Book of This Place Deborah J. Haynes, 2009-09-01 The title of this engaging work emphasizes that the author lives works and creates art in this place a particular site in the foothills of the Colorado Rocky Mountains The subtitle indicates that place is the arena for investigating engagement with the land and nature art and creativity and spiritual life By exploring the significance of place in our fragmented world and by using her artistic practice as an example the author hopes to offer readers new definitions of the interrelationship of religion and art Haynes is the first to examine the intersection of these three themes which may be variously defined First the land and nature provide the literal site for the book and the language of ecology is woven throughout In the face of contemporary global crises Haynes believes that we have a moral imperative to address how we live and work in the physical environment Second visual art creativity and the creative process are discussed using historical and contemporary examples Haynes is a philosopher of art and an artist whose primary creative work involves carving marble and drawing Using her stone sculptures to frame the book's chapters she takes readers on a meandering journey into the history philosophy and practice of art Third the religious and spiritual life is highlighted with examples from both her practice of yoga and Buddhist meditation as well as from her work with hospice patients

The State of the University Stanley Hauerwas, 2008-04-15 In this book controversial and world renowned theologian Stanley Hauerwas tackles the issue of theology being sidelined as a necessary discipline in the modern university It is an attempt to reclaim the knowledge of God as just that knowledge Questions why theology is no longer considered a necessary subject in the modern university and explores the role it should play in the development of our knowledge Considers how theology is often excluded from the knowledges of the modern university because these are constituted by an understanding of time necessary to make economic and state realities seem inevitable Argues that it is precisely this difference that makes Christian theology an essential resource for the university to achieve its task that is to form people who are able to imagine a different world through critical and disciplined reflection Challenges the domesticated character of much recent theology by suggesting how prayer and the love of the poor are essential practices that should shape the theological task Converses with figures as diverse as Luigi Giussani David Burrell Stanley Fish Wendell Berry Jeff Stout Rowan Williams and Sheldon Wolin Published in the new and prestigious Illuminations series Rock Sculpture Violet L. Stage,1988 Amateur work, illustrated ,1882 Appalachian Ways Jill Durrance,William Shamblin,1976 Beyond Molasses Creek Nicole Seitz,2012-01-30 Three lives are bound by a single book and the cleansing waters of Molasses Creek Having traveled to the ends of the earth as a flight attendant Ally Green has finally returned to the Lowcountry to bury her father as well as the past But Vesey Washington is still living across the creek and theirs is a complicated relationship he was once her best friend and also part of the reason she s stayed away so long When Ally discovers a message her father left behind asking her to quit running it seems her past isn t through with her yet As Ally s wandering spirit wrestles with a deep longing to flee again a young woman on the other side of the world escapes her life of slavery in the rock quarries of Nepal A mysterious sketchbook leads Sunila Kunari to believe there s more to her story than she s ever been told and she s determined to follow the truth wherever it leads her A deep current intertwines the lives of these three souls and a destiny of freedom faith and friendship awaits them all on the banks of Molasses Creek Seitz has written good stories in the past but Beyond Molasses Creek exceeds all of them Jackie K Cooper The Huffington Post Our Indifferent Universe Surazeus Astarius,2019-01-25 Our Indifferent Universe presents 903 poems written 2015 2017 by Surazeus that explore what it means to be a human in our indifferent universe Zamimolo's Story, 50,000 BC Bonnye Matthews,2014-04-12 Bonnye Matthews is America s preeminent writer of prehistoric history Grace Cavellieri of The Poet and the Poem from the Library of Congress Zamimolo s Story 50 000 BC is book 3 in the popular Winds of Change series Follow Zamimolo on his quest to rescue Olomaru mia the woman who was to be his wife They face significant environmental changes in their new land from temperature change and lack of seasonal variation More importantly they face an entirely different set of living creatures They are surrounded by Volkswagen sized armadillos twenty foot tall sloths terror birds and short trunked camels Less than a day after their arrival a significant event occurs that has a profound effect on Zamimolo Read to see how the People manage with this huge change some of which involves several different groups of people already living in the area before they arrive The Winds of Change novel series views the peopling of the Americas primarily from research over the last 15 years The series takes the what if perspective What might it have been like if the Americas abounded in human life long before 12 000 years ago What author Bonnye Mathews has managed to do is to expertly craft a series of notably entertaining novels that incorporates new data into an historical fictional accounts that bring these ancient peoples alive Midwest Book Review The Builder ,1879
