Charles G. Salas, 2007 It is often assumed that reading about the lives of artists enhances our understanding of their work and that their work reveals something about them but the relationship between biography and art is rarely straightforward In The Life and the Work art historians Thomas Crow Charles Harrison Rosalind Krauss Debora Silverman Paul Smith and Robert Williams address this fundamental if convoluted relationship Looking to such figures as Andy Warhol Bob Dylan Vincent van Gogh Paul C zanne Leonardo da Vinci and the artists associated with the name Art Language the volume s authors have written a set of provocative essays that explore how an artist s life and art are intertwined in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2007 The essays in this wide ranging text capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art The Lukacs Reader Arpad Kadarkay, 1995-11-06 One of the greatest Marxist theorists of his generation Georg Lukacs was a prolific writer of remarkably catholic if moralistic tastes In The Lukacs Reader his biographer Arpad Kadarkay represents the great range and variety of Lukacs s output The reader includes in original translations and with introductory essays Lukacs on Kierkegaard Shakespeare Ford Strindberg Ibsen Wilde Shaw Gaughin Dostoevsky Nietzsche and Heidegger Also collected are the autobiographical essay On the Poverty of Spirit material from Lukacs s diary and such key articles as Aesthetic Culture The Ideology of Modernism Bolshevism as an Ethical Problem and Class Consciousness What emerges is a figure very much at the centre of European thought whose value to modern culture and philosophy differs markedly from that which received opinion generally admits Narrative and Self-Understanding Garry L. Hagberg, 2019-11-15 This exciting new edited collection bridges the gap between narrative and self understanding The problem of self knowledge is of universal interest the nature or character of its achievement has been one continuing thread in our philosophical tradition for millennia Likewise the nature of storytelling the assembly of individual parts of a potential story into a coherent narrative structure has been central to the study of literature But how do we gain knowledge from an artform that is by definition fictional by definition not a matter of ascertained fact as this applies to the understanding of our lives When we see ourselves in the mimetic mirror of literature what we see may not just be a matter of identifying with a single protagonist but also a matter of recognizing long form structures long arc narrative shapes that give a place to and thus make sense of the individual bits of experience that we place into those structures But of course at precisely this juncture a question arises do we make that sense or do we discover it The twelve chapters brought together here lucidly and steadily reveal how the matters at hand are far more intricate and interesting than any such dichotomy could accommodate This is a book that investigates the ways in which life and literature speak to each other The Way to Paradise Mario Vargas Llosa, 2004-09 Recounts the stories of civil rights campaigner Flora Tristan and Paul Gauguin the artist grandson who was born after her death in a tale that follows Flora's struggles with class imbalances and her grandson s effort to escape civilization Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred

Schneckenburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000 The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13 This edition combines the two volumes into one it s paperbound flexi cover the paper has a plastic coating smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets none of whom should pass it by The scope is encyclopedic half the work originally the first volume is devoted to painting the other half to sculpture new media and photography Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion The final section a lexicon of artists includes a small bandw photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work writings and exhibitions Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians curators and writers as is editor Walther c Book News Inc The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals This Strange Eventful History Paul Bradley, 2011 All of us must seek at a personal and a general level for a philosophy of meaning in life this strange eventful history to borrow a descriptive phrase for our existence from Shakespeare A sense of meaning is essential for peace of mind yet meaning may appear elusive in our present day divided world This book sets out to survey our options concisely drawing on philosophy religion science and art across the gamut from classical philosophers to atheists mystics sensualists agnostics primatologists neuroscientists Unifaith believers Interfaith Multifaith and lastly Transfaith to seek a religious attitude freed from myth and magic A new concept of intelligent design is examined linked with Panspermia independent of the concept of anthropomorphic creation Each chapter draws on the opinions of two or more prominent inter related thinkers including Sartre Foucault and Frankl Freud and Richard Dawkins Carl Jung and Mircea Eliade the Greeks and the Buddha Van Gogh and Gauguin and many others to help us form an opinion often provocatively with no holds barred The stimulating inter relationship between these stars steers us on a path towards a viewpoint of Cosmic Compassionate Plurality The Existentialist