Colonial Land Policies in Palestine 1917-1936 Martin

Bunton,2007-04-05 In this book Martin Bunton focuses on the way in which the Palestine Mandate was part of a broader British imperial administration a fact often masked by Jewish immigration and land purchase in Palestine His meticulous research reveals clear links to colonial practice in India Sudan and Cyprus amongst other places He argues that land officials views on sound land management were derived from their own experiences of rural England and that this was far more influential on the shaping of land policies than the promise of a Jewish National Home Bunton reveals how the British were intent on preserving the status quo of Ottoman land law which when few Britons could read Ottoman or were well grounded in its legal codes led to a series of translations interpretations and hence new applications of land law The sense of importance the British attributed to their work surveying and registering properties and transactions is captured in the efforts of British officials to microfilm all of their records at the height of the Second World War Despite this however land policies remained in flux Land Ownership Annie Murray Hannay,1953 Our Fund ,1929 Land Law and Policy in Israel Haim Sandberg,2022-07-05 As one of the smallest and most densely populated countries in the world the State of Israel faces serious land policy challenges and has a national identity laced with enormous internal contradictions In Land Law and Policy in Israel Haim Sandberg contends that if you really want to know the identity of a state learn its land law and land policies Sandberg argues that Israel s identity can best be understood by deciphering the code that lies in the Hebrew secret of Israeli dry land law According to Sandberg by examining the complex facets of property law and land policy one finds a unique prism for comprehending Israel s most pronounced identity problems Land Law and Policy in Israel explores how Israel s modern land system tries to bridge the gaps between past heritage and present needs nationalization and privatization bureaucracy and innovation Jewish majority and non Jewish minority legislative creativity and judicial activism The regulation of property and the determination of land usage have been the consequences of explicit choices made in the context of competing and evolving concepts of national identity Land Law and Policy in Israel will prove to be a must read not only for anyone interested in Israel but also for anyone who wants to understand the importance of land law in a nation s life

Emptied Lands

Alexandre Kedar,Ahmad Amara,Oren Yiftachel,2018-02-27 Emptied Lands investigates the protracted legal planning and territorial conflict between the settler Israeli state and indigenous Bedouin citizens over traditional lands in southern Israel Palestine The authors place this dispute in historical legal geographical and international comparative perspectives providing the first legal geographic analysis of the dead Negev doctrine used by Israel to dispossess and forcefully displace Bedouin inhabitants in order to Judaize the region The authors reveal that through manipulative use of Ottoman British and Israeli laws the state has constructed its own version of terra nullius Yet the indigenous property and settlement system still functions creating an ongoing resistance to the Jewish state Empty Lands critically examines several key land claims court rulings planning policies and development strategies offering alternative local regional and international routes for justice

Land, Labor and the Origins of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, 1882-1914 Gershon Shafir, 1996-08-19 A groundbreaking analysis of the dynamics of Jewish Arab relations Roger Owen author of The Middle East in the World Economy 1800-1914 Very rarely does a scholar set out to do or accomplish as much as has Gershon Shafir in this splendid book about the origins of the Yishuv Ian Lustick President of the Israel Studies Association The Nation, 1920

Indigenous Land Rights in Israel Morad Elsana, 2020-11-29 Introducing the Negev Bedouin land issue from the international indigenous land rights perspective this comparative study suggests options for the recognition of their land The book demonstrates that the Bedouin land dispossession like many indigenous peoples progressed through several phases that included eviction and displacement legislation and judicial decisions that support acts of dispossession and deny the Bedouin's traditional land rights Examining the Mawat legal doctrine on which the State and the Court rely on to deny Bedouin land rights this volume introduces the relevant international law protecting indigenous land rights and shows how the limitations of this law prevent any meaningful protection of Bedouin land rights In the second part of the work the Aborigines land in Australia is introduced as an example of indigenous peoples successful struggle for their traditional land rights The final chapter analyzes the basic elements of judicial recognition of the land and shows that the basic elements needed for Bedouin land recognition exist in the Israeli legal system Proposing practical recommendations for the recognition of Bedouin land this volume is a key resource to scholars and students interested in land rights international law comparative studies and the Middle East Land Rights, Ethno-nationality and Sovereignty in History Stanley Engerman, Jacob Metzger, 2004-08-02

The complex relationships between ethno nationality rights to land and territorial sovereignty have long fed disputes over territorial control and landed rights between different nations ethnicities and religions These disputes raise a number of interesting issues related to the nature of land regimes and to their economic and political implications The studies drawn together in this key volume explore these and related issues for a broad variety of countries and times They illuminate the diverse causes of ethno national land disputes and the different forms of adjustment and accommodation to the power differences between the contesting groups This is done within a framework outlined by the editors in their analytical overview which offers contours for comparative examinations of such disputes past and present Providing conceptual and factual analyses of comparative nature and wealth of empirical material both historical and contemporary this book will appeal to economic historians economists political scientists sociologists anthropologists and all scholars interested in issues concerning ethno nationality and land rights in historical perspective State, Society, and Land in Jordan Michael R. Fischbach, 2000 Publisher Fact Sheet Discusses the social reaction to these policies the different conceptualizations of land held by state society notes these policies ultimate political significance Handling, Transportation, Storage, and Marketing of Peaches Mark Hughlin Haller,1952 Bibliographical Bulletin ,1953 The Maccabæan ,1915 Land Policy in Palestine Abraham Granovsky,1976 The Palestinian Peasant Economy Under the Mandate Amos Nadan,2006 Challenging the claim that Palestine s peasant economy progressed during the 1920s and 1930s Amos Nadan skillfully integrates a wide variety of sources to demonstrate that the period was actually one of deterioration on both the macro per capita and micro levels The economy would have most likely continued its downward spiral during the 1940s had it not been for the temporary prosperity that resulted from World War II Nadan argues that this deterioration continued despite the British authorities channeling of funds from the Jewish sector and the wealthier Arab sectors into projects for the Arab rural economy The British were hoping that Palestine s peasants would not rebel if their economic conditions improved These programs were on the whole defective because the British chose programs based on an assumption that the peasants were too ignorant to manage their farms wisely instead of working with the peasants and their own institutions Handling, Transportation, Storage, and Marketing of Peaches Lewis Paul McCann,Mark Hughlin Haller,William Adams Dayton,1952
