which Roth has used in her work Collectively these writings form the subject of compelling and unique critical exchange between Moira Roth who holds the Trefethen Chair of Art History at Mills College Oakland and Jonathan D Katz who is Chair of the Department of Gay and Lesbian Studies at City College San Francisco      Music/ideology Jean-François Lyotard,1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Information Subject Mark Poster,Stanley Aronowitz,2013-10-23 First Published in 2001 In this collection of essays and interviews Mark Poster examines theoretical approaches and develops his own position on our information based society He contends that new communications media disrupt and transfigure the way identities are constituted in cultural exchanges He looks in detail at several aspects of what might be called internet culture including virtuality and democracy Poster advocates an awareness of the Internet and other new forms of communication calling for a mobilization to ensure accessibility to all and to configure technology into vehicles of open cultural creation For example nothing is pure about the Internet politically he points out and it remains an open question as to who will transform the potentiality of new communications media into determinate cultural configurations This book explores the rupture and potentiality between the electronic self and the face to face self inherent in new forms of technology and media      Framing Formalism Richard Woodfield,2013-10-23 Alois Riegl 1858 1905 was one of the founding fathers of modern formalist criticism As a member of the Vienna School of Art Historians he shared their range of interests in the decorative arts art in transition conservation and monuments This collection of critical essays examines various facets of Riegl s work and opens with a new translation of Hans Sedlmayr s famous and notorious Die Quintessenze der Lehren Riegls Included is Julius von Schlosser s assessment of Riegl s contribution to the Vienna School of Art Historians as well as essays by a team of international scholars This book offers a re engagement with the ideas of one of the most important and neglected art historians of the 20th century      Beauty is Nowhere Saul Ostrow,2013-08-21 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Footnotes Elena Alexander,Douglas Dunn,1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Music Inside Out John Rahn,Benjamin Boretz,2014-03-18 John Rahn s prolific activities as a composer theorist teacher inventor of computer sound synthesis software editor of Perspectives of New Music during the 1980s and 90s and author of an exemplary text on atonal theory are conspicuously in the foreground of the academic music intellectual world This collection of essays charts Rahn s progression from the construal of music s data structures to the articulation of its experiential structures leading to the question of its moral infrastructures and its value systems of the internal and external worlds This book shows Rahn s remarkable intellectual evolution culminating in the recognition that the pressure bearing on discourse can only be contained by thought formulated in the non referential language of the arts themselves Also includes 18 musical examples      Critical Vices Nicholas Zurbrugg,Warren Burt,2005-07-15 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Saint Marks Jonathan Goldberg,2018-12-04 Saint Marks invokes and pluralizes the figure of Mark in order to explore relations between painting and writing Emphasizing that the saint is not a singular biographical individual in the various biblical and hagiographic texts that involve someone so named the book takes as its ultimate concern the kinds of material life that outlive the human subject From the incommensurate anachronic instances in which Saint Mark can be located among them as Evangelist or as patron saint of Venice the book traces Mark's afterlives within art sacred texts and literature in conversation with such art historians and philosophers as Aby Warburg Giorgio Agamben Georges Didi Huberman T J Clark Adrian Stokes and Jean Luc Nancy Goldberg begins in sixteenth century Venice with a series of paintings by Gentile and Giovanni Bellini Tintoretto and others that have virtually nothing to do with biblical texts He turns then to the legacy of John Ruskin's Stones of Venice and through it to questions about what painting does as painting A final chapter turns to ancient texts considering the Gospel of St Mark together with its double the so called Secret Gospel that has occasioned controversy for its homoerotic implications The posthumous persistence of a life is what the gospel named Mark calls the Kingdom of God Saints have posthumous lives but so too do paintings and texts This major interdisciplinary study by one of our most astute cultural critics extends what might have been a purely theological subject to embrace questions central to cultural practice from the ancient world to the present

Media Research Marshall McLuhan, 2014-01-02 Herbert Marshall McLuhan 1911-1980 received his PhD in English literature from Cambridge University and taught in the United States and Canada He is best known however as the founding father of media studies McLuhan was Director of the Center for Culture and Technology at the University of Toronto Among his ground breaking works on the psychic and social dimensions of communication technology are The Gutenberg Galaxy 1962 Understanding Media: the Extensions of Man 1964 and The Medium Is the Massage: An Inventory of Effects 1967 Michel Moos premise is that Marshall McLuhan's importance derives from his achievements in rethinking the entire process of education and training itself not with his popular fame as media guru and he analyzes McLuhan's work from the feedback effect his vision continues to provide rather than from the perspective of interpreting McLuhan's pronouncements on the electronic media Moos contrasts McLuhan's thoughts with those of such thinkers as Roland Barthes Fredric Jameson Friedrich Kittler Donna Haraway and Deleuze and Guattari and renders an updated account of the effect of the mass media on our society and ourselves The concept the medium is the message is the hub around which Marshall McLuhan's explorations revolved McLuhan's interests ranged from sixteenth century literature to twentieth century business practices With wit and literary flair he reported the media's influence on society and on the individual He concluded that we could not escape being transformed by the forces that are hidden deeply within the electronic telecommunications revolution of the sixties For McLuhan the new mediums of film television and the emerging realm of the digital were the modern equivalent of Gutenberg's printing press
