together with narrative and stylistic techniques determine a time within the time of our life with its own rules and exceptions Through the close analysis of Stanley Kubrick s Adrian Lyne s Michael Bay s and Quentin Tarantino s oeuvres this book discusses the overall dominating time of their films and the moments during which this ruling time is disrupted and we momentarily forget the run toward the diegetic future suspense or the past curiosity and surprise It is in these very moments as well as in our own lives that the prison of time through which the film is constructed and that is constructed by the film itself crumbles displaying our role as spectators our deepest relations with the film Music, Sound and Filmmakers James Eugene Wierzbicki,2012 This book is a collection of essays that examine the work of filmmakers whose concern is not just for the eye but also for the ear Copernicus Avenue Andrew J. Borkowski,2011-02-15 You will never know what really happened to Lech or any of us We mean nothing by it darling It is a silent agreement we all have with ourselves that nothing will ever make us prisoners again not even memory Set primarily in the neighbourhood of fictional Copernicus Avenue Andrew Borkowski's debut collection of short stories is a daring modern take on life in Toronto's Polish community in the years following World War II Featuring a cast of young and old artists and soldiers visionaries and madmen the forgotten and the unforgettable Copernicus Avenue captures with bold and striking prose the spirit of a people who have travelled to a new land not to escape old grudges and atrocities but to conquer them

Not Another Love Song Julie Soto, 2024-07-16 Two string players fight their attraction for each other as they compete for center stage in this spicy and emotional romance from USA Today bestselling author Julie Soto When professional and self taught violinist Gwen Jackson plays she disappears into the peaks and valleys of each song a quiet passion that never quite explodes into pure emotion Xander Thorne is the exact opposite A cellist and a rock star he's all about big emotion but not even his six foot four frame can contain his skill his genius and an attitude that borders on jerkitude Not only did it take Xander a year to notice that he and Gwen both play in the Manhattan Pops but he also always seems to have the perfect cutting criticism about her technique When Gwen is offered the role of first chair of the orchestra something Xander has secretly coveted for years their existing hostility goes up a notch Yet despite her best efforts Gwen can't ignore the sizzling chemistry between them Forced to work more closely with each other they can't help exploring their attraction As they begin to compose and play songs together it's clear that their powerful connection could make for a performance that would blow everyone's minds Suddenly they're box office dynamite and the fragile romance growing between them is in danger of being crushed beneath a publicity stunt

Animal Bodies, Human Minds: Ape, Dolphin, and Parrot Language Skills W.A. Hillix, Duane Rumbaugh, 2013-04-17 Several books chronicle attempts most of them during the last 40 years to teach animals to communicate with people in a human designed language These books have typically treated only one or two species or even one or a few research projects We have provided a more encompassing view of this field We also want to reinforce what other authors for example Jane Goodall Sue Savage Rumbaugh Penny Patterson Birute Galdikas and Roger and Deborah Fouts so passionately convey about our responsibility for our closest animal kin This book surveys what was known or believed about animal language throughout history and prehistory and summarizes current knowledge and the controversy around it The authors identify and attempt to settle most of the problems in interpreting the animal behaviours that have been observed in studies of animal language ability

Reading the Material Theatre Richard Paul Knowles, 2004-05-13 Reading the Material Theatre develops and demonstrates a method of theatrical performance analysis that takes into account the entire theatre experience from production to reception Beginning with semiotic and cultural materialist theory Knowles quickly moves into detailed politicized analysis of the ways in which specific aspects of theatrical production and specific contexts of reception shape the audience's understanding of what they experience in the theatre It concludes with five case studies of the cultural work performed by a major Shakespearean repertory theatre a small nationalist theatre devoted to new play development a major New York based avant garde touring theatre company a British socialist company dedicated to the work of Shakespeare and a range of international festivals This accessible 2004 volume provides a first step introduction to key terms and areas of performance theory including reception history performance analysis and production analysis

Still Life Fernando Domínguez Rubio, 2020-08-19 How do you keep the cracks in Starry Night from spreading How do you prevent artworks made of hugs or candies from disappearing How do you render a fading photograph eternal or should you attempt it at all These are some of the questions that conservators curators registrars and exhibition designers dealing with contemporary art face on a daily basis In Still Life Fernando Domínguez Rubio delves into one of the most important museums of the world the Museum of Modern Art MoMA in New York to explore the day to day dilemmas that museum workers face when the immortal artworks that we see in the exhibition room reveal themselves to be slowly unfolding disasters Still Life offers a fascinating and detailed ethnographic account of what it takes to prevent these disasters from happening Going behind the scenes at MoMA Dom nguez Rubio provides a rare view of the vast technological apparatus from climatic infrastructures and storage facilities to conservation labs and machine rooms and teams of workers from conservators and engineers to guards and couriers who fight to hold artworks still As MoMA reopens after a massive expansion and rearranging of its space and collections Still Life not only offers a much needed account of the spaces actors and forms of labor traditionally left out of the main narratives of art but it also offers a timely meditation on how far we as a society are willing to go to keep the things we value from disappearing into oblivion

Thrombosis and Haemostasis ,1994-07 Paris Blues Andy Fry,2014-07-04 The Jazz Age The phrase conjures images of Louis Armstrong holding court at the Sunset Cafe in Chicago Duke Ellington dazzling crowds at the Cotton Club in Harlem and star singers like Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey But the Jazz Age was every bit as much of a Paris phenomenon as it was a Chicago and New York scene In Paris Blues Andy Fry provides an alternative history of African American music and musicians in France one that looks beyond familiar personalities and well rehearsed stories He pinpoints key issues of race and nation in France s complicated jazz history from the 1920s through the 1950s While he deals with many of the traditional icons such as Josephine Baker Django Reinhardt and Sidney Bechet among others what he asks is how they came to be so iconic and what their stories hide as well as what they preserve Fry focuses throughout on early jazz and swing but includes its re creation reinvention in the 1950s Along the way he pays tribute to forgotten traditions such as black musical theater white show bands and French wartime swing Paris Blues provides a nuanced account of the French reception of African Americans and their music and contributes greatly to a growing literature on jazz race and nation in France
