Quality Time Little Readers Emma Bailey,1991      Quality Time Little Readers Stephanie Oda,1991      Quality Time Little Readers Patricia Whitten,1991      Literacy and Young Children Diane M. Barone,Lesley Mandel Morrow,2003-01-01

One of two parents guides based on the revised National Curriculum this book is intended as an introduction to Key Stages 1 and 2 The need for parents to be involved in their children s education has taken root in recent years To be able to make choices however parents need to be informed This book is intended to enable them to get to grips with the elements of the National Curriculum and topical issues      Alternating Narratives in Fiction for Young Readers Perry Nodelman,2017-04-17

This book is about the implications of novels for young readers that tell their stories by alternating between different narrative lines focused on different characters It asks if you make sense of fiction by identifying with one main character how do you handle two or more of them Do novels with alternating narratives diverge from longstanding conventions and represent a significant change in literature for young readers If not how do these novels manage to operate within the parameters of those conventions This book considers answers to these questions by means of a series of close readings that explore the structural educational and ideological implications of a variety of American British Canadian and Australian novels for children and for young adults      The Book of Letters Helen Calverley,2025-04-13 Mail correspondence is a dying art but there are still some who practise this special genuine and kind gesture one of whom is Helen Calverley Over the years after reading a good book or watching a moving performance Helen wrote to the author or entertainer to express her admiration and appreciation for their work The Book of Letters is a collection of those personal letters all enthusiastic thoughtful and charming Through her letters Helen has curated a list of prominent Canadian literature Along with providing book reviews the letters offer endearing insights into some well known Canadian authors such as Carol Shields and Sandra Birdsell Some other authors and entertainers featured in the book include Martha Brooks Jake MacDonald Francois Picard Wanda Ryder Margaret Atwood Jann Arden and Rick Mercer as well as Anita Shreve Hillary Clinton and Martha Stewart Often the authors replied with thanks and delight Helen now shares her personal collection of letters with the public hoping that readers will enjoy them      Working Mother ,1987-03 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives      John Shaw Neilson Hewson, Helen,1997-02-11 The selection begins in 1906 when A G Stephens started up The Bookfellow From this crucial point and throughout the ensuing thirty five years we follow Neilson the man farming and working in the bush maintaining caring relationships with his scattered family and finally moving in 1928 to Melbourne and a job as an interdepartmental messenger with the Country Roads Board in Carlton Helen Hewson has chosen and edited her material from more than a thousand existing letters most of which have not been published previously They cover family social and publishing correspondence in addition to the detailed letters about writing poetry which passed between Neilson and his three very different editorial advisers A G Stephens Robert H Croll and James Devaney his first biographer Other writers of the period who corresponded with Neilson included Robert Bridges Mary Gilmore Christopher Brennan Vance and Nettie Palmer Hubert Church Percival Serle and Frank Wilmot The letters are full of revealing details about his association with many institutions and personalities the Australian Literature Association the Bread and Cheese Club Coles Book Arcade the Hill of Content the Hawthorn Press Blamire Young Vance and Nettie Palmer Mary Gilmore Bernard O Dowd Frank Wilmot Victor Kennedy and others John Shaw Neilson A Life in Letters establishes a social background and a literary context which ends any suggestion that Neilson is merely a bush poet or a simple singer This complex poet participated in an intricate network of literary relationships and literary production and it is only through reading the letters that one realises the degree to which he reflected on his own and other people s poetry and writing

Children's Vegetarian Culture in the Victorian Era Marzena Kubisz,2024-09-18

This book fills a unique gap in the research on the cultural history of vegetarianism and veganism children s literature and Victorian periodicals and it is the first publication to systematically describe the phenomenon of Victorian children s vegetarianism and its representations in literature and culture Situated in the broad socio literary context spanning the late nineteenth century and early twentieth century the book lays the groundwork for contemporary children s vegan literature and argues that present ethical and environmental concerns can be traced back to the Victorian period Following the current turn in contemporary research on children their experience and their voices the author examines children s vegetarian culture through the prism of the periodicals aimed directly at them It analyses how vegetarian principles were communicated to children and listens to the voices of children who were vegetarians and who tested their newly formed identity in the pages of three magazines published between 1893 and 1914 The Daisy Basket The Children s Garden and The Children s Realm This book will appeal to the growing body of researchers interested in the social cultural and literary aspects of vegetarianism and veganism human animal relations childhood studies children s literature periodical studies and Victorian studies
