Rethinking the Meaning of Place Lineu Castello, 2016-03-23 The spread of newly invented places such as theme parks shopping malls and revamped historic areas necessitates a redefinition of the concept of place from an architectural perspective In this interdisciplinary work these invented places are categorized according to the different phenomenological experiences they are able to provide The book explores how such cloning spaces use placemaking and placemarketing in attempt to replicate the characteristics found in urban spaces traditionally viewed as successful and how these places can affect society's environmental perception A range of international empirical studies illustrates how such invented places can be perceived as legitimate urban spaces and contribute towards the quality of life in today's cities Jørn Utzon and Transcultural Essentialism Adrian Carter, Marja Sarvimäki, 2021-11-04 This book introduces and defines the burgeoning concepts of transculturalism and essentialism and how they relate to one another as articulated with reference to the work of Jørn Utzon It introduces critical contemporary perspectives of the design thinking and career of this renowned Danish architect internationally recognised for his competition winning iconic design for the Sydney Opera House an outstanding exemplar of transcultural essentialism in architecture Transcultural essentialism is analysed through the lens of critical regionalism and architectural phenomenology with emphasis on the sense of place and tectonics in Utzon's architectural works It provides a new understanding of the Danish architect as an early proponent of a still emergent and increasingly relevant direction in architecture Going beyond biographical studies it presents a more comprehensive understanding of the broad range of transcultural influences that formed his thinking The volume includes numerous previously unpublished photographs drawings and interviews with Utzon's family members former students and colleagues offering a significant contribution to the existing body of knowledge for any architecture scholar interested in Utzon's work and design principles The book also comprises a Foreword by eminent architecture theorist Juhani Pallasmaa in which he provides insights into the wider architectural and cultural context of Utzon's worldview Following Norberg-Schulz Anna Ulrikke Andersen, 2021-12-16 This book examines the window in the life and work of the seminal architectural thinker Christian Norberg Schulz 1926 2000 It draws new attention to his architectural designs and re-examines his acclaimed theoretical work on the phenomenology of architecture and place within the context of a biography of his life linking him with other historical figures such as Helen Keller and Rainer Maria Rilke and framing him within the modernist tradition of the latter Taking a novel experimental approach the book also explores the potential of the essay film as an innovative new approach to producing architectural history Bridging archival research and artistic exploration its ten chapters written by an architectural historian who is also a film maker are each accompanied by a short documentary film hosted online and linked from within the chapter which use the medium of film to creatively explore and delve deeper into little known aspects of Norberg Schulz's theory of genius loci and the phenomenology of architecture The book questions what it means to follow those who came before exploring the positionality of the architectural historian filmmaker Offering an insightful account of the life work and theory of a key thinker Following Norberg Schulz is also essential reading for those interested in practice led research methodologies particularly in the practice of film making and the essay film providing a highly innovative example of scholarly research which bridges the text film gap

Modernism and the Spirit of the City Iain Boyd

Whyte, 2013-01-11 Modernism and the Spirit of the City offers a new reading of the architectural modernism that emerged and flourished in Europe in the first half of the twentieth century Rejecting the fashionable postmodernist arguments of the 1980s and 90s which damned modernist architecture as banal and monotonous this collection of essays by eminent scholars investigates the complex cultural social and religious imperatives that lay below the smooth white surfaces of new architecture

Lived Topographies and Their Mediational Forces Gary Backhaus, John Murungi, 2005-01-01

This collection explores the various forms of narrative semiotic and technological mediation that shape the experience of place From the East End of London to Navajo lands to Ground Zero Lived Topographies examines the great effect of language mass media surveillance and other incursions of the contemporary world on topographical experience and description Gary Backhaus and John Murungi have assembled a wide array of scholars to provide an interdisciplinary approach to this subject giving this collection a unique perspective on the phenomenology of place BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Archispeak Tom Porter, 2004-08-02

