Land Of Remember:

Does the Land Remember Me? Aziz Shihab, 2011-09-30 Summoned by his dying mother Palestinian born Aziz Shihab returns to the homeland he and his family fled as refugees decades earlier to a Palestine reclaimed by Israelis and to a country no longer that of his youth in a nation whose estate has been challenged by history This gripping book chronicles that month long journey Part memoir part travelogue it reveals the complexities of leaving behind such the past and coming to grips with its abandonment With his sharp ear for dialogue and with a journalist s eye Shihab records and considers sometimes with fond humor the Palestinian psyche Family meetings brim with soothing time honored ritual and cultural blindness Pungent street anecdotes resonate with profound themes like human rights land dislocation and poverty Shihab s stories of departure and return loss of land and reconnection provide enriching insights into the depth and intricacy of Palestinian culture and history and its legacy of displacement To Be Told Dan B. Allender, 2005-02-15 God Invites You to Coauthor Your Future It Starts with Reading Your Past In this companion workbook to Dr Dan Allender's groundbreaking book To Be Told you will find practical easy to follow exercises to help you explore and embrace the stories of your life The exercises inside will equip you to recall past experiences and find the meaning God has written there understand how individual events fit into the bigger themes of your life write down your stories in a way that reflects God's authorship of your life identify the passions that drive you and see how God uses them to guide you into the future tell your story in a way that brings glory to God and reveals him to others Learn how to read and study your story and then start telling it to others God invites you to co author with him the rest of your life s story a story that opens up your future and glorifies God Through Minds' Eyes Ryan J. Hite, 2013-03-27 This is a book of history ethics and philosophy It is a record of teachings passed down through the generations from the East and the West It contains the fullness of the sealed covenant established between man and the laws of the universe As we evolve as a race we take things out of our lives because we better understand who we are and what we have achieved The divine refers to the laws of nature and the universe that guide us in our everyday lives The creator that guides our everyday lives is not something that we should worship or pray to out of fear or love it is something that remains unseen and works in natural forces to explain all the events that happen on Earth It is merely a force and it is not necessary to belong to a group to experience the light The path to the light is straight and broad The creator of the universe is a divine and intellectual force by which all things came into being The sealed covenant is a pact between all of humanity to the world around us and the universal laws that guide our everyday lives to come together and love one another and come to make the world a better place for all people This shall usher in the evolution of religious traditions and humanity to a new age of prosperity Memorializing Violence Alison Crosby, Heather Evans, 2025-02-11 Memorializing Violence brings together feminist and queer reflections on the transnational lives of memorialization practices asking what it means to grapple with loss mourning grief and desires to collectively remember and commemorate as well as urges to forget in the face of disparate yet entangled experiences of racialized and gendered colonial imperial militarized and state violence The volume uses a transnational feminist approach to ask How do such efforts in seemingly unconnected remembrance landscapes speak to with and through each other in a world order inflected by colonial imperial and neoliberal logics structures and strictures How do these memorializing initiatives not only formulate within but move through complex transnational flows and circuits and what transpires as they do What does it mean to inhabit loss mourning resistance and refusal through memorialization at this moment and what s at stake in doing so What might transnational feminist analyses of gender race sexuality class and nation have to offer in this regard The Treeline Ben Rawlence, 2022-02-15 Winner of the 2023 Helen Bernstein Book Award for Excellence in Journalism Original and readable Financial Times Best Environmental Books of 2022 Superb inspiring Winner National Academies of Science Schmidt Awards for Excellence in Science Communications Illuminating Silver Medalist National Outdoor Book Awards Longlisted for the American Library Association s 2023 Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction Finalist 2023 Banff Mountain Book Competition Finalist 2023 Dayton Literary Peace Prize In the tradition of Elizabeth Kolbert and Barry Lopez a powerful poetic and deeply absorbing account of the lung at the top of the world For the last fifty years the trees of the boreal forest have been moving north Ben Rawlence s The Treeline takes us along this critical frontier of our warming planet from Norway to Siberia Alaska to Greenland Canada to Sweden to meet the scientists residents and trees confronting huge geological changes Only the hardest species survive at these latitudes including the ice loving Dahurian larch of Siberia the antiseptic Spruce that purifies our atmosphere the Downy birch conquering Scandinavia the healing Balsam poplar that Native Americans use as a cure all and the noble Scots Pine that lives longer when surrounded by its family It is a journey of wonder and awe at the incredible creativity and resilience of these species and the mysterious workings of the forest upon which we rely for the air we breathe Blending reportage with the latest science The Treeline is a story of what might soon be the last forest left and what that means for the Journal South Carolina.
