Lailas Wedding Multicultural Celebrations:

Happy Birthday, Dr. King! Kathryn D. Jones, 1994 Jamal learns about civil rights and has an idea for the class to help celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday Writing the Multicultural Experience Pauline Kaldas, 2022-08-30 This textbook takes a new approach to teaching creative writing that centers the concerns of multicultural students. It focuses on the experiences of those who wish to write through their diverse identities including ethnic, cultural, racial, national, regional, and international identity, as well as gender identity, sexual preference, class position, and disability. Combining the study of culturally diverse literature with the process of writing, students are encouraged to engage with various texts and to use them to inspire their own work. Organized around a series of writing prompts and discussions of literary readings that address identity, place, perception, family, community, encounters, inheritance, and resistance, this book offers both writers and teachers a way to engage with the practice of writing from a multicultural perspective. El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005

Laila's Wedding Kaleel Sakakeeny, 1993-04-01 Amal is excited by the happenings surrounding the traditional Syrian American wedding of her sister Laila. Mobile Identities Kamal Sbiri, Jopi Nyman, Rachida Yassine, 2020-11-18 Mobility has become one of the most exciting factors shaping our transnational and transcultural world today. However, the variety of approaches and stimulating debates it has engendered in geopolitics and sociology make it challenging for literary and cultural critics to establish solid approaches and own vocabularies. Through a variety of case studies written by international contributors, this volume addresses emerging topics by using the tools of border studies, postcolonial discourse, and globalization theory. The multiple perspectives provided here emphasize the interaction between migrants and hosts as material, discursive, and historical. The chapters in this volume view identities as mobile and in constant flux, constructed and reconstructed repeatedly in historical and cultural encounters with several others. As a result of this dynamic, established stereotypes and images are challenged and revised in the analyses here. The book concludes that cultural identities are increasingly visible as results of large-scale global mobility. In so doing, it challenges views that address ethnicity as an unambiguous category and reveals that the making of such identities is contradictory and even conflicting. Remembering Jews in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern Media Brahim El Guabli, Mostafa Hussein, 2024-08-19 This volume examines the cultural legacy of Jewish emigration from the Maghreb and the Middle East in the years following 1948. Drawing on the remarkable cinematic and literary output of the last twenty years, this collection posits loss as a new conceptual framework in which to understand Jewish-Muslim relations. Previous studies of Jewish emigration have followed the mass departure of Jews, but the contributors to this book choose to remain behind and trace the contours of Jewish absence in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern societies. Attuned to loss in this way, the cultural memories of Jewish-Muslim life transcend the narratives of turmoil, taboo, and nostalgia that have dominated Muslim and prevalent scholarly perspectives on Jewish emigration. Read as a whole, the collection affords an uncommon opportunity to mourn and heal through a nuanced reckoning with the absence of Jews.

from communities in which they had lived for millennia Its wide geographic reach and interdisciplinary nature will speak both to scholars and lay readers in Amazigh studies Arabic studies Middle Eastern studies Jewish studies memory studies and a host of other disciplines In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume are Iskandar Ahmad Abdalla Abdelkader Aoudjit lker Hepkaner Sarah Irving Stephanie Kraver Lital Levy Nadia Sabri and Lior B Sternfeld The Myths That Made America Heike Paul,2014-08-15 This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today These myths include the myth of discovery the Pocahontas myth the myth of the Promised Land the myth of the Founding Fathers the melting pot myth the myth of the West and the myth of the self made man The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture literature memorial culture school books and every day life Including visual material as well as study questions this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building

A Critical Study of the Novels Dr. Roshan Benjamin Khan,2016-03-23 This is a comparative study of the unaccredited yet formidable five major Indian Muslim women novelists Rokeya Sakhawat Hossian Zeenuth Futehally Iqbalunnisa Hussain Tara Ali Baig and Attia Hossian The book explores their work with regard to themes like patriarchy feminism religiosity nationality secularity and above all liberty Their contribution to the growth of novel writing in English cannot go ignored as they created a momentum in writing novel using English language as a medium of combined feminist statements with a message to liberate Muslim women from religious conventions social taboos and a male dominated world The study of their novels also makes us aware of the grit and determination and the sheer hunger of these writers to make their mark to speak out unequivocally against prejudice basically to enlighten us how their personalities were shaped and eventually established Their sensitivities as women give an edge to the entire narrative as does their unprecedented and undaunted dare to the oppressors In the great tradition of modern and postmodern fiction our writers use their pen to stand up against inequality of any kind and to undo the stereotypes leading themselves by example

Reaction and Resistance Dorothy E. Chunn,Susan Boyd,Hester Lessard,2011-11-01 In this timely volume contributors from various disciplines analyze reaction and resistance to feminism in several areas of law and policy child custody child poverty sexual harassment and sexual assault and in a number of institutional sites such as courts legislatures families the mainstream media and the academy Collectively their studies paint a complicated often contradictory picture of feminism law and social change offering feminists and activists empirically grounded knowledge to develop legal and political strategies for change
