Freeman, Rosemary Horowitz, Laurie Katz, 2022-11-28 This accessible guide to Jewish children's literature explores many of the enduring questions of the Jewish tradition: What is Jewish history? What are love, wisdom, humor, ritual, evil, and justice? Jewish children's literature matters for all children, and with this practical guide, parents and teachers will be empowered to choose and discuss books and stories with Jewish or non-Jewish children. Jewish children's literature is often absent in school classrooms, and when it is available, it presents a picture of Jews as victims. Enduring Questions provides teachers with guidance in the use of Jewish children's literature in the preschool and elementary school classroom. Enduring Questions includes extensive bibliographies of Jewish children's literature, digital resources for teachers, and suggestions for further reading. With summaries of suggested books and texts, honest recommendations from teachers who have used these texts in the classroom, and practical curricular connections, this comprehensive book is suited for those looking for an introduction to teaching Jewish children's literature and those familiar with it. The book provides a framework about the use of Jewish children's literature as an opportunity for all children, both Jewish and non-Jewish, to be philosophers and engage in dialog and debate. The enduring questions thoughtfully explored through Jewish literature are important for all students growing up in a diverse multicultural world.

Leaves from the Garden of Eden, 2010-09-23 In Leaves from the Garden of Eden, Howard Schwartz, a three-time winner of the National Jewish Book Award, has gathered together one hundred of the most astonishing and luminous stories from Jewish folk tradition. Just as Schwartz's award-winning book Tree of Souls collected the essential myths of Jewish tradition, Leaves from the Garden of Eden collects one hundred essential Jewish tales. As imaginative as the Arabian Nights, these stories invoke enchanted worlds, demonic realms, and mystical experiences. The four most popular types of Jewish tales are gathered here: fairy tales, folktales, supernatural tales, and mystical tales, taking readers on heavenly journeys, lifelong quests, and descents to the underworld. There is a dybbuk lurking in a well, a book that comes to life, and a world where Lilith, the Queen of Demons, seduces the unsuspecting. Here too are Jewish versions of many of the best-known tales, including Cinderella, Snow White, and Rapunzel. Schwartz's retelling of one of these stories, The Finger, inspired Tim Burton's film Corpse Bride.

Gathering the Sparks, Linda H. Feinberg, 2002 Bringing the Biosphere Home, Mitchell Thomashow, 2001-10-26 A guide for understanding the ecological and existential aspects of global environmental change. This book shows how to make global environmental problems more tangible so that they become an integral part of everyday awareness. At its core is a simple assumption: that the best way to learn to perceive the biosphere is to pay close attention to our immediate surroundings. Through local natural history observations, imagination, and memory, and spiritual contemplation, we develop a place-based environmental view that can be expanded to encompass the biosphere. Interweaving global change science, personal narrative, and commentary on a wide range of scientific and literary works, the book explores both the ecological and existential aspects of urgent issues such as the loss of biodiversity and global climate change. Written in a warm, engaging style, Bringing the Biosphere Home considers the perceptual connections between the local and global, how the ecological news of the community is of interest to the world and how the global movement of people species and weather systems affects the local community It shows how global environmental change can become the province of numerous educational initiatives from the classroom to the Internet from community forums to international conferences from the backyard to the biosphere It explains important scientific concepts in clear nontechnical language and provides dozens of ideas for learning how to practice biospheric perception

American Jewish Archives ,1993 Teachings from the Sacred Triangle, Volume One David K. Miller,2002-01-01 Three forces must come together for a planetary healing to occur The concept of the Sacred Triangle was introduced in David Miller s first book Connecting with the Arcturians which explored the fifth dimension and our relationship to higher Extraterrestrial groups This new book explains how the Arcturian energy melds with that of the White Brother Sisterhood and the Ascended Native American Masters to bring about planetary healing David offers the reader an understanding of the soul the nature of soul evolution and how the human species is advancing towards the next evolutionary step There will be many of you in this time who will be able to complete fantastic tasks If I would declare to you what I see you would be astonished that you could possibly carry out such tasks You must think that you have the ability to do this You have the personal power I ask you to look at the Sacred Triangle and see what role you can play in this Others will be very interested when you explain this mission I guarantee you there will be a very strong contingent that will ascend together as we are invited to join you in the Crystal Temple We are very eager to meet you there as well This is Chief White Eagle

