of the emotions of that fall he is visited by deep memories that transform his daily journal keeping into an accidental memoir a narrative that reaches a surprising and moving conclusion on Thanksgiving Day Juggling the roles of English professor restaurant owner husband father son and friend Wyatt finds sustenance at the core of ordinary American life resources at once so available and so elusive Passionate about people books food and landscapes present and lost and absolutely unheroic the voices summoned here counter the sanctimonious and the sentimental Wyatt s elegantly understated memoir reveals how the events of September 11 affected ordinary people and presents this anthology of thoughts feelings and interactions in a frank and immediate voice