Widely used in architectural circles in the heat of discussion the recurrent use of particular words and terms has evolved into a language of design jargon Commonly found in architectural literature and journalism in critical design debate and especially in student project reviews Archispeak can seem insular and perplexing to others and particularly to the new architectural student often incomprehensible There is a need to translate architectural design concepts into spoken and written commentary each word in use embodying a precise and universally accepted architectural meaning If we explore the vocabulary of this language we gain insight into good design practice and into collective understanding of what constitutes a refined architecture This unique illustrated guide will help students understand the nuances of this specialized language and help them in communicating their own design ideas

Raw: Architectural Engagements with Nature Solveig Bøe, Hege Charlotte

Faber, 2016-04-08 Through cross disciplinary explorations of and engagements with nature as a forming part of architecture this volume sheds light on the concepts of both nature and architecture Nature is examined in a raw intermediary state where it is noticeable as nature despite but at the same time through man's effort at creating form This is done by approaching nature from the perspective of architecture understood not only as concrete buildings but as a fundamental human way both of being in and relating to the world Man finds and forms places where life may take place Consequently architecture may be understood as ranging from the simple mark on the ground and primitive enclosure to the contemporary megalopolis Nature inheres in many aesthetic forms of expression In architecture however nature emerges with a particular power and clarity which makes architecture a raw kind of art Even though other forms of art as well as aesthetic phenomena outside the arts are addressed the analogy to architecture will be evident and important Thus by using the concept of raw as a focal point this book provides new approaches to architecture in a broad sense as well as other aesthetic and artistic practices and will be of interest to readers from different fields of the arts and humanities spanning from philosophy and theology to history of art architecture and music The Sound of Architecture Angeliki Sioli, Elisavet

Kiourtsoglou, 2022-05-18 How sound and its atmospheres transform architecture Acoustic atmospheres can be fleeting elusive or short lived Sometimes they are constant but more often they change from one moment to the next forming distinct impressions each time we visit certain places Stable or dynamic acoustic atmospheres have a powerful effect on our spatial experience sometimes even more so than architecture itself This book explores the acoustic atmospheres of diverse architectural environments in terms of scale program location or historic period providing an overview of how acoustic atmospheres are created perceived experienced and visualized The contributors explore how sound and its atmospheres transform architecture and space Their essays demonstrate that sound is a tangible element in the design and staging of atmospheres and that it should become a central part of the spatial explorations of architects designers and urban planners The Sound of Architecture will be of interest to architectural historians theorists students and practicing architects who will discover how acoustic atmospheres can be created without complex and specialized engineering It will also be of value to scholars working in the field of history of emotions as it offers evocative descriptions of acoustic atmospheres from diverse cultures and time periods Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda

Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa

Introducing Architectural Theory Korydon Smith, Miguel Guitart, 2013-05-20 This is the most accessible architectural theory book that exists Korydon Smith presents each common architectural subject such as tectonics use and site as though it were a conversation across history between theorists by providing you with the original text a reflective text and a philosophical text He also introduces each chapter by highlighting key ideas and asking you a set of reflective questions so that you can hone your own theory which is essential to both your success in the studio and your adaptability in the profession These primary source texts which are central to your understanding of the discipline were written by such architects as Le Corbusier Robert Venturi and Adrian Forty The appendices also have guides to aid your reading comprehension to help you write descriptively analytically and disputationally and to show you citation styles and how to do library based research More than any other architectural theory book about the great thinkers Introducing Architectural Theory teaches you to think as well

