American Ethnic Practices in the Twenty-first Century Jill Florence Lackey, 2013-07-18 American Ethnic Practices in the Early Twenty first Century The Milwaukee Study is a work based on a twelve year research project conducted in the greater Milwaukee area by Urban Anthropology Inc The qualitative study examined the current strength of ethnicity and the contributions that ethnic practices have made to the wider society Since Barth 1970 social scientists especially sociocultural anthropologists have moved toward deconstructing ethnicity by concentrating on the malleability of ethnic identity This work takes a new approach by focusing on ethnic practices The most prominent findings in The Milwaukee Study were the ways that community building activities of ethnic groups contributed to the wider society and how this in turn can help restore a needed balance between individualism and collectivism in the United States Since the first edition of Habits of the Heart Bellah et al 1985 public discourse about ways to restore this balance has been ubiquitous Most discussions have focused only on strengthening families faith communities or neighborhoods and have ignored the activity and potential of ethnic groups even though it was during this span of time that interest in multiculturalism in education and politics reached its peak

Urban Housing Segregation of Minorities in Western Europe and the United States Elizabeth D. Huttman, Wim Blauw, Juliet Saltman, 1991 This book provides an expert examination and comparison of housing segregation in major population centers in the United States and Western Europe and analyzes successes and failures of government policies and desegregation programs in the United States the United Kingdom the Netherlands Sweden France and West Germany The collection begins with a review of the historical development of housing segregation in these countries describing current housing conditions concentration of housing in each country s leading cities minority populations and the housing they occupy specifically public nonprofit and owner occupied dwellings When focusing on the United States the contributors assess housing segregation antisegregation measures and institutional racism toward blacks in the Midwest and South and toward Mexican Americans throughout American cities Chapters dealing with Western Europe include housing segregation of South Asian and West Indian immigrants in Britain immigrants in Sweden Turkish and Yugoslav guest workers in West Germany and Algerian and other Arab groups in France The book concludes with discussions of public housing policies suburban desegregation resegregation and integration maintenance programs specific integration stabilization programs and desegregation efforts in one specific place Contributors Elizabeth Huttman Michal Arend Cihan Arin Maurice Blanc Wim Blauw Ger Mik Clyde McDaniels J rgen Friedrichs Hannes Alpheis John M Goering Len Gordon Albert Mayer Rosemary Helper Barry V Johnston Terry Jones Valerie Karn G ran Lindberg Anna Lisa Lind n Deborah Phillips Dennis Keating Juliet Saltman Alan Murie Shared Space: Divided Space Michael Chisholm, David M. Smith, 2016-01-29 This specially commissioned volume of original essays first published in 1990 provides a unique view of conflict territorial behaviour and reconciliation between groups social racial religious and nationalist within states in both the developed and the developing worlds The volume as a whole shows the wide range of geographical solutions which have been adopted in attempts to limit conflict and foster stability This title underlines the importance of a geographical perspective on intergroup conflict and reconciliation and provides a broad range of real world experience in carefully chosen case studies Shared Space Divided Space will be of interest students of the social sciences as well as to general readers who will find this title to be accessible and authoritative Alternative Capitalisms: Geographies of Emerging Regions Robert Gwynne, Denis Shaw, Thomas Klak, 2014-05-12 This book aims to examine the effects of globalization and economic and political transformations in those parts of the world which are now regularly referred to as emerging regions These are Latin America and the Caribbean East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union and East Asia This book breaks new ground in three areas First of all it develops a critique of the use of the term emerging regions for geographers and social scientists and relates this to world systems theory Secondly it explores the development trajectories and challenges of countries in this so called emerging world countries that will be crucial to the evolution of the world economy in the twenty first century Thirdly it compares and contrasts the pathways of both economic and political change in the three world regions under focus This is a unique approach in terms of books published in both geography and the social sciences Within the context of the three world regions the book combines historical and contemporary analysis of the evolving world system In these regions we are concerned to understand the historical expansion and extension of capitalism and how its contemporary forms of production exchange and regulation are evolving The authors believe that at the present time these processes have produced alternative capitalisms economic and associated developments which while assuredly capitalist differ in various ways from those typical of the capitalist West or core economies of North America and Western Europe The British on The Costa Del Sol Karen O'Reilly, 2013-08-06 Brits in Spain first achieved notoriety during the 1980s popularly imagined as a group made up of exiled criminals drunken hooligans and leathery looking pensioners welcome to Little England The British on the Costa Del Sol is the very first book to study this British expatriate community in any great depth and through use of interviews with members of this community paints a far more complex picture of its members In doing so the author explodes the popularly held stereotype of Brits in Spain What emerges is a rich account of who migrates their reasons for migration and the day to day realities of expatriate life Spatialized Islamophobia