philosophers cautioned that life is essentially meaningless but they allowed that we may choose ourselves Certainly our choices are many and various in this current era Often however we bemoan the lack of time to read and research those possibilities This book sets out to provide the needed background material Love Disconsoled Timothy P. Jackson, 1999-11-25 Few concepts are more central to ethics than love but none is more subject to false consolation This 1999 book explores several theological philosophical and literary accounts of love focusing on how it relates to matters such as self interest and self sacrifice and invulnerability and immortality Timothy Jackson first considers key aspects of what the Bible says about love then he further examines the meaning of love and sacrifice through a close reading of novels by Fitzgerald and Hemingway Lastly he evaluates how love constrains and is constrained by other traditional moral concepts Throughout Jackson defends the moral priority of what the Christian tradition calls agape He argues that a proper understanding of agapic love rejects both moral relativism and the comfort of believing that good people cannot be harmed or that God causally necessitates every historical action and event When love is thus disconsoled it neither fears death nor despises life

Choosing Character Jonathan Jacobs, 2018-10-18 Are there key respects in which character and character defects are voluntary Can agents with serious vices be rational agents Jonathan Jacobs answers in the affirmative Moral character is shaped through voluntary habits including the ways we habituate ourselves Jacobs believes Just as individuals can voluntarily lead unhappy lives without making unhappiness an end so can they degrade their ethical characters through voluntary action that does not have establishment of vice as its end Choosing Character presents an account of ethical disability expanding the domain of responsibility and explicating the role of character in ethical cognition Jacobs contends that agents become ethically disabled voluntarily when their habits impair their ability to properly appreciate ethical considerations Such agents are rational responsible individuals who are yet incapable of virtuous action The view develops and modifies Aristotelian claims concerning the fixity of character Jacobs interpretation is developed in contrast to the overlooked work of Maimonides who also used Aristotelian resources but argued for the possibility of character change The notion of ethical disability has profound ramifications for ethics and for current debates about blame and punishment Sex Lives of the Great Artists Nigel Cawthorne, 1998 This eighth volume in the SEX LIVES series gives pen portraits of great artists who painted nudes such as Picasso Gauguin Leonardo Michelangelo Goya Dali and Degas The author questions whether they were using the excuse of emulating the artists of the ancient world simply in order to persuade young men and women to take their clothes off Good Lives Samuel Clark, 2021 Samuel Clark explores how we can learn about ourselves by reading thinking through and arguing about autobiography He defends a self realization account of the self and the good life and argues that self narration plays less role in our lives than some thinkers have supposed and the development and expression of potential much more A Fire in His Soul Miles J. Unger, 2025-03-04 The fascinating story of Vincent van Gogh s two groundbreaking years in Paris where he transformed himself from a provincial unknown into one of the world s great visionary artists Vincent Van Gogh arrived in the French capital on the last day of February 1886 a month short of his thirty third birthday He was a man beaten down by life half starved and nearly broken psychologically He was saved by his brother Theo who provided him with room board and most crucially emotional support while he attempted to master the difficult craft of painting Thus far Vincent's crude scenes of peasant life rendered in murky shades of brown and gray were both hackneyed and amateurish Theo a successful art dealer at a prestigious Parisian firm dismissed them as gloomy unappealing and worst of all unmarketable By the time Vincent left Paris almost exactly two years later he d transformed himself into one of the most original artists of the age turning out works of hallucinatory intensity in vivid hues and stamped with his own distinctive personality A Fire in His Soul chronicles this remarkable transformation It s a tale filled with tragedy and triumph personal anguish and creative fulfillment as Vincent through sheer force of will reinvents himself as a painter of unparalleled expressive power Along the way the reader will discover an unfamiliar Van Gogh not the solitary genius of the popular imagination shunned by an uncomprehending world and conjuring masterpieces from the depths of his lonely soul In Paris he was at the center of a community of like minded seekers Here Van Gogh was able to engage in a lively dialogue with fellow artists almost as daring as he was expanding his notion of what art could and should be It was in the cafes and studios of Montmartre and in the grand galleries of the Louvre and Luxembourg that Van Gogh received his artistic education a crash course that at first disoriented him but ultimately sparked his creative breakthrough Working alongside such legendary figures as Gauguin Toulouse Lautrec Seurat and Signac he found his voice and launched an artistic revolution
