Imagination of Early Modern Venice Dana E. Katz, 2017-08-18 This book explores how the Jewish ghetto engaged the sensory imagination of Venice in complex and contradictory ways to shape urban space and reshape Christian Jewish relations Jewish Topographies Julia Brauch, Anna Lipphardt, 2016-05-06 How have Jews experienced their environments and how have they engaged with specific places How do Jewish spaces emerge how are they contested performed and used With these questions in mind this anthology focuses on the production of Jewish space and lived Jewish spaces and sheds light on their diversity inter connectedness and multi dimensionality By exploring historical and contemporary case studies from around the world the essays collected here shift the temporal focus generally applied to Jewish civilization to a spatially oriented perspective The reader encounters sites such as the gardens cultivated in the Ghettos during World War II the Israeli development town of Netivot Thornhill an Orthodox suburb of Toronto or new virtual sites of Jewish Second Life on the Internet and learns about the Jewish landkentenish movement in Interwar Poland the Jewish connection to the sea and the culinary landscapes of Russian Jews in New York Employing an interdisciplinary approach with a strong foothold in cultural history and cultural anthropology this anthology introduces new methodological and conceptual approaches to the study of the spatial aspects of Jewish civilization The Chief Rabbi, the Pope, and the Holocaust Robert G. Weisbord, Wallace P. Sillanpoa, 2011-12-31 In February 1945 Israele Zolli chief rabbi of Rome s ancient Jewish community shocked his co religionists in Italy and throughout the Jewish world by converting to Catholicism and taking as his baptismal name Eugenio to honor Pope Pius XII Eugenio Pacelli for what Zolli saw as his great humanitarianism toward the Jews during the Holocaust Almost a half a century after his conversion Zolli still evokes anger and embarrassment in Italy s Jewish community This book is the first authoritative treatment of this astonishing story What induced Zolli to embrace Catholicism will probably never be known Nonetheless by painstaking scholarly detective work through interviews in Italy and elsewhere through the unearthing of private papers not previous known to exist and through the study of previous inaccessible archival materials the authors have succeeded in explaining why Zolli left the Jewish fold and joined the Catholic Church Like Zolli s rabbinical career Pius XII s long pontificate tells us much about the Church of Rome and its relationship to the Jewish people particularly with reference to the issue of conversion The authors focus on the pontiff s World War II policies vis vis the Jews

a subject that has been heatedly debated since Rolf Hochhuth's The Deputy was performed in the early 1960s. What Pacelli knew about the extermination of the Jews and when he knew it, what he said and failed to say are given special attention in this book. Through the examination of previous scholarship and primary materials including Pius XI's encyclical on race and anti-Semitism, Pacelli's behavior is evaluated to determine if Zolli accurately gauged the Holy Father's efforts to save Jews. This saga of the two Eugenios will interest historians of the Second World War and the Holocaust and students of history alike.

Art and Ceremony in Jewish Life Vivian B. Mann, 2005-12-31 Since turning to the field of Jewish art over twenty years ago, Vivian Mann has concentrated on investigating Jewish ceremonial art within the dual contexts of Jewish law and the history of decorative arts in general, including the ceremonial art made for the Church and the Mosque. The introduction to this volume considers classic rabbinic attitudes toward art and its relationship to spirituality. The remaining essays are divided into three groups: the first concerns medieval ceremonial art; the second, articles on the Jewish art of Muslim lands beginning with the early Middle Ages; and the third consists of essays on Judaica during the periods of the Renaissance and rococo.

Intimate Strangers Fredric Brandfon, 2023-05-2024 Catholic Media Association Book Award Winner in History The Jewish community of Rome is the oldest Jewish community in Europe. It is also the Jewish community with the longest continuous history, having avoided interruptions, expulsions, and annihilations since 139 BCE. For most of that time, Jewish Romans have lived in close contact with the largest continuously functioning international organization, the Roman Catholic Church. Given the church's origins in Judaism, Jews and Catholics have spent two thousand years negotiating a necessary and paradoxical relationship. With engaging stories that illuminate the history of Jews and Jewish-Catholic relations in Rome, Intimate Strangers investigates the unusual relationship between Jews and Catholics as it has developed from the first century CE to the present in the Eternal City. Fredric Brandfon innovatively frames these relations through an anthropological lens: how the idea and language of family have shaped the self-understanding of both Roman Jews and Catholics. The familial relations are lopsided: the powerful family member often persecuting the weaker one; the church ghettoized the Jews of Rome longer than any other community in Europe. Yet respect and support are also part of the family dynamic: for instance, church members and institutions protected Rome's Jews during the Nazi occupation, and so the relationship continues. Brandfon begins by examining the Arch of Titus and the Jewish catacombs as touchstones, painting a picture of a Jewish community remaining Jewish over centuries. Papal processions and the humiliating races at Carnival time exemplify Jewish interactions with the predominant Catholic powers in medieval and Renaissance Rome. The Roman Ghetto, the forcible conversion of Jews, emancipation from the Ghetto in light of Italian nationalism, the horrors of fascism and the Nazi occupation in Rome, the Second Vatican Council's proclamation absolving Jews of murdering Christ, and the celebration of Israel's birth at the Arch of Titus are interwoven with Jewish stories of daily life through the centuries. Intimate Strangers takes us on a compelling sweep of two thousand years of history through the present successes and dilemmas of Roman Jews.

meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency In the current times of war pandemic climate change and global anxiety the value of the garden as a sanctuary a space where we can find refuge in a natural environment has taken on new and poignant meanings and has attracted increasing academic interest Multidisciplinary and multicultural in scope this book explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency Examining perspectives from scholars including art historians architects philosophers landscape architects and garden practitioners it reassess the restorative impact of the garden whether understood from an individual cultural or environmental point of view Ranging widely across Asia and Europe its chapters examine ideas narratives and practices from the 4th century Chinese poet Tao Yuanming to the 12th century Iranian polymath Omar Khayyam through to the late 20th century British artist and film maker Derek Jarman Drawing upon traditional Asian philosophies like Buddhism Daoism and Sufism and combining these with more recent western philosophies the aim is to question how the unique virtues of gardens and designed landscapes can help to poise educate and possibly transform attitudes and behaviours in a time of personal environmental or cultural crisis At once poetic scholarly and rigorous this book provides insightful reading for students and researchers in landscape architecture garden history architectural history art history and cultural history

The Political Economy of the Urban Ghetto Daniel Roland Fusfeld, Timothy Mason Bates, 1984 The income of blacks in most northern industrial states today is lower relative to the income of whites than in 1949 Fusfeld and Bates examine the forces that have led to this state of affairs and find that these economic relationships are the product of a complex pattern of historical development and change in which black white economic relationships play a major part along with patterns of industrial agricultural and technological change and urban development They argue that today's urban racial ghettos are the result of the same forces that created modern America and that one of the by products of American affluence is a ghettoized racial underclass These two themes they state are essential for an understanding of the problem and for the formulation of policy Poverty is not simply the result of poor education skills and work habits but one outcome of the structure and functioning of the economy Solutions require more than policies that seek to change people they await a recognition that basic economic relationships must be changed

The Atrocity of Hunger Helene J. Sinnreich, 2023-02-16 During World War II the Germans put the Jews in Nazi-occupied Poland into ghettos which restricted their movement and most crucially for their survival access to food. The Germans saw the Jews as useless eaters and denied them sufficient food for survival. The hunger which resulted from this intentional starvation impacted every aspect of Jewish life inside the ghettos. This book focuses on the Jews in the Warsaw and Kraków ghettos as they struggled to survive the deadly Nazi ghetto and in particular the genocidal famine conditions. Jews had no control over Nazi food policy but they attempted to survive the deadly conditions of Nazi ghettoization through a range of coping mechanisms and survival strategies. In this book Helene Sinnreich explores their story drawing from diaries and first-hand accounts of the victims and survivors. This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Post-Ghetto Josh Sides, Andrea Asuma, Robert Gottlieb, Edna Bonacich, 2012-10-10 Is South Los Angeles on the mend? How is it combating the blight of crime, gang violence, high unemployment, and dire poverty? In provocative essays the contributing authors to Post-Ghetto address these questions by pointing out robust signs of hope for the area's residents: an increase in corporate retail investment, a decrease in homicides, a proliferation of nonprofit service providers, a paradigm shift in violence and gang prevention programs, and progress toward a strengthened, more racially integrated labor movement. By charting the connections between public policy and the health of a community, the authors offer innovative ideas and visionary strategies for further urban renewal and remediation. The Clandestine History of the Kovno Jewish Ghetto Police Samuel Schalkowsky, 2014-04-14 Remarkable provides a graphic and unparalleled description of the conditions under which the Jews of Kaunas tried to live and survive. The Forward As a force that had to serve two masters, both the Jewish population of the Kovno ghetto in Lithuania and its German occupiers, the Kovno Jewish ghetto police walked a fine line between helping Jews survive and meeting Nazi orders. In 1942 and 1943 some of its members secretly composed this history and buried it in tin boxes. This book details the creation and organization of the ghetto, the violent German attacks on the population in the summer of 1941 the periodic selections of Jews to be deported and killed the labor required of the surviving Jewish population and the efforts of the police to provide a semblance of stability A substantial introduction by distinguished historian Samuel D Kassow places this powerful work within the context of the history of the Kovno Jewish community and its experience and fate at the hands of the Nazis No book I ve read in recent time about the Holocaust has so moved me evoking the utter helplessness of the Jew the plight of the Jewish police and the cunning cruelty of the German This is a gripping story page by page and it reminds us again that there but for the grace of God go we all Marvin Kalb Senior Advisor to the Pulitzer Center and Edward R Murrow Professor Emeritus Harvard Kennedy School A landmark of Holocaust historiography Slavic Review