Kawtar Najib,2021-11-17 This book demonstrates the spatialized and multi scalar nature of Islamophobia It provides ground breaking insights in recognising the importance of space in the formation of anti Muslim racism Through the exploration of complementary data both from existing quantitative databases and directly from victims of Islamophobia applied in two important European capitals Paris and London this book brings new materials to research on Islamophobia and argues that Islamophobia is also a spatialized process that occurs at various interrelated spatial scales globe nation urban neighbourhood and body and mind In so doing this book establishes and advances the new concept of Spatialized Islamophobia by exploring global national urban infra urban embodied and emotional Islamophobias as well as their complex interrelationships It also offer a critical discussion of the geographies of Islamophobia by pointing out the lack of geographical approaches to Islamophobia Studies By using self reflexivity the author raises important questions that may have hampered the study of Spatialized Islamophobia focusing in particular on the favoured methodologies which too often remain qualitative as well as on the whiteness of the discipline of Geography which can disrupt the legitimacy of a certain knowledge The book will be an important reference for those in the fields of Human Geography Sociology Politics Racial Studies Religious Studies and Muslim studies Ethnoburb

Wei Li,2008-12-09 Winner of the 2009 Book Award in Social Sciences Association for Asian American Studies This innovative work provides a new model for the analysis of ethnic and racial settlement patterns in the United States and Canada Ethnoburbs suburban ethnic clusters of residential areas and business districts in large metropolitan areas are multiracial multiethnic multicultural multilingual and often multinational communities in which one ethnic minority group has a significant concentration but does not necessarily constitute a majority Wei Li documents the processes that have evolved with the spatial transformation of the Chinese American community of Los Angeles and that have converted the San Gabriel Valley into ethnoburbs in the latter half of the twentieth century and she examines the opportunities and challenges that occurred as a result of these changes Traditional ethnic and immigrant settlements customarily take the form of either ghettos or enclaves Thus the majority of scholarly publications and mass media covering the San Gabriel Valley has described it as a Chinatown located in Los Angeles suburbs Li offers a completely different approach to understanding and analyzing this fascinating place By conducting interviews with residents a comparative spatial examination of census data and other statistical sources and fieldwork coupled with her own holistic view of the area Li gives readers an effective and fine tuned socio spatial analysis of the evolution of a new type of racially defined place The San Gabriel Valley tells a unique story but its evolution also speaks to those experiencing a similar type of ethnic and racial conurbation In sum Li sheds light on processes that are shaping other present and future ethnically and racially diverse communities The concept of the ethnoburb has redefined the way geographers and other scholars think about ethnic space place and process This book will contribute significantly to both theoretical and empirical studies of immigration by presenting a more intensive and thorough take on arguments about spatial and social processes in urban and suburban America

Demography, State and Society Enda Delaney, 2000-11-21 Enda Delaney argues that migration to Britain was qualitatively different from that to North America and that transience was the overriding characteristic of Irish migrant experience in the twentieth century He provides an analysis of reasons for large scale migration in the process answering the important question of why so many people left Ireland Demography State and Society focuses on a number of vital themes many rarely mentioned in previous studies state policy in Ireland official responses to migration in Britain gender dimensions individual migrant experience patterns of settlement in Britain and the crucial phenomenon of return migration It offers much that will be of interest to scholars students and general readers in Irish migration as well as those in the wider fields of modern British and Irish history and migration studies

Outsiders Inside Bronwen Walter, 2002-05-03 Notions of diaspora are central to contemporary debates about race ethnicity identity and nationalism Yet the Irish diaspora one of the oldest and largest is often excluded on the grounds of whiteness Outsiders Inside explores the themes of displacement and the meanings of home for these women and their descendants Juxtaposing the visibility of Irish women in the United States with their marginalization in Britain Bronwen Walter challenges linear notions of migration and assimilation by demonstrating that two forms of identification can be held simultaneously In an age when the Northern Ireland peace process is rapidly changing global perceptions of Irishness Outsiders Inside moves the empirical study of the Irish diaspora out of the ghetto of Irish Studies and into the mainstream challenging theorists and policy makers to pay attention to the issue of white diversity