First Harvest Howard Schwartz,Barbara Raznick,1997 Meeting the Shadow on the Spiritual Path Connie Zweig,2023-05-23 A guide to rekindling spiritual inspiration after betrayal and disillusionment Explains why we are drawn to charismatic leaders what we unconsciously give away to them and how to reclaim our inner spiritual authority Explores how to recover from spiritual abuse or betrayal by a teacher or group including breaking free of denial projection and dependency using psychology and shadow work Extends MeToo into the spiritual domain and tells the stories of contemporary clergy and spiritual leaders who acted out their shadows in destructive ways leaving their followers traumatized and lost Within each of us is a spiritual longing that prompts us to unite with something greater than ourselves to awaken to our unity with all of life Yet no matter the spiritual path we choose we inevitably encounter our own shadow those unconscious aspects of ourselves that we suppress or deny or the shadows of our teachers and their secret desires about money sex and power Meeting the shadow can derail the journey but according to Connie Zweig Ph D we can learn to recover from loss of faith and move from spiritual naivete to spiritual maturity Calling on us to expand our vision of religious and spiritual life and our vision of awakening to include the human shadow Zweig examines the yearning that sets us on the spiritual path showing how it can lead to ecstatic transcendent experiences or to terrible suffering by projecting it onto an authoritarian teacher priest or guru who abuses power She tells the stories of renowned teachers Sufi poet Rumi Hindu master Ramakrishna and Christian saint Catherine of Siena whose lives unfolded as they followed their spiritual yearning And she tells the cautionary tales of contemporary teachers of Buddhism Hinduism and Catholicism who acted out their shadows in devastating ways leaving their followers traumatized and lost She explains how meeting the shadow is a painful but inevitable stage on the path to a more mature spirituality She describes how to use spiritual shadow work to separate from abusive teachers reclaim inner spiritual authority and heal from betrayal With guidance for both inspired and disillusioned seekers the author explores how to navigate the narrow path through the darkness toward the light rekindle the flame of longing and once again engage in fulfilling spiritual practice Seeking Sanctuary John Marnell,2021-09 A glimpse into the lives of LGBTQ migrants in Johannesburg in their own words Seeking Sanctuary brings together poignant life stories from fourteen lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT migrants refugees and asylum seekers living in Johannesburg South Africa The stories diverse in scope chronicle each narrator s arduous journey to South Africa and their corresponding movement towards self love and self acceptance The narrators reveal their personal battles to reconcile their faith with their sexuality and gender identity often in the face of violent persecution and how they have carved out spaces of hope and belonging in their new home country In these intimate testimonies the narrators resilience in the midst of uncertain futures reveal the myriad ways in which LGBT Africans push back against unjust and unequal systems Seeking Sanctuary makes a critical intervention by showing the complex interplay between homophobia and xenophobia in South Africa and of the state of sexual orientation and gender identity SOGI rights in Africa By shedding light on the fraught connections between sexuality faith and migration this ground breaking project also provides a model for religious communities who are working towards justice diversity and inclusion Gathering the sparks Howard Schwartz,1979 Opening the Inner Gates Edward Hoffman,1995-11-14 Men and women are discovering and applying Jewish mystical insights in daily life and professionals in such fields as psychology psychotherapy and medicine are actively using Kabbalah in their work The Holy Longing Connie Zweig,2008-04-08 Longing is the core of mystery Longing itself brings the cure Rumi In every tradition saints and poets speak of the soul s search for the beloved the seeker s yearning for the divine This holy longing a secret feeling with many disguises leads us to pursue religious discipleship spiritual practice romantic union or an ideal community It guides us to timeless wisdom and transcendent experience But it also can go awry when we misplace it onto objects such as food alcohol drugs or sex believing that they will satisfy our craving Or when we misplace it onto an authoritarian personality believing that he or she will meet our unmet needs If this teacher or priest abuses power we encounter the shadow side of spiritual life Whether the abuse is sexual financial or emotional coercion we may feel forsaken and lose faith even in God The Holy Longing tells the stories of teachers in many traditions Sufi poet Rumi Hindu master Ramakrishna Christian saint Catherine of Siena whose lives unfolded as they followed their longing And it tells the tales of many ordinary people Catholic believers students of Zen and TM followers of Trungpa Rinpoche and Rajneesh and their encounters with spiritual shadow Finally it offers wise counsel for rekindling the flame of faith moving through the shadow to the light by reclaiming sacred parts of the self that were lost along the way Gabriel's Palace ,1993 Over 150 tales from the Talmud the Zohar Jewish folktales and Hasidic lore Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office for ... ,1871 Judaism ,1983