Governance Reform in Africa Jerome Bachelard, 2013-07-24 Poor governance is increasingly recognized as the greatest impediment to economic development in Sub Saharan Africa Currently some impressive governance reforms are underway in many countries This includes cases such as Nigeria formerly the most corrupt country in the world according to Transparency International Yet other countries such as Chad are still in reform deadlock To account for these differences this book examines governance reform in Sub Saharan Africa based on an analysis of international and domestic pressures and counter pressures It develops a four phase model explaining why governance reforms advance in some instances whilst in others governance reforms stagnate or even relapse No study has sought to systematically examine the political forces both international and domestic behind the successful conduct of governance reform in Sub Saharan Africa Yet coordination collaboration and mutual support between international and domestic actors is critical to push individual governments onto the path of reform This book shows that while international and domestic pro reform pressures are important an analysis of anti reform pressures is also necessary to explain incomplete or failed reform The main theoretical arguments are structured around four hypotheses The hypotheses are theoretically generated and tested over four case studies Madagascar Kenya Nigeria and Chad On this basis the good governance socialization process is inductively developed in the concluding chapter This model illustrates how governance practices can evolve positively and negatively in all countries of Sub Saharan Africa based on the nature and relative strength of international and domestic pressures and counter pressures

Pluralistic Approaches to Art Criticism Douglas Emerson Blandy, Kristin G. Congdon, 1991 Contributors to this anthology analyze the contemporary academic methods for critiquing art and suggest new ways that might further our understandings of art created by myriad individuals and groups The essays give readers further insight into a diverse range of artistic creators often overlooked in art world studies

Architecture in Abjection Zuzana Kovar, 2017-11-30 This book marks a turning point in architectural theory by using philosophy to examine the field anew Breaking from the traditional dualism within architecture which presents the body as subject and space as object it examines how such rigid boundaries can be softened Zuzana Kovar thus engages with complementary and complex ideas from architecture philosophy feminist theory and other subjects demonstrating how both bodies and bodily functions relate deeply to architecture Extending philosopher Julia Kristeva's notion of abjection the confrontation of one's own corporeality as something is excreted Kovar finds parallels in the concept of the scaffold Much like living bodies and their products can impact on the buildings that house them old skin cells create dust menstrual blood stains our breath heats and cools surfaces scaffolding is similarly ephemeral and yet not entirely separable from the architecture it supports Kovar shifts the conversation about abjection towards a more nuanced idea of architecture where living organisms building matter space decay and waste are all considered as part of a continual process drawing on the key informing works of thinkers like Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari to do this Including a number of experimental projects conducted in the spaces inhabited by the author herself to illuminate the theory at its core the book forms a distinguished and pioneering study designed for practitioners and scholars of architecture philosophy and visual culture alike

The Role of Place Identity in the Perception, Understanding, and Design of Built Environments Hernan Casakin, Fátima Bernardo, 2012 In an era of globalization where the progressive deterioration of local values is a dominating characteristic identity is seen as a fundamental need that encompasses all aspects of human life One of these identities relates to place and the physical en

The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda Colleen Kennedy-Karpal, Feride Çiçekoglu, 2022-03-24 Drawing especially on the encounters and relationships that defined her exceptional career The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda outlines a sustainable legacy for the celebrated director and visual artist Over nine chapters it unpacks how creation connection and environment form the core of Varda's artistry which centers foremost on relationships with her family with other artists even with passersby she would meet in her travels around the world Also celebrating her feminist legacy the chapters cover a wide range from the classic Cléo from 1955 to 1962 to documentaries The Beaches of Agnès 2008 and Faces Places 2017 as well as selected art installations The book's final section is dedicated to teaching Varda's work here ten scholars from around the world consider how Varda's art and feminist pedagogies offer unique ways to bring crucial concepts into the classroom By seeking a sustainable praxis to discuss and teach Varda's work and by making pedagogical concerns an explicit part of this approach this book argues that Varda's insights about the nature of creative work will inspire new generations of viewers and audiences

The Contradictions of Urban Art Ewa Rewers, 2013 This book examines the dynamics of artistic creativity that transgresses the boundaries of public art and it looks into the inventions expressed by the practical activities and academic research focused on contemporary urban spaces The Contradictions of Urban Art demonstrates how the multilingualism of art and science raises the temperature of discussions concerning the city It advises that what we call city art should include outdoor events prose and poetry Series Development in Humanities Vol 5