Navigating Ethnicity David H. Kaplan, 2017-08-03 This important book provides a novel perspective on ethnicity nationality and race by considering how they are shaped by their geography Exploring the complicated terrain of ethnicity through an expansive global perspective David H Kaplan traces the spatial arrangements that convey such potent meaning to the identity and opportunities of members of any cultural group With examples from around the world the author considers the most important aspects of ethnicity from segregation to place making to multiculturalism culture regions diasporas and transnationalism He frames ethnicity as a contingent phenomenon showing how context and place determine the position definitions behaviors and attitudes toward and by members of an ethnic group Drawing on an impressive depth of historical and empirical detail Kaplan s analysis of the critical role of ethnicity in everyday geographies makes a major contribution to the field

The Contemporary Caribbean Robert B. Potter, David Barker, Thomas Klak, Denis Conway, 2015-07-17 This text focuses on the contemporary economic social geographical environmental and political realities of the Caribbean region Historical aspects of the Caribbean such as slavery the plantation system and plantocracy are explored in order to explain the contemporary nature of and challenges faced by the Caribbean The book is divided into three parts dealing respectively with the foundations of the Caribbean rural and urban bases of the contemporary Caribbean and global restructuring and the Caribbean industry tourism and politics Mixed Race Amnesia Minelle Mahtani,2014-11-10 Mixed Race Amnesia is an ambitious and critical look at how multiraciality is experienced in the global north Drawing on a series of interviews acclaimed geographer Minelle Mahtani explores some of the assumptions and attitudes people have around multiraciality She discovers that in Canada at least people of mixed race are often romanticized as being the embodiment of a post racial future an ideal that is supported by government policy and often internalized by people of mixed race As Mahtani reveals this superficial celebration of multiraciality is often done without any acknowledgment of the freight and legacy of historical racisms Consequently a strategic and collective amnesia is taking place one where complex diasporic and family histories are being lost while colonial legacies are being reinforced Mahtani argues that in response a new anti colonial approach to multiraciality is needed and she equips her readers with the analytical tools to do this Mexico and the Caribbean Under Castro's Eyes Colin Clarke,2018-07-16 This book provides a first hand account of the author s encounters as a social geographer based on his field research and travels in Mexico and the Caribbean The interlocutors of different classes and races introduce the reader to a variety of urban and rural communities many of them involved in development projects Two leitmotifs of the 1960s and 1970s recur throughout the volume decolonization state formation and the quest for democracy in the post colonial societies of Mexico and the Caribbean and the conditions which were likely to constrain or challenge these developments quintessentially associated with the 1959 Cuban revolution the cold war and student radicalism Racist Regimes, Forced Labour and Death Colin Clarke,2024-07-05 This book compares the systems of exploitative race relations associated with two racist regimes slavery in the British colonial Caribbean and forced labour in the Holocaust in Germany and the Nazi occupied lands in Europe Although each system was introduced by expansionist European powers through racist enslavement transportation dehumanisation and the destruction of human life the construction and operation of sugar plantations by African and Creole slave labour for the export of tropical products in the period 1650 to 1838 was different from the mass murder of Jewish and Gypsy civilians with the intention of creating a forced labour regime and colonial style ethnic cleansing during the Second World War Though differentiated in time and place the four principal common denominators that make feasible the detailed comparison of British Caribbean slavery and the Holocaust in Europe are racism colonialism occupation slavery forced labour and death Juxtaposition of these two companion studies will reveal comparisons and contrasts previously unexplored in the field of race relations under colonialism and the Holocaust The book will be of interest to scholars and students of the social sciences and history particularly those with an engagement with slavery and forced labour the sociology of race and racism and Holocaust studies Race, Class, and the Politics of Decolonization Colin Clarke,2016-04-29 This book offers a detailed picture of Jamaica before and after independence A 1961 journal sheds light on the political and social context before independence while a 1968 journal shows how independence dissolved dissident forces and identifies the origins of Jamaica's current two party politics
