I Love The Trumpet Dvd:

ITG Journal International Trumpet Guild,2007 Re/Presenting Gender and Love Dikmen Yakalı Çamoğlu,2019-01-04

This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This volume presents interdisciplinary explorations aiming to understand the interaction and interconnection between the concepts of love and gender Throughout the chapters the reader can pursue various representations of gender and love and explore how their meanings are produced in different periods and geographies These representations produce embodied individuals and shared meanings in which gender and love mutually construct each other As you will see in the following chapters what we set out to understand most of the time was not individual relationships but the relations of power Thus these essays show how gender and love are represented in various discourses produced in knowledge in philosophy psychology literature and popular culture and regulated by the discursive practices and disciplinary techniques of different societies Miles Davis Clarence Bernard Henry,2017-08-15

This research and information guide provides a wide range of scholarship on the life career and musical legacy of Miles Davis and is compiled for an interdisciplinary audience of scholars in jazz and popular music musicology and cultural studies It serves as an excellent tool for librarians researchers and scholars sorting through the massive amount of material in the field

Balkan Fascination Mirjana Lausevic,2007-01-04 Divi Zheni identifies itself as a Bulgarian women s chorus and band but it is located in Boston and none of its members come from Bulgaria Zlatne Uste is one of the most popular purveyors of Balkan music in America yet the name of the band is grammatically incorrect The members of Sviraci hail from western Massachusetts upstate New York and southern Vermont but play tamburica music on traditional instruments Curiously thousands of Americans not only participate in traditional music and dance from the Balkans but in fact structure their social practices around it without having any other ties to the region In Balkan Fascination ethnomusicologist Mirjana Lausevic a native of the Balkans investigates this remarkable phenomenon to explore why so many Americans actively participate in specific Balkan cultural practices to which they have no familial or ethnic connection Going beyond traditional interpretations she challenges the notion that participation in Balkan culture in North America is merely a specialized offshoot of the 1960s American folk music scene Instead her exploration of the relationship between the stark sounds and lively dances of the Balkan region and the Americans who love them reveals that Balkan dance and music has much deeper roots in America s ideas about itself its place in the world and the place of the world s cultures in the American melting pot Examining sources that span more than a century and come from both sides of the Atlantic Lausevic shows that an affinity group s debt to historical movements and ideas though largely unknown to its members is vital in understanding how and why people make particular music and dance choices that substantially change their lives The Penguin Guide to Compact Discs and DVDs 2003/4 Ivan March,Edward Greenfield,Robert Layton,Paul Czajkowski,2003 The Penguin Guide to Compact Discs and DVDs is the largest and most comprehensive survey of classical music on digital audio and video discs ever
