Gay Men Choosing Parenthood:

Gay Men Choosing Parenthood Gerald P. Mallon, 2004 Dismantling Glory presents the most personal and powerful words ever written about the horrors of battle by the very soldiers who put their lives on the line Focusing on American and English poetry from World War I World War II and the Vietnam War Lorrie Goldensohn a poet and pacifist affirms that by and large twentieth century war poetry is fundamentally antiwar She examines the changing nature of the war lyric and takes on the literary thinking of two countries separated by their common language World War I poets such as Wilfred Owen emphasized the role of soldier as victim By World War II however English and American poets influenced by the leftist politics of W H Auden tended to indict the whole of society not just its leaders for militarism During the Vietnam War soldier poets accepted themselves as both victims and perpetrators of war s misdeeds writing a nontraditional more personally candid war poetry The book not only discusses the poetry of trench warfare but also shows how the lives of civilians women and children in particular entered a global war poetry dominated by air power invasion and occupation Goldensohn argues that World War II blurred the boundaries between battleground and home front thus bringing women and civilians into war discourse as never before She discusses the interplay of fascination and disapproval in the texts of twentieth century war and notes the way in which homage to war hero and victim contends with revulsion at war s horror and waste In addition to placing the war lyric in literary and historical context the book discusses in detail individual poets such as Wilfred Owen W H Auden Keith Douglas Randall Jarrell and a group of poets from the Vietnam War including W D Ehrhart Bruce Weigl Yusef Komunyakaa David Huddle and Doug Anderson Dismantling Glory is an original and compelling look at the way twentieth century war poetry posited new relations between masculinity and war changed and complicated the representation of war and expanded the scope of antiwar thinking

Gay Men Choosing Parenthood Gerald P. Mallon, 2004-01-07 Gay parenting is a topic on which almost everyone has an opinion but almost nobody has any facts Here at last is a book based on a thorough review of the literature as well as interviews with a pioneering group of men who in the 1980s chose to become fathers outside the boundaries of a heterosexual union through foster care adoption and other kinship relationships This book reveals how very natural and possible gay parenthood can be What factors influence this decision How do the experiences of gay dads compare to those of heterosexual men How effectively do professional services such as support groups serve gay fathers and prospective gay fathers What elements of the social climate are helpful and hurtful Gay Men Choosing Parenthood challenges a great deal of misinformation showing how gay fathers from different backgrounds adapted perceived and constructed their options and their families

Pathways and Barriers to Parenthood Orit Taubman - Ben-Ari, 2019-09-25 This volume explores the transition to parenthood from a holistic developmental approach relating to barriers such as fertility problems and traumatic childbirth as well as pathways such as positive experiences of pregnancy and childbirth It presents an extended process beginning with infertility issues continuing with subjects pertaining to decisions regarding parenthood pregnancy and birth and ending with the early stages of parenthood from a positive psychology perspective The volume draws on theories of resilience meaning terror management and attachment and considers psychological sociological legal policy medical and therapy issues It relates to the developmental needs of individuals and couples as well as to the role played by family society and the media offering a comprehensive in depth evaluation of the latest topics

Adoption by Lesbians and Gay Men David M. Brodzinsky, Adam Pertman, 2011-08-25 The practice of adoption has changed dramatically over the past half century with profound implications for children and families Perhaps the most remarkable and controversial transformation during this time has been the growing willingness of adoption professionals to place children with sexual minority individuals and couples Yet despite considerable research showing that lesbians and gay men can make good parents they continue to experience difficulties and barriers in many parts of the country in their efforts to adopt and raise children Indeed while progress in this area has been significant it has been impeded by the homophobia and heterosexist attitudes of adoption professionals and the judiciary by numerous stereotypes and misconceptions about parenting by lesbians and gay men and by a lack of adequate guidelines and training for establishing best practice standards in working with this rapidly growing group of adoptive parents Adoption by Lesbians and Gay Men explores the gamut of historical legal sociological psychological social casework and personal issues related to adoption by sexual minority individuals and couples Leading experts in a variety of fields address and often shatter the controversies myths and misconceptions hindering efforts by these individuals to adopt and raise children What makes this book all the more valuable is that it provides insights and specific recommendations for establishing empirically validated best practices for working with an important sector of our society for treating all prospective and current parents fairly and equally and perhaps most importantly for increasing a still largely untapped resource for providing families for children who need them

Same-Sex Parenting and the Best Interests Principle Lydia Bracken, 2020-03-26 Uses the concept of the best interests of the child to advocate for legal recognition of LGBT parenting

New Fathers? Contemporary American Stories of Masculinity, Domesticity and Kinship Helena Wahlström, 2010-10-12 What do novels such as Annie Proulx's The Shipping News Michael Cunningham's A Home at the End of the World and Jayne Anne Phillips MotherKind have in common with films such as Smoke and Mrs Doubtfire This study explores the intersection of masculinity and domesticity in contemporary film and literature It argues that these texts produced since the 1990s address with some urgency the notion of new fatherhood in the United States They offer explorations of the idea that American fatherhood around the turn of the twenty first century is changing and they problematize the legitimacy of new fathers and alternative families in a national culture where the old patriarch and the nuclear family still often loom large in the imagination of many Americans

