Lament For Agnes:

Lament for Agnes Jan Albert Goris,1975 Lament for Agnes Marnix Gijsen,1975 Een jongeman wordt gelouterd door de plotselinge dood van zijn geliefde en door de wantoestanden in de kazerne waar hij zijn dienstplicht vervult The Overland Monthly ,1888 Agnes's Broken Dreams Judy King,2023-01-20 It has been thirty years since Agnes last visited the country of her birth and upbringing While it is at the request of her aging narcissistic mother she has her own reasons for making the journey to Australia from her home on Mallorca Something has blighted her life since childhood Something has cast such a long shadow over her existence that her ability to grasp at life fully to appreciate her own sense of self worth to attain any semblance of happiness to trust without reservation has been damaged Those whom she chooses and who choose her seem to want only to exploit her Having undergone a long period of psychotherapy Agnes can now return to re experience the places that featured in her youth in the hope that burning questions will be answered haunting mysteries solved and buried memories let out into the light This is the vibrant heartening and often amusing tale of a buoyant and irrepressible woman whose natural energy and determination continue to drive her forward Having reached middle age she is determined to grapple with and heal the ills that have beset her Dutch Novels Translated into English Rita Vanderauwera,2022-06-20 Searching for Normal in the Wake of the Liberian War Sharon Alane Abramowitz,2014-07-28 At the end of Liberia s thirteen year civil war the devastated population struggled to rebuild their country and come to terms with their experiences of violence During the first decade of postwar reconstruction hundreds of humanitarian organizations created programs that were intended to heal trauma prevent gendered violence rehabilitate former soldiers and provide psychosocial care to the transitioning populace But the implementation of these programs was not always suited to the specific mental health needs of the population or easily reconciled with the broader aims of reconstruction and humanitarian peacekeeping and psychiatric treatment was sometimes ignored or unevenly integrated into postconflict humanitarian health care delivery Searching for Normal in the Wake of the Liberian War explores the human experience of the massive apparatus of trauma healing and psychosocial interventions during the first five years of postwar reconstruction Sharon Alane Abramowitz draws on extensive fieldwork among the government officials humanitarian leaders and an often overlooked population of Liberian NGO employees to examine the structure and impact of the mental health care interventions in particular the ways they were promised to work with peacekeeping and reconstruction and how the reach and effectiveness of these promises can be measured From this courageous ethnography emerges a geography of trauma and the ways it shapes the lives of those who give and receive care in postwar Liberia Godey's Lady's Book ,1843 Includes music A Biographical Encyclopedia of Early Modern Englishwomen Carole Levin,Anna Riehl Bertolet,Jo Eldridge Carney,2016-11-03 From the exemplary to the notorious to the obscure this comprehensive and innovative encyclopedia showcases the worthy women of early modern England Poets princesses or pirates the women of power and agency found in these pages are indeed worth knowing and this volume will introduce many female figures to even the most established scholars in early modern studies Rather than using the conventional alphabetical format of the standard biographical encyclopedia this volume is divided into categories of women Since many women will fit in more than one category each woman is placed in the category that best exemplifies her life and is cross referenced in other appropriate sections This structure makes the book an interesting read for seasoned scholars of early modern women while students need not already be familiar with these subjects in order to benefit from the text Another unusual feature of this reference work is that each entry begins with some incident from the woman s life that is particularly exciting or significant Some entries are very brief while others are extensive Each includes a source listing The book is well illustrated and liberally sprinkled with quotations of the time either by or about the women in the text

The Smith College Monthly ,1905 Granger's Index to Poetry and Recitations ,1929 Well-read Lives Barbara Sicherman,2010 In a compelling approach structured as theme and variations the author offers insightful profiles of a number of accomplished women born in Americas Gilded Age who lost and found themselves in books and worked out a new life purpose around them Some wo

Edith Granger,1929 The Humblest Sparrow Michael Roberts,2010-02-09 In The Humblest Sparrow Michael Roberts illuminates the poetry of the sixth century bishop and poet Venantius Fortunatus Often regarded as an important transitional figure Fortunatus wrote poetry that is seen to bridge the late classical and earlier medieval periods Written in Latin his poems combined the influences of classical Latin poets with a medieval tone giving him a special place in literary history Yet while interest has been growing in the early Merovingian period and while the writing of Fortunatus patron Gregory of Tours has been well studied Fortunatus himself has often been neglected This neglect is remedied by this in depth study which will appeal to scholars of late antique early Christian and medieval Latin poetry Roberts divides Fortunatus poetry into three main groups poetry of praise hagiographical poetry and personal poetry In addition to providing a general survey Roberts discusses in detail many individual poems and proposes a number of theses on the nature function relation to social and linguistic context and survival of Fortunatus poetry as well as the image of the poet created by his work Jacket illustration L Alma Tadema Venantius Fortunatus Reading his Poems to Radeconda VI AD 555 Courtesy of Dordrecht Dordrechts Museum
