Parliament. House of Commons. Defence Committee, 2008 Recruiting retaining the right number of well trained personnel is vital for the continuing success of the United Kingdom's Armed Forces Yet recruitment and retention targets are not being met There is particular concern about shortages in pinchpoint trades trades or areas of expertise where there is not enough trained strength to perform operational tasks without encroaching on the time provided between deployments for recuperation training and leave This report sets out to examine the factors which hamper recruitment and retention in the Armed Forces and reservists identify what the MoD is doing to improve these There is also concern and examination of the issue of why ethnic minority personnel form such a low proportion of the Armed Forces Conflict Reporting Strategies and the Identities of Ethnic and Religious Communities in Jos, Nigeria Godfrey Naanlang Danaan, 2020-05-19 This book examines journalistic strategies in terms of the appropriation of media logics in the conflict frame building process Relying on three models objectivity mediatisation and news framing it interrogates the role orientations and performance of journalists who reported the conflict involving the indigenous Christians and Hausa Fulani Muslim settlers of Jos a city in North Central Nigeria inhabited by approximately one million people The book provides empirical evidence of the strategies and the representations of ethnic and religious identities in the conflict narratives focusing on the most cited and vicious conflicts in Jos which occurred in 2001 2008 and 2010 Thus mediatised conflict research is revisited placing media logics at the heart of the conflict The text proposes Solutions Review Journalism SRJ as a framework for conflict reporting and argues that a review process is necessary to measure impact