The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies Abbie E. Goldberg, 2016-05-10 This far reaching and contemporary new Encyclopedia examines and explores the lives and experiences of Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ individuals focusing on the contexts and forces that shape their lives The work focuses on LGBTQ issues and identity primarily through the lenses of psychology human development and sociology emphasizing queer feminist and ecological perspectives on the topic and addresses questions such as What are the key theories used to understand variations in sexual orientation and gender identity How do Gay Straight Alliances GSA affect LGBTQ youth How do LGBTQ people experience the transition to parenthood How does sexual orientation intersect with other key social locations such as race to shape experience and identity What are the effects of marriage equality on sexual minority individuals and couples Top researchers and clinicians contribute to the 400 signed entries from fields such as Psychology Human Development Gender Queer Studies Sexuality Studies Social Work Sociology The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies is an essential resource for researchers interested in an interdisciplinary perspective on LGBTQ lives and issues The Advocate ,2004-07-20 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States The Course of Gay and Lesbian Lives Bertram J. Cohler,Robert M. Galatzer-Levy,2000-08 The authors argue that there is little support for assuming that homosexuality has a biological basis Recognizing the many pathways that lead to same gender sexual orientation the authors conclude that the cause is much less important than understanding the meaning of being homosexual LGBT-Parent Families Abbie E. Goldberg,Katherine R. Allen,2012-10-12 LGBT Parent Families is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive examination of this underserved area Reflecting the nature of this issue the volume is notably interdisciplinary with contributions from scholars in psychology sociology human development family studies gender studies sexuality studies legal studies social work and anthropology Additionally scholarship from regions beyond the U S including England Australia Canada and South Africa is presented In addition to gender and sexuality all contributors address issues of social class race and ethnicity in their chapters Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies Lucas Gottzén,Ulf Mellström,Tamara Shefer,2019-11-20 The Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies provides a contemporary critical and scholarly overview of theorizing and research on masculinities as well as emerging ideas and areas of study that are likely to shape research and understanding of gender and men in the future The forty eight chapters of the handbook take an interdisciplinary approach to a range of topics on men and masculinities related to identity sex sexuality culture aesthetics technology and pressing social issues The handbook s transnational lens acknowledges both the localities and global character of masculinity A clear message in the book is the need for intersectional theorizing in dialogue with feminist queer and sexuality studies in making sense of men and masculinities Written in a clear and direct style the handbook will appeal to students teachers and researchers in the social sciences and humanities as well as professionals practitioners and activists Ethnographic Research and Analysis Tom Vine,Jessica Clark,Sarah Richards,David Weir,2017-10-19 This book reflects on the contemporary use of ethnography across both social and natural sciences focusing in particular on organizational ethnography autoethnography and the role of storytelling The chapters interrogate and reframe longstanding ethnographic discussions including those concerning reflexivity and positionality while exploring evolving themes such as the experiential use of technologies The open and honest accounts presented in the volume explore the perennial anxieties doubts and uncertainties of ethnography Rather than seek ways to mitigate these inconvenient but inevitable aspects of academic research the book instead finds significant value to these experiences Taking the position that collections of ethnographic work are better presented as transdisciplinary bricolage rather than as discipline specific series each chapter in the collection begins with a reflection on the existing impact and character of ethnographic research within the author s native discipline The book will appeal to all academic researchers with an interest in qualitative methods as well as to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students

Transition to Parenthood Roudi Nazarinia Roy,Walter R. Schumm,Sonya L. Britt,2013-09-11 Transition to Parenthood moves beyond a one study focus and captures multidisciplinary work on all families making the transition to parenthood The book covers societal trends changes and most importantly expectations Focus is also placed on how families are impacted by their surroundings and their individual members Strengths and limitations of current theories are discussed as well as how the phenomenon of parenthood requires a combination of both macro and micro level theories Handbook of Parenting Masud S Houghghi,Nicholas Long,Nicholas James Long,2004-03-08 A single volume textualization of the growing level of interest in research educational and professional activity within the broadly defined field of parenting LGBTQ-Parent Families Abbie E. Goldberg,Katherine R. Allen,2020-04-03 This textbook offers a comprehensive overview of research on LGBTQ parent families The new edition of the textbook provides updated information and expands on the range and depth of current research The volume features contributions from scholars in psychology sociology human development family studies gender studies sexuality studies legal studies social work and anthropology In addition the textbook offers an international perspective with coverage spanning many diverse nations and cultures Chapters highlight key research exploring sexual orientation in relation to other key social identities such as gender race and nationality Chapters also discuss new emerging areas of research including asexuality and immigration The textbook concludes with a section on the growing sophistication of research methodology in the study of LGBTQ parent families The second edition includes new chapters discussing LGBTQ parent families and health LGBTQ foster parents LGBTQ adults and sibling relationships LGBTQ parent families and poverty LGBTQ parent families and separation divorce LGBTQ parent families and religion LGBTQ parent families and grief loss Methods recruitment and sampling in research with LGBTQ families Teaching pedagogy on LGBTQ parent families LGBTQ Parent Families 2nd Edition is a valuable updated resource for graduate students as well as veteran and beginning clinicians across disciplines including family studies family therapy gender studies public health social policy social work and child and adolescent psychology as well as related disciplines across mental health and educational services LGBT Families Nancy J.
