Hatmaker, 2020-06-02

Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir s negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative These are narratives centered on loss sadness rage shame guilt regret anxiety humiliation resentment resistance and refusal Moreover noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives especially the criminal the lost the compromised the haunted the unlucky the cast aside and the erotically perverse including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material bodily social and political economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition dissolution redundancy unmaking and decay It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism including those associated with racial gendered sexual and economic inequality Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re orient our understanding of noir Contributors Alexander Dunst Sean Grattan Peter Hitchcock Justus Nieland Andrew Pepper Ignacio S nchez Prado Brian Rejack Pamela Thoma Kirin Wachter Grene Popular Astronomy ,1914 Popular Astronomy William Wallace Payne,Charlotte R. Willard,Herbert Couper Wilson,Ralph Elmer Wilson,Curvin Henry Gingrich,1914 The Cyclopaedia Abraham Rees,1810 Dressing Up Joshua M. Bluteau,2021-11-01 What does men s fashion say about contemporary masculinity How do these notions operate in an increasingly digitized world To answer these questions author Joshua M Bluteau combines theoretical analysis with vibrant narrative exploring men s fashion in the online world of social media as well as the offline worlds of retail production and the catwalk Is it time to reassess notions of masculinity How do we construct ourselves in the online world and what are the dangers of doing so From the ateliers of London to the digital landscape of Instagram Dressing Up re examines the ways men dress and the ways men post Lucifer ,1889 Ghost Recon David Knight,2020-05-20 Ghost Recon Marine One is about military treason and espionage MI 45 references a secret congressional council funding deep cover black operations This is a story about a secret military project genetically engineering hybrids and putting them into military service as presidential combat assassins The hybrids uncover a major intelligence leak from the CIA to the Russian KGB and stop the leak MI 45 congressional council funds this operation The hybrids were kidnapped by the CIA and turned over to the Navy SEALs But they originated at a secret Marine hybrid center The Antiquary Edward Walford,George Latimer Apperson,1887 The Antiquary ,1887 The Independent ,1928 Ghostly Parallels Randolph Runyon,2006 America s most eminent man of letters in his later years and certainly one of the greatest Southern writers Robert Penn Warren has increasingly come to be known for his poetry Ghostly Parallels is a close examination of the heart of his poetic corpus the eight collections published between 1935 and 1976 Thirty Six Poems Eleven Poems on the Same Theme Promises You Emperors and Others Tale of Time Incarnations Or Else and Can I See Arcturus from Where I Stand Ghostly Parallels shows how Warren constructed collections of poems based on common subjects and contexts and also contends that while the poems are distinctive taken together they reveal intricate patterns of theme imagery and diction within explicit sequences Runyon demonstrates that Warren s collections are integrated well crafted wholes and each poem references its predecessor sometimes in intriguingly self referential ways Runyon shows that despite the many changes in diction tone and subject that Warren underwent in his long career his concern for writing his poems in such a way that they could reach out beyond themselves to other poems remained remarkably constant In the arrangement Warren gave them his poems form ghostly parallels an expression that appears in The Return An Elegy where they refer to the railroad tracks that bring the poet home to his dying mother This return to the mother is a persistent leitmotif in the poems and forms the other major theme of this study Warren s personal poetic myth in which such images as golden light and mirror images are signs of the mother s presence as both Danae mother of Perseus and Medusa whom Perseus confronted Through pursuing sequential patterns as well as echoes and myth GhostlyParallels brings a wealth of insights to the work of this prolific novelist critic and essayist An important guide for undergraduate and graduate students alike Ghostly Parallels will also appeal to anyone with an interest in Robert Penn Warren and southern literature
